BREAK IN RANKS

Wheat Growers associated, the national wheat co-operative organization with headquarters here, and W. J. Brown has resigned as president of Situations Wanted—Female.... ed has withdrawn from the American the national body, it was announced

Brown, in making the announce-ment, declined to give the complete reason for the break, but said that it will be permanent unless of the con-duct of the American group is changed.

He said the Minnesota association Wanted—Instruction Wanted—Instruction will be permanent unless of the con- Corre duct of the American group is changed.

will market its 1924 crop with the new grain marketing company of Chicago, formed by the consolidation of the five private companies into a cooperative organization. He added that the wish to market with the Chicago company was the immediate cause of the withdrawal.

By common consent of the Minneota and American organizations, the five-year contract which bound the body to turn over its wheat to the American was abrogated. Brown said.

C. M. Strawman of Montana, general manager of the American Wheat Growers associated, said that all the other state organizations, Montana, North Dakota and South Dakota, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and Colorado remain with the American.

MEDICAL ARTS ARGUMENTS END

mortgagors of the Medical Arts building completed arguments Wednesday before District Judge Hastings in the suit by which the lien holders are seeking to establish priority of their claims over the claims of the mortgagors. Two weeks will be allowed for written briefs to be filed, and two weeks more for answers before the case is submitted for decision.

Come on Folks! Mrs. Pierce is serving another of her good old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinners at the Flatiron Cafe in the Flatiron Hotel building. There'll be home-made mince-meat and pickled peaches, plum pudding, nuts and all the other goodies that add to the savor of the king of birds. Make up your parties, large or small, and up your parties, large or small, and phone your reservations to JA ckson 1305 or drop in noon or night and en-joy the feast.

We are glad of this opportunity to extend to everyone our
