prive Stagg's warriors of the title. They also will remember how the diminutive Bob Curley saved the Northwestern game by booting a field goal in the last couple of miutes to play, which gave Chicago a 3 to 0 vic-They will also recall how he kicked a field goal which enabled the Maroons to tie Ohio.

Michigan is in a position to boast of staging a strong comeback after a disastrous setback at the hands of Illinois. The Wolverines won four successive games after the slaughter successive games after the slaughter at Champaign, three of which found REPORT BRAVES their opponents unable to score. Then, in the final game, the Wolverines were upset by Iowa to the tune of 9 to 2, giving Bert Ingwersen, Iowa's 25-year-old coach, a tie for second place.

Wisconsin suffered its most disas trous season in years, its bet being a tie with Minnesota, followed by a row the stockholders are not willing to of defeats until they fought the champion Chicago team to a scoreless tie on the last day of the season. Ohio was likewise handicapped by injuries and lack of sterling material.

Northwestern fans regard their team as one of the best in years. Their first conference victory in more than two years and close battles with Chicago and Notre Dame embellish their record. Ralph Baker's toe figured largely in their scoring.

Northwestern stopped the "fou horsemen" of Notre Dame twice with in the 15-yard line on the last day of the Big Ten season, but the famous four finally put over two touchdowns for their sixth straight victory of the major eleven in the country not de- of the local sporting institution meet scalps of Princeton, Army, Georgia honors.
