For Mrs. Meidell.

Mrs. Charles O. Meidell of Brownlee, Neb., who was one of the spring brides, is here to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Munroe.

Among the many affairs for Mrs. Meidell are a dinner to be given Thursday night by her mother, when the bridesmaids who served Mrs. Meidell (Miss Maude Munroe) at her wedding will be the guests; a dinner Wednesday night, when Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jones and daughter, Miss Corinne, will entertain for the bridesmaids.

Mrs. Edith Franklin and daughters, Misses Eloise and Mabel, were Sunday dinner hosts to the visitor, and on Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McVaine and daughter, Miss Lorraine, entertained at a dinner of 20 covers.

Mrs. William Roberts will give a luncheon on Thursday for Mrs. Meidell, and Miss Doris Piper will be a Wednesday luncheon hostess for her.

Magistrate Is First of Sex in Indian Post.

Mrs. Harry Hodgkinson, a Journalist, just appointed residency magistrate for the Island of Bombay, is the first woman municipal councillor in India.

"Medic Night" for Students and Faculty of College.

Faculty members and students of the University of Nebraska, college of medicine, held "Medic Night," an innovation for the school, at Brandeis restaurants Saturday night.

Dr. Charles A. Hull was chairman and toastmaster for the gala affair.

Club College News.

Another evidence of the vigorous efficiency of the Omaha College club comes in the publication of a monthly paper of four pages called "Club News." As an attractive decoration on the cover the torch of learning flames in a circle rimmed with the words "Omaha College Club." This artistic design is the work of Miss Lydia McCague.

Mrs. Ira Jones and Miss Jean Rae, assisted by Miss Mary Collard and Mrs. S. E. Thompson, comprise the press committee. Mrs. James E. Bednar is president of the organization.

Christmas Bazaars.

Bethany Presbyterian church, Twentieth and Willis avenue, annual Christmas bazaar and food sale, Wednesday at 205 South Fifteenth street.

The reorganized Latter Day Saints parish will hold their annual bazaar in the Flatiron building, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The Sisterhood of Temple Israel will hold a bazaar at 420 South Seventeenth Wednesday and Thursday, December 10 and 11.

Hamilton's Second Child.

A second daughter was born Monday in Washington, D. C., to Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton of that city. Mrs. Hamilton, formerly Miss Marian Hamilton of this city, has her mother, Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, as her guest. Omahans are anticipating the visit Mrs. Hamilton, Jr., will make in Omaha with her two babies in the spring.

Tea for Misses Ross.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Ross will entertain at a tea on Saturday, December 20, from 4 until 6 o'clock, at their home for their daughters, the Misses Frances and Elizabeth Ross.

Miss Edith Latta of Tekamah, Neb., fiancée of Jasper Hall, has arrived to remain indefinitely as the guest of Miss Frances Castetter.

The Housewife's Idea Box

To Clean White Boot Tops

Here is a very successful way of cleaning the white tops of boots: Mix one ounce of oxalic acid with two ounces of finely powdered pumice stone. Scrub this well into the shoe with a hard brush. Sponge it off well with cold water. Dry in sun or before the fire.

Your Problems

By Martha Allen

Shall She Wait?

Dear Miss Allen: I am 29 and have been going about with a young man one year my senior. I am very much in love with him and he is even more in love with me. We have been going around together for three years.

For the past two years we have planned to get married. But every time my sweet heart made a venture in business it proved unsuccessful and so, for financial reasons, we have had to postpone our marriage.

During these three years I have not allowed any other young man to show me any attention. Lately, my parents have begun to object strenuously, saying my fiancé will never amount to anything, and asking why I do not go with other young men. I have complete faith in him, but they want me to give him up. I don't know what to do, as I love him very much. His mother has never accepted me, as she objects to his marrying. Please advise me, for I'm very much puzzled.

X. M.

If you can manage by the strictest economy to live on what your fiancé is earning now I suggest that you marry very soon. For too long engagements are not advisable. However, if this is not practicable, give him at least one more year in which to get a start in business. You love each other and are both young, so you can afford to wait that much longer.

Your parents are thinking only of your own good and happiness, so doubtless they also can be persuaded to give him one more chance at least to make good in business.

Puzzled: If the boy prefers to go with two girls instead of one, there is no harm in that, so long as he is honest with each one of them. A girl makes a mistake to think that because a boy shows a preference for her society that he should give up all other friends and leave only to her. Friendship is not possession.

At Presbyterian Meeting.

Dr. Donald C. McLeod, pastor of the Dundee Presbyterian church in Chicago this week attending a national conference of the leaders of the Presbyterian church. Dr. Edwin Hart Jenks, Rev. Elmer D. Whitcomb, Dr. Charles Herron and Dr. L. C. Denise are also attending the meeting.

What Mrs. Durkee Told Madge About Edith.

When little Mrs. Durkee scolds she is irresistibly funny. I found myself helpless with laughter at her application to the mother-in-law problem of Adam's biblical pronouncement concerning a man's "cleaving only" to his wife, and, after frowning disgustedly at me for a second, she banished her cholera in her whole-hearted fashion, and joined in my mirth.

"You just wait till you're a mother-in-law," she pouted, repeating a familiar plaint. "Then you'll know something about how one feels."

"I know how my own mother-in-law will feel," I retorted, laughing, "if I don't bring her up that coffee I promised her."

For answer little Mrs. Durkee whisked up the coffee pot and emptied its contents into the sink while I widened my eyes in amazement.

"You don't imagine I'm going to send her anything but special fresh-made coffee after that compliment from her, do you?" she demanded. "Nay, nay, my child!"

"You No Mean—"

With swift, sure movements, she rinsed out the coffee-pot, put in it more boiling water and the measurements of coffee which make her perfect recipe. Then she set it over the gas flame just as Katie put her head in at the door, exclaiming in astonishment when she saw us.

"You two ladies doin' down here in middle of night?" she demanded with her wide, irresistible grin.

"It's not the middle of the night," Mrs. Durkee retorted, with an answering smile. "The sun is up."

"No for me," Katie said, "but middle of night for fine ladies. They ought to get—vot you call eet?—beauty sleep."

"We've had something better than beauty sleep, Katie," little Mrs. Durkee dimpled and preened herself as she prepared to tell her news, but Katie, with a startled gasp, anticipated her.

"You no mean ba-bee! Oh—how lully and me sound asleep! I keek myself down seven stairs."

"Well, while you're doing it, fix a tray with some toast and keep an eye on that coffee. It's for Mother Graham, so don't you dare let it boil over. I'll be back before it's ready to serve. Lay places here for Miss Fairfax and the nurse. It's too cold in the dining room."

"I never take my eyes off dot coffee," Katie fervently promised, and Mrs. Durkee drew me into the dining room, closing the door behind us. There was a curious hesitation in her manner, and she spoke my name twice before she finally hurried into the little speech for which she patiently waited.

"It's a hard thing to start ex-

Education Important in Country Where Decisions Rest With People.

E. C. Page, Omaha attorney, addressed the political and social science department of the Omaha woman's club Monday at its regular meeting, speaking on the subject "Americanization."

Mr. Page commented on the interest shown in Omaha on the part of foreign born, in our laws, language and customs.

"The great body of foreign born are anxious to know about our government and our language and are devoted students in our night schools," said Mr. Page, who complimented Miss Ella Thorngate, director of night schools, for her competent work.

"Education is a most important factor in a country where the laws, and in fact all ultimate decisions, lie with the people. Marked relief cannot be expected until people understand how to vote. It is necessary not only for people to vote at general elections but to be represented at the primaries as well."

"They Are Wearing"

Couch covers of French moquette are imported in lovely blended pastel colorings.

Red Lacquer is favored for the most up-to-date tea wagons.

Ostrich fans were very numerous at the opera, many developed in willowed effects, in green and rose shades.

Frame, and look and key bags are being favored by many women in preference to under-arm effects.

Long, straight, but very full, ostrich boas were a feature of the opera audiences of the week, as well as noted at several plays.

Beauty

A Gleamy Mass of Hair
35c "Danderine" does Wonders for Any Girl's Hair

Girls! Try this! When combing and dressing your hair, just moisten your hair-brush with a little "Danderine" and brush it through your hair. The effect is startling! You can do your hair up immediately and it will appear twice as thick and heavy—a mass of gleamy hair, sparkling with life and possessing that incomparable softness, freshness and luxuriance.

While beautifying the hair "Danderine" is also toning and stimulating each single hair to grow thick, long and strong. Hair stops falling out and dandruff disappears. Get a bottle of "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter and just see how healthy and youthful your hair appears after this delightful, refreshing dressing.

Raisin Pie ask a man!

Raisin pie is a favorite with men. They have it frequently at restaurants for lunch. Because they like its satisfying goodness.

Men would like to have raisin pie more often at home. You will please your men folks by serving it for supper. Have raisin pie tonight—and see!

Don't bother to bake it yourself. I know how to bake the kind of raisin pies men like. I use the same materials that you would use. The raisins are Sun-Maid Raisins. The same that you buy in the Sun-Maid package—big, plump, juicy raisins, the choicest fruit of California's vineyards.

Cut through the golden, flaky crust into one of my juicy, raey raisin pies and learn how good real raisin pie can be! Serve one tonight.
