Wheat Recovers and Moves Up to Stronger Close

Independent Strength in Corn Stabilizes Leading Cereal; Oats Prices Firm; Rye Depressed Early.

By CHARLES J. LEYDEN, hiversal Service Staff Correspondent, hlongo, Dec. 23.—Recovering well fron heavy holiday ilquidation of the pre is session wheat prices moved over at rular course today to a strong and er close. Timely support from interthat were among the best sellers the few days offset the continued profitig. Independent strength in corn no, went a long way in stabilizing the

Bulls Not Strong

By RICHARD SPILLANE,
Universal Service Financial Editor.
New York, Dec. 23.—It was a decidedly irregular stock market today, with a mixture of pleasant and unpleasant development. The rate on demand lozas was increased to 5 per cent, which is the highest since May. As against this, freight car loadings were excellent, American Can declared an extra dividend, Anaconda Copper came forward with a surprise by resumption of dividend, copper was higher, lead up in price and zinc at its highest in a long time.

Whether it was the Christmas atmosphere or doubt as to the market generally, there was no strong evidence of
