

Day Is Lauded in New Stand on Divorces

Decision to Tighten Granting of Decrees Well Received by Prominent Omaha Citizens.

The decision of District Judge L. B. Day who presides over the domestic relations court, to draw the lines tighter in granting divorce decrees, particularly in cases where children are involved, has brought expressions of commendation.

The judge's words were strengthened by refusal on Friday to grant three decrees applied for, one case being where mother and father are separated and have four children.

The judge made it known that obtaining a divorce decree in his court will require "more definite and certain information" hereafter.

The judge is taking a long step forward in preventing the growing evil of parents remarrying and letting their children suffer because of domestic difficulties.

Belle M. Ryan, assistant superintendent of schools, stated that it is well to consider each case on its individual merits.

Louis Berka, former police judge, said "My view is that a divorce decree should not be granted unless one of the parties has established statutory grounds for the divorce."

Mrs. Hallock Rose, prominent in republican circles, said "Judge Day is probably correct in his decision. Many persons think too lightly of marriage."

Woodrugh to Grand Island. Federal Judge Woodrugh, R. C. Hoyt, clerk of the federal court, United States Marshal Dennis H. Cronin, and Robert Samardick, prohibition agent, will go to Grand Island Monday to attend federal court which opens there on that date.

Dogs "Present Arms" in Military Fashion

These three dogs in the position of "present arms" are the pets of Albert Bongers, Jr., of Brainerd, Neb., who trained them to sit up in this military fashion.

The big one is a shepherd, the little one is a fox terrier and the black one is a half-breed bulldog 15 years old.

NATIONAL FOREST GIVEN ADDITION

Washington, Jan. 10.—President Coolidge today issued an executive order adding 1,700 acres of public land to the Maril national forest, the tract being located in Carbon county, Utah.

Withdrawal of this tract from the public domain will not interfere with legal rights already obtained on the tract. Secretary of the Interior Work said.

HAHNE SANE, SAYS JAILER JOE SHERRY

Joe Sherry, jailer at the county jail, Saturday said that after several conversations with J. Warren Hahne, real estate man who is charged with the murder of his wife and is under observation in regard to his sanity, he believed him to be absolutely sane.

"If Hahne is insane, then every prisoner we have here is the same," said Sherry.

"Ah, Watson, 'twas a waiter's hand!" We heard Old Sherlock mutter; "For here it is, as plain as land, His thumb print on the butter."

Shades of Horrors! 3 "Friday 13ths" in 1925, School Holidays Scarce

The 1925 calendar offers several interesting features for those who may be interested in turning over the pages and perusing the combinations of days and dates.

Those who believe in signs may note that this year has three Fridays which occur on the 13th day of February, March and November.

Two of these, supposedly ill-fated days being near at hand, those who look with misgivings on Friday the 13th will have a rest until the next to the last month of the year.

School Holidays Scarce. The school kiddies have grounds for complaint against the arrangement of this year's calendar which cheats them out of two holidays, Washington's birthday anniversary being on a Sunday and Memorial day on a Saturday.

The law of compensation brings a grain of comfort in the thought that July 4 will be on a Saturday. On Friday afternoon, July 2, celebrants of the national holiday, will be able to plan for an outing of two days.

Lent Starts February 25. Lent will start this year on February 25, which will be an important date for those who observe this season of abstinence. Easter will be on Sunday, April 12, the time when April showers share interest with milady's new hat and frock.

Twelve years ago Easter Sunday occurred on March 23, a day made memorable by a tornado which brought a grim ending to a joyous occasion.

During the week of February 22, Tuesday will be the only day without a state or religious holiday.

The children above were photographed Friday, part of a group which received shoes.

The weather man predicts more zero weather. And each day new cases of desperately poor families brought to the attention of the Free Shoe Fund with pitiful appeals to help their tiny tots.

As far as money comes to the fund they are helped. Their cold, unprotected feet are covered with warm, soft shoes.

Twenty-five such cases are now on the waiting list. It will require nearly $100 to take care of those.

Maybe you can help a child. If so, mail or deliver your check, cash or money order to The Omaha Bee office. It will be acknowledged in this column, and be assured it will do a wonderful service to some poor little child.

APPROPRIATION FOR VET BUREAU

Washington, Jan. 10.—An allotment of $405,700,000 for the United States Veterans' bureau was the largest item in the independent offices appropriation bill, reported to the house today.

The bill carried a total of $452,549,617 for the operation during the fiscal year beginning July 1 of federal bureaus not connected with the principal departments.

Auto Victim Better. Mrs. Lloyd Jenkins, who suffered a fracture of the vertebrae at the back of her neck when she was thrown from an automobile that crashed into a house, is reported to be showing a gradual improvement Saturday morning at Lord Lister hospital.

KENDALL PARDONS TWO LIFE TERMERS. Des Moines, Jan. 10.—Governor N. E. Kendall, who retires next week, Friday pardoned L. W. Haley and Hugh Robbards, who have been in state prison since 1924, following conviction of the murder at Dubuque of Theodore Frith and Henry Talcott, railway detectives.

Both men have contended they were innocent since they began their life terms. Robbards is now 70 years old.

And another good way to prolong convalescence is to call on your sick friend and chatter incessantly for an hour or so at each bedside.

Neihardt Will Read Poem to Graduates

John G. Neihardt

The Central High school midyear graduating class will present John G. Neihardt, Nebraska's poet laureate, in a reading of "The Song of the Indian Wars," January 16.

Last Friday night the seniors held a banquet at the University club. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Masters and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beveridge were honored guests. Dancing followed the dinner.

On January 23, in Central High school auditorium, the graduates will hold joint commencement exercises with the midyear graduates of South High school.

Dr. Frank G. Smith of the First Central Congregational church will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the Central students Sunday morning, January 15.

Willard Bailey is the class president.

RAW OYSTER FOOD BARRED IN ILLINOIS

Chicago, Jan. 10.—Illinois residents with a taste for raw oysters are going to have to practice self-restraint. On Thursday, January 15, it will be illegal to eat the uncooked blivets in Illinois.

Director Isaac D. Rawlings, of the department of health, issued the order today as a precaution against an epidemic of typhoid fever. It is the most drastic order ever issued in this state.

The local health officers throughout the state have the burden of seeing that the law is enforced.

RUSSIAN CLAIMS NEW CANCER CURE

Leningrad, Jan. 10.—Dr. Molotoff, professor in the Neurological academy here, announces the employment of a new method of treating cancer which he claims will effect cures. The treatment consists in cutting the nerve leading directly to the cancerous growth.

According to Professor Molotoff the nerve plays a vital part in all cases of cancer. At the academy of medical sciences he exhibited several patients who he said had been cured by the new method. The same treatment, he asserts, will also heal gangrene and inflammation of the marrow of bones.

Arrest Bob If He's Rough, Is Police Order

Dunn Says Bring in Samardick and Suspect; Legality of New Order Is Questioned.

Police Commissioner Henry Dunn issued an order Saturday that if police officers assisting Prohibition Agent Samardick in liquor raids note any unwarranted rough methods being used they shall arrest both Samardick and the citizens involved and bring them to Central station.

"If the charges filed against Samardick should be sustained in the trial I will order the police squad withdrawn from the duty it is now performing in assisting the federal prohibition officers," he said.

"But the charges will have to be proved before I will take this action. Three Withdrawn.

"I won't have my men participating in any beatings. The police squad detailed to assist the federal liquor sleuths has been under direction of three men who have withdrawn. They are Joe Potach, Ed Vanous and Walter Lickert.

I Don't Know. Whether or not a police officer has the power to arrest a federal prohibition agent is a question.

Such an action might be construed as "interfering with an officer in performance of his duty," attorneys say.

Asked what he will do if police attempt to arrest him, Bob Samardick replied, "I don't know," and added that he is "going to see Dunn."

35 to Graduate From Central High; 11 Plan to Attend Omaha University

Thirty-five students are expected to graduate from Central High the latter part of January. Twenty-five of them are girls.

Many of the graduates have been leaders in activities and at the same time received scholastic honors.

Some of the organizations in the school will lose the services of some of their lay members. The Register staff and the advertising department will be minus the services of Miss Clarice Vance.

Miss Vance, who was recently proclaimed one of the most beautiful girls at Central High, wrote the words to the school song, "We Will Always Boost for Central."

In a tally taken as to what university the students were planning to attend, Omaha university received 11 votes, Nebraska university, eight, Creighton, two, Eastern Music school, one and Iowa State college, one. Two are planning to take post-graduate courses at Central. Three admitted they were not going to attend any university.

Following is the list of the graduates and the schools which they hope to attend.

Willard Bailey, Nebraska; Wayne Baird, P. O. SENATE ASKS TARIFF DATA

Washington, Jan. 10.—A resolution asking the tariff commission for full information about its operations under the flexible provisions of the tariff law was adopted today by the senate.

Before adoption the resolution, offered by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the democratic leader, was divided of a provision under which a special investigation of the commission, with particular relation to the delay in action on the sugar tariff, would have been undertaken by a senate committee.

DISTRICT LEGION MEETING MONDAY

The Second district of the Nebraska American Legion will hold its annual convention at Valley next Monday afternoon. The meeting will close with a banquet and entertainment by the Valley post Monday evening.

Sam W. Reynolds, national committeeman; Charles Courtney, state commander, and Frank O'Connell, state adjutant, will be among the speakers. All posts in the district will send their post officers.

C. of C. to Hear Doctor. Members of the Goodfellowship committee of the Chamber of Commerce will be addressed by Dr. W. N. Anderson, Omaha, Monday noon. Dr. Anderson will speak on his medical experiences abroad.

Muny Air Field Still in Future

Flying Club Endorses Aviation Efforts of Chamber of Commerce.

Reports that an option on land to establish a municipal air field has been secured were denied by Omaha air enthusiasts Saturday.

They say no site has been picked and the present "loose" talking causes the price of a possible site to be advanced.

Ralph Kiewitt, chairman of the air transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, said he knew nothing of a site with an option attached to it. A meeting will be held next week, he said.

At a meeting Thursday night, the Reserve Officers' Flying club of Omaha passed a resolution endorsing the Chamber of Commerce for its work in attempting to secure an air field.

The resolution follows: Whereas the Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a movement to procure for the city of Omaha a municipal aviation field, and

Whereas there is a popular demand for a creation of more municipal aviation fields throughout the country. Be it Resolved That the Chamber of Commerce, the Reserve Officers' Flying club of the city of Omaha heartily endorse the project as outlined by the Chamber of Commerce, and hereby acknowledge to lend its support in a fitting manner.

"We have several schemes in hand and expect to close in the future," said Gould Dietz, Omaha flying enthusiast.

Legion to Urge Medal for Youth

Adjutant Accedes to Request of War Vet Saved From River.

The Omaha post, American Legion, will try to get a Carnegie medal for Harold Lyon, 15, Nebraska City, who, on January 2, risked his life to save that of Carl James, 25, when the latter had fallen through an air hole in the ice on the Missouri river.

James made the request and Adjutant Harry Hough has begun collecting evidence to be forwarded to the Carnegie commission.

Prisoner Wins Freedom. Federal Judge Woodrugh granted a writ of habeas corpus to Alfo J. Hino Saturday morning, who pleaded guilty last July before Judge McGee and was sentenced to three months each on three sales of liquor and to eight months for maintaining a liquor nuisance. It was ruled that a sales count constituted a nuisance count in this case, which was appealed.
