Girl Sues Omaha Police After She Is Freed in Iowa

Evelyn Taylor, Released on Habeas Corpus Writ, Brings Action Against Police Chief.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan, 10 .- A $5,000 damage action was begun today against the Omaha police department by Evelyn Taylor, pretty 17 year-old chorus girl, following her aprisonment here at the instance of her father, Harry Sheppard, of Omaha.

Shortly after her release by Municipal Judge Thomas L. Sellers Saturday afternoon on a writ habeas corpus, she signed a petition the office of her attorney, John Pendergast, claiming malicious prose cution, and naming Chief of Police Van Deusen of Omaha.

Officials En Route.

Officials fram Omaha, unaware of her relase, were meanwhile reported here to return her to They were expected to arrive some time Saturday night.

The writ of habeas corpus was obafternoon after the girl had spent nearly 24 hours in the city jail follow ing her arrest at a local theater Fri day night, when she was taken from her position in the chorus during the show by two detectives,

At the close of a hearing on the writ in municipal court she was dismissed from custody by Judge Sellers evidence of a legitimate charge against the girl. Judge Sellers held that she was not subject to the jurisdiction of juvenile authorities at Omaha and is no longer under con trol of her parents because of the fact that she is a married woman, most popular entertainers of the vauthereby claiming a legal majority.

Returns to Position.

Evelyn returned to her position in vue at the Majestic treater last night She defollowing her experience. clared her intention of remaining with the show and following her stage career despite any efforts of her father to force her return home.
