MANY NEGROES ARE OUT OF WORK

Unemployment among the colored population of Omaha is increasing at an alarming rate, according to R. L. Williams, commissioner of the Colored Commercial club of Omaha.

"We have 100 to 150 men in our office every day in search for employnent." he said, "We cannot find work for them all and many are almost destitute.

"Most of them are from the agricultural regions of the south and have sold small farms to come to Omaha where they heard that they could obtain good wages. They find that they are unsuited to industrial activities. "We are eager to obtain employ ment for them in order to keep the more desperate from resorting to crime.'

donna Rosa, as a favorite prima and the elder, Carmela, as the sister whose self-sacrifice had made possible the rise of Rosa to stardom. Several years ago in Meriden, Conn., so the story goes, the Ponselles were choir and vaudeville singers, Rosa a soprano and Carmela a mezzo-soprano. Each had said each had a good volce. But training was expensive and their father, an ice dealer-money was none too plentiful. So Carmela insisted that Rosa should use what there was for further study, while she herself would stay on the vaudeville stage. Rosa's phenominal success at the Metropolitan on the night of November 20, 1916, when she sang. 'La Forza Del Destino " with Caruso was the beginning of a bril-
