of samples in cham-
oisette novelties—
worth, per pair,
2.00 to 3.50

$1

- Beaded Cuffs
- Embroidery
- Novelty Cuts
- Turn Backs
- Slip-Ons
- Flare Cuffs

From America's foremost maker of high quality gloves, come these hundreds of pairs in the most novel and artistic combinations of fabric and trimming. Some beaded in bronze, in jet or in colors, some elaborately embroidered, some with unusually cut cuffs. They are remarkable at this absurdly low price.

NEW
in the
Mode

A Pattern Dress

is so beautiful and so simple to make. We have just received handsome 40-inch spiral crepe of the loveliest hand-dyed patterns. Inexpensive, too, yard—2.95

Upon Your Wrist

you can carry the newest handbag.
The "wrist strap" will be especially good this spring, along with the cuddly "under-arm" in silk and leather. Handbags—3.50 to 15.00

"Around Her Neck"

she wears a three-strand necklace of pearls. The short strands of various lengths are being favored this spring. In natural tints and colors. Jewelry—2.98 to 17.50

Flowers Are Growing

larger and larger! Time was when we needed a tiny blossom in the fur of our coat—but now, the bigger the better. Shining gardenias, lovely orchids with lilies, and naturally colored carnations are newest. Millinery—50c to 3.50

A Potted Hyacinth

that will last for months is a pretty good investment, especially when it looks so very real that you have to smell the blooms. Red geraniums too are bright and cheery for your window or sunroom. Art Section—1.00 to 3.50

Mr. Alligator

makes his appearance in the most newly arrived slipper. A beautiful pump, combined with shining patent leather or soft brown calf.
11.50 and 13.50

Gay Chintzes

tell us that spring has already arrived. Chintzes and bright cre-tonnes can achieve a light-hearted atmosphere for any room. Draperies, yard—2.9c to 1.50

If You Roll Your Own

you'll want the new Ann Pennington elastic. A wide piece of shirred silk, edged with elastic. The width hides the roll. All bright colors. Notions, yard—35c

Soft Frills

of pleated printed georgette make a beautiful finish for the neck and sleeves of your dress. Lovely colors, some bright, others somber, some with edgings of gold or silver.
Neckwear, yard—1.50

Sleeveless Sweaters

will gain favor as the season advances. We have new ones that you'll enthrall over—they're so chic, so smart, so swaggy!
1.85 to 4.98

Gay Morning Frocks

No. 253—Becoming to all figures—so easy to slip on. The youthful, straight silhouette is relieved by a smart bow on the left hip. Triple pocket and cuff effect are other distinctive features. White bias binding trims neckline, sleeves, pocket and sash.

Newly Arrived Stamped Pieces

Excellent tubing stamped with simple design, easily worked. They're different, having the hems turned on the right side.

Pillow Cases
