Makes Appointment for Conference With Coolidge; Hughes Off for Bermuda.

Washington, March 5 .- Frank R. Kellogg was sworn in today as secretary of state succeeding Charles E. Hughes who has held the post the last four years.

The oath was administered at the State department at 9:50 a. m. by Associate Justice Pierce Butler of the supreme court, who, like Mr. Kellogg, is a Minnesotan,

Some two score departmental officials, members of the Minnesota delegation to congress and visitors to Washington from Minnesota, were in the diplomatic reception room at the State department to witness the

There was no speech-making. An informal reception during which Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg mingled with the little group of invited guests followed. after which the secretary was escorted to the big desk in the office of the secretary of state to begin his

Within 15 minutes after Mr. Kel logg had taken the helm, Secretary Hughes had left the State department to complete his prepara tions for sailing Saturday for Bermuda, where he expects to spend several months before resuming his prac tice of law in New York. Plunging into his new duities, Sec retary Kellogg's first appointment was for a conference with President Coolidge with whom he will now work in guiding the nation's foreign William A. Jardine, formerly of the Kansas Agricultural college, was sworn in at 10:50 a. m., as secretary of agriculture, succeeding Howard M. Gore, who resigned to become governor of West Virginia.
