Fitzsimmons Would Stage Munn-Lewis Go

By Universal Service.
Michigan City, Ind., March 5.—Floyd Fitzsimmons, sports promoter and owner of the "blue sky" arena here, left today for Cleveland to interview Wayne (Big) Munn, with a view to matching him with Ed (Strangler) Lewis in a championship wrestling match at the arena Decoration day.

Munn won fame and the world heavyweight wrestling title when he tossed the champion, Ed Lewis, out of a ring in Kansas City. Lewis maintains he was fouled and that he is still champion. Floyd thinks the sporting world is anxious to see the controversy settled on the mat.

Fitzsimmons' arena seats 60,000 persons. He believes the match would draw $500,000 gate. As a supporting card he promises an "all nations" event.

Lewis is said to have promised Fitzsimmons his signature if he can get Munn's name on the dotted line.

Promoters in Cleveland, Boston, Kansas City, Chicago and New York are signaling for the match. Fitzsimmons is believed to have the "edge."

Lloyd McGahan Signs Two-Year Contract at Creighton University

He came to Creighton three years ago and during his reign as freshman coach has more than made a name for himself. He is considered one of the best football coaches in this section of the country.

With the announcement that McGahan would remain at Creighton, the athletic staff of the Bluejays that put Creighton on the athletic map last season will remain intact. The staff is composed of Athletic Director Schabinger, Head Football Coach Wynne and Freshman Coach McGahan.

Under the terms of the new contract McGahan will have charge of the freshmen athletic teams. Besides coaching the freshmen, McGahan will have charge of physical education at Creighton.

State "Y" Cage Meet at Fremont

THE annual state Y. M. C. A. basketball championship tournament will be held at Fremont, March 20 and 21, according to an announcement made this morning by Harry O. Palmer, member of the state basketball committee of the Y.

The tournament will be made up of two divisions, one for teams whose players are strictly "Y" members, and the other for league teams promoted by the Y. M. C. A., whose players are not necessarily members.

A large entry list is expected. Lincoln, Fremont, Grand Island, Hastings and other out-state towns will send teams. Omaha's "Y" will be represented.

Annual A. B. C. Tourney Opens

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 6.—Bowling today has reached its peak moment in national and world annals. The 25th annual tournament and silver jubilee of the American Bowling Congress was started on its way last night with a record-breaking entry of alley knights from the United States and Canada.

The opening night games were allotted to teams from Buffalo, with one lone exception, Newark, N. J., all the players being members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. This afternoon 28 teams of five department representatives will take the alleys, to be followed by Knights of Columbus teams.

Alonzo Stagg, Famous Chicago Uni Football Coach, Praises "Bill" Clark

Spends 15 Minutes in Omaha Thursday Between Trains.

ALONZO STAGG, famous football coach at the Chicago university, spent 15 minutes in Omaha Thursday afternoon while his Chicago bound train changed crews at the Union station.

Stagg is en route back to Chicago from Denver, Colo., where he has been arousing interest in the Chicago university's campaign for funds.

Hatless, his white hair kissed by the warm winds of Omaha's balmy March weather, Stagg spent the 15 minutes interim walking around the platform, and conversing with railroad men.

Stagg was high in his praise of "Bill" Clark, former Central High football player who was a member of the Chicago team last season, and evinced interest in "Bill's" younger brother, "Heinie," all state in Nebraska in 1924.

Firpo Pessimistic Over Boxing Sport in General

Paris, March 5.—Luis Firpo, Argentine battler and erstwhile contender for the world heavyweight belt, came back to Paris today, somewhat stouter, but still hopeful. Ring experts asserted that he was 40 pounds overweight.

Luis was somewhat pessimistic regarding the boxing sport in general. He said his exhibition bout with Townsend at Monte Carlo drew an attendance of 398 by actual count and that 30 per cent of those were complimentary, or "elegant gate crashers."

"Maybe I'll go back to America," he said. "It's pretty hard to train in France."

MOLLA MALLORY IN NET FINALS

Palm Beach, Fla., March 5.—Mrs. Molla B. Mallory, former national women's tennis champion, romped through her semi-final match today with Miss Penelope Anderson of Richmond, Va., in straight sets in the annual women's Florida tennis championship tournament here.

The scores were 6-1, 6-2. Mrs. Bernard Steiner of New York swept through her match with Miss Isabelle Lee Mumford, Boston, 6-3, 6-2, and will oppose Mrs. Mallory in the finals tomorrow.

Only one doubles match was played. Miss Penelope Anderson and Miss Mumford winning by default and Mrs. Bernard F. Steiner and Miss Clara Cassell, New York, winning from Mrs. W. J. Hill and Miss Margaret Gillison, both of St. Paul, Minn., in straight sets, 6-0, 6-0.

THREE BIKE TEAMS RETAIN LEADERSHIP

New York, March 5.—Three teams retained their lead at 10 tonight in the six-day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden, despite numerous attempts to displace them.

The opening night games were allotted to teams from Buffalo, with one lone exception, Newark, N. J., all the players being members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. This afternoon 28 teams of five department representatives will take the alleys, to be followed by Knights of Columbus teams.

Clan of Collins Stands Out Among Mighty Men High in Organized Ball

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 6.—Baseball has known many mighty men and high in the list of heroes stands the clan of Collins.

There was a great third baseman, Jimmy Collins of Boston, and one of the same name still plays with the American Legion team in the Bay state capital, John (Shano) of Pittsfield, Mass. There was still another—the left-handed pitcher, Ray, who also found a haven with the Red Sox after leaving the University of Vermont.

Here the marvelous quartet that was to become one of the most renowned infield combinations in baseball went into action with Stuffy McInnis at first, Collins at second, Jack Barry at short and Frank Baker at third. It became known as the "Big Four infield," yet a few years later Collins alone was sold for half that price.

Collins started to hit and in only two seasons, 1917 and 1918, he had fallen below the 300 mark. He batted for .369 in 1920, the highest average he ever has attained.

Today, however, the name Collins stands only the marvelous Edward Trowbridge of Lansdown, Pa., and the Chicago White Sox, who once deserted the clan and called himself Sullivan as a member of Connie Mack's Athletics. That happened in the days when Eddie was a student at Columbia university.

HUSKER MAT ENTRY LISTS RECEIVED

Lincoln, Neb., March 5.—Dr. R. G. Clapp of the University of Nebraska said today he had received lists of entries from four Missouri Valley conference schools for the Valley wrestling meet to be held here March 13 and 14. Kansas, Missouri, Iowa State and Kansas Aggies have announced their intention of participating.

Kansas, Iowa State and Missouri will enter full teams and the Kansas Aggies will have representatives in five of the seven events. Dr. Clapp said he also expected Oklahoma A. and M. to enter the meet with a strong team and said there was a possibility that Oklahoma will send representatives.

IOWAN REACHES NET SEMI-FINALS

Tampa, Fla., March 5.—Robert Kinsey of California chopped his way through to the semifinal round of the Dixie tennis tournament here this afternoon by winning straight sets from J. R. Thompson of Tampa, 6-0, 6-0.

Harris Coggeshall of Des Moines had a hard battle in disposing of Loraine Birch of the University of Florida, 7-6, 6-3, 6-0.

Coggeshall meets Kinsey tomorrow in the semifinals. The singles finals will be played Sunday afternoon.

Cole and Smiley were forced to four sets before they disposed of Coggeshall and Ward in the semifinal round. The Kinsey-Watters team meets Slade and Birch in the semifinal round in the first bracket tomorrow.
