Then the fight waxed hot, with Grand Island seeing victory slipping away and battling desperately to regain the lead. Omaha led, and then Grand Island, until the score was knotted at 20-20, with three minutes to go. Here Schneider was fouled on an underbasket shot and made his throws good, and a minute later made a pretty pass down the court to Cowan from stall formation, which caught the Gold napping, and Cowan slipped through an easy shot. That put the game on ice, and a minute later the final gun banged. Schneider was outstanding on the Omaha attack and led in the scoring column with 14 points. Anderson played a fine game at forward despite a sprained thumb, and Cowan, at the other forward, was in every play with characteristic fight.
