W. F. Baxter Tells Rotarians Value of Higher Education Plant to Community.

There is nothing in the whole educational field that gives so much service as a city college or university, W. F. Baxter, president of Thomas Kilpatrick company, told members of the Rotary club Wednesday noon at Hotel Fontenelle. Baxter has spoken to a number of luncheon clubs on the University of Omaha, its work and "There are two phases of interest to Omaha in the city university," said Baxter, "It furnishes to the residents of moderate means an opportunity for education without leaving home, and it brings in a steadily increasing number of students. Families also come to make their residence here. Nonsectarian.

It's oft been said: "The Eyes are the Windows of the Soul". You bow to this sentiment and add "Yes, 'tis True". Does Your Wife, do Your Children see through the windows of their soul a Home of Their Own? Nothing could be more wonderful for them than to see and realize a Home of Their Own.---Will you, this week make it possible for them to see through the windows of their soul, this Home of Their Own?
