

Lodge Urges Job for Roosevelt From McKinley

Teddy Boomed as Assistant Secretary of Navy; "Boss" Platt of New York Enlisted.

POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK
300 Mulberry Street,
New York, July 31, 1896.

Dear Cabot:
I know just how you feel about my work here. It is irritating to the last degree to have to spend my strength in an obscure fight with a scoundrelly intriguer like Parker, who derives his power solely from the ridiculous features of the law foisted upon us by these preposterous machine leaders. I should never go into such a struggle on such conditions, which are utterly unfair to any honorable and self-respecting man; the law being framed to give power to the trickster and to prevent the exercise of the qualities which can alone permanently reform this force. But I am in, and I shall see it through; six or eight months will enable me to do all that I have to do; meanwhile, it is possible that I can borrow the neck of either Conlin or Parker, and most glad I shall be to do it. At any rate, I have done something; and on the whole I have enjoyed my work, albeit grimly.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
Parker and Conlin were associates of Roosevelt on the police commission. With Parker especially he was on intimate terms.

POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK
300 Mulberry Street,
New York, August 8, 1896.

Dear Cabot:
I don't see any chance of my being able to get on; you will understand that I am working fairly hard when I tell you that during this week of sweltering heat, I have been obliged to stay in town without going out for even a night at Oyster Bay. A fortnight hence I shall go out for a short visit to my mother and father, and I have told the republican committee that I am at their disposal as a speaker if they wish me, and that I will make one or two speeches for them. I shall visit to my mother and father, and to some extent among our laboring men, to undoubtedly serious, and it will receive a great temporary boom next week from Bryan's speech here in New York. I cannot but think, however, that after that the tide will begin to set steadily our way. At national headquarters they tell me that there is no demand whatever for literature on the tariff, but that they have to send out tons of mail matter on finance, and that they only wish they had more documents.

Give Nannie my best love. We are all well, though Edith writes me that the heat has told a good deal on Archie. While I am out west, she is going to take the children up to Lake Champlain, and I think it will do both her and them good.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK
300 Mulberry Street,
New York, Aug. 13, 1896.

Dear Cabot:
If I can get out I shall, for I have begun to feel a little knacker; for I have had splendid health up to this time. Bryan fell perfectly flat here in New York; his big notification meeting has simply hurt him.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 19, 1896.

Dear Cabot:
I am off on Friday for three weeks, and I am very glad to go, for I think the endless strain and worry had told on me a little.

The meeting to hear Bourke Cockran was a phenomenon. It is extraordinary that a man private citizen should be able to gather such an enormous crowd; a crowd quite as large inside the Madison Square garden, and almost as large outside, as that which came to hear Bryan, the candidate for the presidency. Cockran made a first-class speech; I cannot but believe that the tide is beginning to flow against the free silverites; but of course it all depends upon the big states of the middle west.

This time I supervised the police arrangements myself, Conlin having run off to the country. Everything went off without a hitch; there was very little legitimate ground for complaint even at the first meeting; it was

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR

So many thousands of women have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that there is hardly a neighborhood in any city, town or hamlet in this country wherein some woman has not found health in this good old-fashioned root and herb remedy. If you are suffering from some womanly ill, why don't you try it? For a great many years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been restoring sick women of America to health and strength.

RUPTURE

Permanently cured by our method of sewing up the ruptured opening with a silver thread covered with gold. This is done without a surgical operation, or detention in a hospital, and a truss is not worn afterward. Rupture resulting from surgical operations for appendicitis, gall stones and other abdominal troubles is also cured by this method, and we guarantee our work.

chiefly reporters' grievances, as a number of their passes were not honored, and the police kept complete control of the crowd, having them thoroughly in hand, and yet they behaved with the utmost good nature. I determined that I would be able to testify as an eye-witness to all that happened.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
The late Wm. Bourke Cochrane at Tammany hall for many years a congressman, was a famous political orator.

POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK
300 Mulberry Street,
New York, Sept. 14, 1896.

Dear Cabot:
We have made a pretty good nomination for governor. Black* is a Platt man, but a man of ability and integrity.

I look into the situation very carefully in the west. I spent two days at the republican headquarters at Chicago. We have a very severe fight there, but we are going to win; Illinois is now looking all right; Indiana will be venal as usual; Ohio will carry of course, and the Germans make Wisconsin as safe as New York; Michigan, but we shall win. In Iowa the defection has been very good and the result is still in doubt, but the drift is our way. The same is true of Minnesota, and there is an even chance in the Dakotas, and as I am informed by the Pacific slope men, in Oregon and possibly Washington and California.

What confounded fools the political G. A. R. men are. Just at present they are trying to have me imprisoned, under the peculiar provision of the New York law rendering public officials liable if they do not give veterans their rights. During the last 15 years Tammany, while in complete control of the board, or dividing it with the machine republicans, made 26 promotions to the rank of captain, six of the men promoted being veterans. During the last 16 months we have made 20 promotions, 11 of the men promoted being veterans; in other words, we have promoted relatively more than twice as many; yet the very men who never made a kick about Tammany are now threatening deadly measures aimed at me, because I will not promote certain entirely incompetent Grand Army men to positions in which they would have the responsibility for preserving order in this entire vast city, and because I have reduced an utterly incompetent and unworthy man, Patrick Buckley. They went before the grand jury to get me indicted; the grand jury positively refused. What they will do next, I don't know.

I have had a rather amusing experience with the English reviews of my fourth volume of the Winning of the West, which offer a commentary on the supposed indifference of the British to American criticism. In the first three volumes I had no occasion to say anything bad about the British. In the fourth volume I had to tell the truth about their conduct in the northwestern frontier. Every English paper, from the Athenaeum to the Times, has confined its review to a perfect yell of rage over this part of my volume.

Give my best love to Nannie. Gussie* has been distinguishing himself on the polo field. I see.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Dear Cabot:
I am immensely interested in what you tell me about Gussie. I don't think he has fallen off in his polo; the polo men here think he has not.

Dear Cabot:
Just a line to tell you about my western trip. First, and least important, as to myself, I made a success of it, and got in good form and spoke to immense audiences, who always listened attentively, and sometimes, as in Chicago and Detroit, went mad with enthusiasm.

We shall sweep the west very much as we shall the east, although, of course, not to the same extent. Give my best love to Nannie and tell her how much I enjoyed her note. Always yours,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

PRIVATE
Washington, D. C., Dec. 2, 1896.
My Dear Theodore:
He said he regarded it as of the utmost importance to have the strongest possible man for the secretaryship of state and he volunteered to talk over a number of people with me.

He of course did not tell me what he was going to do, although he asked my opinion very freely. I am satisfied that he has no idea of taking Depew. On that point he was very explicit. The fact is, the whole cabinet is hanging on Hanna. If Hanna takes the treasury, it will be made up one way; if he does not, it will be made up another. With Hanna out of the cabinet I should think that Hay's chances are extremely good. With Hanna in the cabinet I should say that it was very likely to go west.

We then talked about tariff legislation and extra session and on that his position is as wise and firm as possible. He is entirely prepared to face the responsibilities at the earliest possible moment and deal with them. Indeed his whole attitude of mind struck me as serious, broad in view, and just what we all ought to desire. I brought from it many good hopes.

When he has been chatting about a good many indifferent things, I said

Now, old man, as to what you say to him: "I have no right to ask a personal favor of you, but I do ask for Roosevelt as the one personal favor." He said very warmly: "You must not say that. I have no feeling about what went before the nomination. You have a perfect right to ask a personal favor and I understand what you want."

When I was leaving him after lunch, I said, just as we were starting, that I was very much obliged to him and had enjoyed our talk and that he knew the one thing which was near my heart and that I should say no more about it. He said very cordially that he did. In a word he gave me every encouragement. But after all I am not one of his old supporters and the person to whom I look now, having shot my own bolt, is Storer.* I have just written him, told him that I had been at Canton, and therefore should not go to Ohio later, and urging him as strongly as I know how to press your case.

I have told him that he must look after it, because he is the one who is in constant communication and who can without intruding keep the matter steadily at the front. If he looks after it, all will be well. One thing is certain. The matter is thoroughly in McKinley's mind. He is not going to forget it and, although I am not over-anxious about such things, I believe we shall succeed.

I need hardly say that all this is in the most absolute confidence. No one outside my own family knows or will know anything about my conversation on this. No one is likely to guess, for they imagine I am in the office, whereas I went about questions of policy and you. I was glad I went and I feel very much encouraged. If he holds to the attitude which he has expressed to me, all will go well. Not only do his views seem sound, but his desire to have a very strong cabinet seemed uppermost in his mind.

Always sincerely yours,
*Bellamy Storer, who was a close friend of Roosevelt and relied upon to press Roosevelt's candidacy for assistant secretary of the navy.

POLICE DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK
300 Mulberry Street,
New York, Dec. 4, 1896.

Dear Cabot: I need hardly say with what intense interest I read your letter. I am delighted at what you say about McKinley. I do hope he will take a strong stand both about Hawaii and Cuba. I do not think a war with Spain would be serious enough to do much harm to the country, or much interruption to the revival of prosperity; but I certainly wish the matter could be settled this winter. Nothing could be better than the attitude you describe him as having on the tariff, and on civil service reform.

Diplomat, Born in Fremont, Is Dead

Maj. Otis T. Wainwright Succumbs at Hospital in Washington, D. C.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.
Fremont, Neb., March 16.—Maj. Otis T. Wainwright, American diplomat and former resident of Fremont, died Sunday in Walter Reed Military hospital at Washington, D. C., according to word received today by his sister, Mrs. C. H. Mohler of Fremont.

Major Wainwright was born in Indiana, but came to Fremont when a boy, and received his education in the Fremont public schools and the Fremont Normal school. After his graduation he was superintendent of schools in several Nebraska cities. He entered government service in 1896, and for two years was stationed in the Philippine Islands. In 1898 he entered the department of state, and was later appointed secretary of the American Legion at London when the

PIMPLES SPREAD ALL OVER FACE

Itched and Burned Badly. Cuticura Healed.

"I was troubled with blackheads and pimples which soon spread all over my face. The pimples were hard and very large, and itched and burned so badly that I could not sleep. My face looked awful."

"I used several remedies but they did not help me. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. It helped me so I purchased more, and after using about four cakes of Cuticura Soap and one and a half boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed."
