ABE MARTIN

On Yesterday an' T'day

Mr. and Mrs. Mat Pine quietly celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary yesterday by going to a restaurant for dinner, an' takin' in a lively western film later. Th' Pines have lived here since birth. Decent hours, plain food, an' no help about th' house, have kept 'em both in good health an' happy, as long before they got on th' streets. O' course th' radio an' submarines wuz never dreamt of, when we wuz

ON TH' ROAD T' NIAGARY.

Mr. Pine's profession takes him out o' town most o' th' time. Since th' day they both put off 'gether on th' matrimonial sea th' scientific world has changed things considerable, an' they've seen many transfer-mations. "I kin remember when it took four days t' send a postal card t' mother, an' t' day our 'phone rings all th' time. We used t' talk o' fly-by-night troupes playin' 'East Lynne' long before th' airplane wuz dreamed of. Mat used t' wear big, wide suspenders that smelled like a rubber stair tread in July, an' Talus pressed th' creases out o' his ready-made trousers. On our honeymoon we rode out t' Niagary Falls in a hack, an' my fare clean t' Buffalo wuz only $7, good returnin' Monday. We courted thro' another th' war an' skipped thro' another. Th' first face paintin' I ever seen wuz on Canal Street in Buffalo, an' I recall that I was mighty glad I wuz with my husband. My Mat used t' see short skirts an' yeller stockings at th' ole Empire theater up t' Indianapolis first married. We had nice dollar excursions on th' trains, an' country batter, an' eggs almost always. I faced considerable, an' washed my own hair, an' never worried about my weight. As I look back, I must have been a sight with my long skirts an' five petticoats an' shiny nose. My gran'maw smoked a pipe in th' back yard, but I didn' take up smokin' till two years ago. I wasted a lot o' time learnin' t' play th' planner, an' jest about th' time I mastered th' planner, th' player planner showed up. I've got a vivid recollection o' th' dandy ole twenty-five cent Sunday dinners at th' hotel we had on my birthday. Th' first auto we ever seen wuz brought here by Tell Binkley, then a promisin' young tornado insurance agent. He'd be a rich man t'day if he'd waited ten or twelve years before he got one. My Mat worried like a dot when we wuz first married, an' he's had about twenty-eight kinds o' jobs since. Ever' new job he got he worked less an' got more. T'day he's some kind of an expert an' don't do nothin' now but travels about an' speaks before Rotary clubs an' other men's organizations. He calls it spreadin' sunshine, an' he gits big money. I myself don't wash an' iron any more. Oh, I may rub out a few socks or handkerchiefs, but I don't rub an' boll an' scrub an' dust like I used to. A woman can't do them things an' look presentable all th' time. We bought a baked p'tater an' some turkey wings in a cafe th' other night, an' I turned t' Mat when I seen th' bill an' said, 'Mat, dear, I wonder if you realize how th' ole world has changed since we et in Buffalo twenty-five years ago?'

QUINTON RETRIAL OPENS NEXT WEEK

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.

Plattsmouth, Neb., March 21.—The present term of district court probably will see ceased from the records the last of the wholesale grand jury indictments returned last in 1921 against county officials and prominent citizens.

District Judge Fitzgerald of Omaha will preside in the cases against Carl Quinton, former sheriff, charged with perjury, and Carl G. Fricke, charged with falsification of books. Both cases were sent back for retrial by the supreme court.

"Y" CHURCH WEEK IS SUCCESSFUL

The boys' division of the Omaha Y. M. C. A. has been conducting its semi-annual "Join the Church" campaign during the last week with special meetings of all its various groups of boys. As a result of the activities of the week, 47 boys have expressed a desire to unite with their own particular church at the earliest opportunity, in most cases before Easter Sunday.

Dr. Frank G. Smith, member of the boys' work committee of the Y. M. C. A., has been in charge of the meetings and has spoken to over 500 boys regarding their obligation toward church membership.

Letters will be sent out this week to the pastors of the boys who expressed a desire to unite with their churches, giving them the names of the boys who expressed a preference for their particular church.

Denison Woman Dies

Denison, Ia., March 21.—Mrs. August Balle, wife of a prominent business man of Denison, died at her home Friday. She fell and broke her hip four weeks ago on icy walks and the injury and shock, together with advancing age, made her recovery at all times in doubt. Mrs. Balle is the mother of Mrs. George H. Fletcher, Aberdeen, S. D.

Beddeo Host to Employees.

Elmer Beddeo, of the Beddeo Clothing company, entertained 150 employees and friends at an elaborate banquet and dance at the Hotel Rome ballroom. This is an annual event with the Beddeo Clothing company. Addresses were made by R. A. Harmon, Mr. Beddeo and T. G. Devaney while Hugh Wallace led the singing. Hugo Heim orchestra furnished the music. Representatives from both the Beddeo stores at Salt Lake city and Ogden came for the party. A unique miniature newspaper covering interesting notes on employees was distributed at the dinner.

YOUTH, 13, SUES SWIFT COMPANY

Injured while sliding on meat hooks at the Swift & Co. market, Thirteenth and Leavenworth streets, Ben Barone, 13, brought suit against the packing company in district court Saturday for $25,000 damages.

Ben and other children were accustomed to seize the hooks and slide some 30 feet across some trackage, according to his petition. He did this on January 29, 1925, but the slide became so rapid he was unable to let go in time and struck a door with painful results, he said. His suit alleges the company was negligent in not preventing children from using the sliding hooks.

You just know he's well

You just know he's NOT well

You, too, can have this snappy, happy, healthy look

There is no reason for you to look or feel this way

CONSTIPATION means WEAKNESS

Constipation is practically universal among civilized human beings. It is a national curse causing inefficiency and physical unpreparedness. It causes disease, premature old age, lessens endurance and resistance, and many times fatal illness is directly traceable to its obnoxious results. The clear eye, healthy look, vim, vigor and vitality can be had only when the bowels are free and are moving regularly.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN

The Family Laxative

—promptly relieves constipation. It is not a bitter medicine nor a gripping, nauseating, uncomfortable physic. It is a pleasing liquid combination of Egyptian senna, pepsin and aromatics that Dr. Caldwell, with his long and extensive practice, found effective and an aid to Nature in performing her proper functions when the bowels were mis-treated through improper food, lack of exercise, and indifference to physical sanitation.

For Ten Years the World's Greatest Buy

Hudson's position as the world's greatest value is not merely a new attainment. For ten years the Super-Six has stood alone in mechanical supremacy. Basic patents have kept others from copying its motor. The smoothness and long life it gives are exclusive. No motor has yet equaled the Super-Six in smoothness and long, economical car life.

A Leadership Never Disputed

Hudson, because of the simplicity of the Super-Six, has always enjoyed manufacturing advantages that permitted a lower selling price than is possible with more complicated types. That, in part, accounts for its leadership for ten years as the World's Greatest Value.

You hear everyone speak of Hudson value. To many that means lower first cost than is to be found elsewhere. Hudson was first by months to give closed car comforts at exactly open car cost. To hundreds of thousands of owners, Hudson value means the most economical service in operation and maintenance. No car ever built has equaled Hudson's record in that respect. For ten years the Super-Six has proved its lasting endurance. And while those cars of a decade ago still creditably account for themselves, today's Hudson, improved in many ways, is smoother, more lasting and more economical.

No wonder, then, that when Hudson value is spoken, all waffled qualities are included. Hudson is the World's Greatest Value, because it has always provided better looks and more comfort at less money.

No rival disputes that and every motorist knows it.
