

Rescuers Hope to Save Miners

22 of 33 Entombed Workmen Still Missing; 11 Found Dead From Explosion.

Barracksville, W. Va., March 21.—Twenty-four rescue workers searching for the remaining miners entombed in the Bethlehem Mines corporation mine here were overcome by poisonous gases in the mine, according to a statement issued at noon.

Those overcome in the mine were revived when hauled to the surface. No additional bodies have been found since the nine reported this morning.

Fairmont, W. Va., March 21.—Rescue work at the wrecked shaft of mine No. 41 of the Bethlehem Mines corporation at Barracksville was speeded up this morning in the hope that 22 of the 33 mine workmen imprisoned by an explosion last Tuesday might still be alive. Eleven bodies have been found.

William Berry, a rescue foreman for the mines' organization, upon emerging from the shaft at 3 a. m., said he had penetrated one of its arms for 400 feet and found that the force of the blast had not reached that far.

It is believed that 22 of the imprisoned miners are in that arm, and since all are seasoned mine workers, Berry believed, he said, that they might have escaped the blast and barricaded themselves against gas and other dangers which followed.

However, William Rieffmann, a veteran inspector for the West Virginia department of mines, entered the shaft after Berry's announcement and penetrated it, he said, for 2,000 feet. It expressed doubt upon emerging that any of the imprisoned men still live.

Mine officials said today that a recheck revealed that only 33 mine workers were caught in the blast and not 34 as was at first believed.

OMAHAN RECALLS OLD TOUCH, SUES

Charles Moore, formerly identified with the catering firm of Wick & Moore, recognized Ben Bard of the "Artists and Models" company at the Brandeis theater as the same person he formerly knew as Ben Greenburg.

When Moore espied his former acquaintance he remembered that once upon a time he loaned $114.50, which money he alleges has not been repaid, according to an action filed Saturday morning in municipal court.

Constable A. J. Lundem received a writ of attachment issued against Ben Greenburg, alias Ben Bard. The writ authorizes the constable to seize traveling bags, personal and professional clothes and any other property he may locate belonging to Greenburg either in room 626 at Hotel Fontenelle or in dressing room at Brandeis theater.

400 PINE TREES IN BALLROOM

New York, March 21.—Four hundred pine trees from the forests of Maine were set up in the Ritz-Carlton hotel to provide a sylvan background for a "gypsy ball" ending early today, given by Mrs. William Randolph Hearst in honor of Alexander P. Moore, American ambassador to Spain.

The ball was followed by a "bon voyage" breakfast to the ambassador who sails today for Spain to resume his post.

Soft blue lights created the illusion of night beneath the open sky and a campfire and tent completed the gypsy motif. Two palmists told fortunes, and an organ grinder and monkey strolled among the guests, all of whom were dressed in fancy costumes.

EX-BANK GUARD HALED IN COURT

Tom Baughman, 2901 Haskell street, policeman whose resignation was accepted after the robbery of the Security State bank, South Omaha, a few weeks ago, was given a 30-day suspended jail sentence in central police court, Saturday. He was arrested on complaint of his wife who said he has been abusing her.

"Why don't you quit drinking and become up?" asked Judge Neble.

"I will," said Baughman.

"That's a promise," said the judge, as he shook hands with the ex-officer.

NEW AUTO FUEL TEST IS SUCCESS

Paris, March 21.—Remarkable claims are made for a new automobile fuel named "Irene," after its discoverer, 15-year-old Irene Laurent, daughter of a well known French chemist. The product, which it is understood to have for its basis a solution of sugar, is said to cost less and go further than any other of the so-called substitutes for gasoline yet tried.

Prominent automotive engineers who tested the new fuel in a long run on an ordinary machine are quoted as expressing themselves as astounded by the results.

JERSEY BONUS TIME EXTENDED

A statement issued Saturday from the office of secretary of war to the local army officials advised that the filing date for the soldiers' bonus commission for the state of New Jersey has been extended to July, 1925. The following is an excerpt from the official notification:

"The time for filing of applications for the New Jersey soldiers' bonus has been extended by an act of the legislature to include July 1, 1925."

Fewer Pneumonia Deaths.

Total deaths for week ended Saturday morning, as reported to health department, 69; previous week, 48.

Deaths due to pneumonia for the week, 10; for the previous week, 13. There was one death from tubercular meningitis and one from sleeping sickness during the last week.

Contagious and communicable diseases reported during the week: Smallpox, 20; chicken pox, 6; scarlet fever, 2.

Conversation Annoys Judge; Postpones Case a Week

Mrs. Louis Paris of 2508 Lake street was accompanied by friends when she appeared in District Judge Day's court Friday afternoon to be heard in a divorce matter.

Another case was in progress and Mrs. Paris and her friends seated themselves to await their turn. They began talking away the time by conversing right merrily, but the conversation disturbed the judge, and he dispatched Bailiff Brown to warn them against it.

Bailiff Brown is small of stature and failed to impress them, for they kept on in their best sewing circle style. Then Judge Day rapped on his desk.

"I'll give you people just a week to learn how to behave in court," he announced with emphasis. "If you want me to hear your case come back next week. I'll not hear it today."

LOVE OF FIRESIDE COSTS MAN WIFE

Tragic details are revealed in two of the 15 divorce cases in which Judge Day issued decrees Friday.

Mrs. Blanche Davis, 2302 North Eighteenth street was given a divorce from Edwin Davis. They had been married since 1898, and are the parents of three grown sons. Mrs. Davis testified her husband had deserted her on February 13, 1921.

"I told him when he was leaving that he owed an explanation to our sons," said Mrs. Davis. "But he offered no explanation for going away."

In seeking a divorce decree Gretchen Smith, 23 of 2123 Sherman avenue, told the judge of how terribly her husband's refusal to go out with her had humiliated her.

"I had to keep explaining to friends why I couldn't go out," she said. "It finally became the talk of the trades people as well as of friends. During the three and a half years of our married life he never took me out on any social affair."

ALUMNI TO HEAR UNIVERSITY HEAD

University of Chicago alumni in Omaha and surrounding country will listen to an address by President E. D. Burton, which will be read over radio stations at Chicago, Kansas City and Hastings, Neb., next Tuesday evening. It will be the official launching day of the campaign to raise $17,500,000 this year for new buildings, research and instruction for the Chicago institution.

President Burton will deliver his address himself, through station WMAQ, Chicago, and it will be read by alumni at Hastings, Kansas City, Cleveland, Los Angeles, New York, Pittsburgh, Salt Lake City and Spokane.

The address will be made by President Burton from the Chicago station at 8:30. It will be read over the Hastings station at 8:45 and over the Kansas City station at 8:30.

WRIGLEY APPEAL BOND BY PLANE

Chicago, March 21.—An airplane and legal race was ended today with the lawyers a winner by at least 16 hours in filing an appeal bond in the great chewing gum court battle.

Appeal bonds signed by William Wrigley, jr., chairman of the board of the William Wrigley, jr. company, which he had dispatched from Catalina island by airplane which intercepted the San Francisco-Chicago air mail at Salt Lake City yesterday reached his attorneys at 8:30 today. But the lawyers, more than 16 hours earlier, it was disclosed, had filed a similar bond which was approved by Federal Judge Wilkerson late yesterday.
