Girl's Pictures Land 6 in Court

Tech High Boys Held for Trial; Judge Commends School Heads.

Five boys and one girl, pupils of Technical High school, were involved in serious charges preferred by juvenile court officers in connection with the circulation in the school of photographs of the girl.

The photographs of this girl, in scanty attire, and that of an older woman, were intercepted early in the week by school authorities and immediately turned over to juvenile authorities.

Three of the boys involved were charged only with circulating the pictures, but two of them were charged with aiding and abetting the delinquency of the girl, who is

These boys, Carl Krepela 19, 4744 North Thirteenth street and Irvin Batdorf, 19, 214 1-2 North Twenty third street, were arraigned before District Judge L. B. Day Saturday

Judge Day held the hearing in his private office, which was crowded, lowever, with parents and relatives of the two boys and of the two girls

It developed that the pictures had been taken last Sunday afternoon near the Missouri river, where the two boys and the two girls had driven. Many prints of the pictures had been

The street railway companys wishes to dispose of the application for increased revenue pending before the state railway commission before con-

Corporation Counsel W. C. Lam bert stated that the street railway franchise bill passed by the legislature gives to the street railway company the right to operate motor busses without submitting this feature to a vote of the people, which Mr. Lamable although probably not intended by the Omaha state senators who amended the so-called Dahlman-Lam-

John L. Webster, general counsel of the franchise bill until the ques-tion of motor busses is brought to 800 GALLONS OF him by the company.

The chief feature of the bill in question is to give the voters of Omaha an opportunity to vote on the question of a street railway franhise and it replaces the old law of Omaha to granting a street railway franchise for only five miles of track in any one year. The Omaha and Council Bluffs Street Railway company probably will ask the city his year to grant a new franchise, ooking toward the refinancing of the
