Hindenburg May Oppose Marx for German President

Field Marshall, 77, Intimates He Will Become Candidate if Certain Condtiions Are Met by Parties.

By KARL H. VON WIEGAND,

Berlin, April 5 .- Field Marshall Von lindenburg, at the age of 77, has con iitionally signified his acceptance of the invitation to become the candidate for the presidency. Germany's national hero of th world war, who did not desert his country nor abandon the army when defeat, collapse and revolution came but led his crushed military forces back home and held them together until they were demobilized and then assisted the revolutionary socialis President Ebert in restoring order has been asked to run as the candi date of the so-called "right," or na tionalist bloc against Dr. William Marx, the candidate of the "Weima left coalition.

The aged field marshal today let i be known that he would run if the request is formally made. His two must be absolute unity upon him by all parties not included in the left coalition (except of course the com munists) and that Dr. Jarres must not only agree, but insist.

The Bavarian people's party, which is out and out Catholic, officially an ounced they cannot accept Marx as the candidate because of his liaison with the socialists, is just as much opposed to Jarres, but has signified willingness to accept Hindenburg The Bavarian peasants' league and the Hanoveraner party are also for Hindenburg.

The nationalists and Stresemann's cople's party will meet Tuesday for a final decision on their candidate. To the question as to whether the Hindenburg candidacy might not re vive the bugaboo of militarism, it i be following the example of France which, after defeat in 1870, elected Marshal MacMahon, of the defeated armies, as the second president of the French republic,

Washington, April 5 .- The vast | regions of the Arctic will be explored this summer with naval aircraft by navy pilots, but not as a government project. The attempt at observing the uncharted area of more than 1,000,000 square miles lying between Alaska and the north pole where a continent may exist, will be made in connection with an expedition headed by Donald B. MacMillan, the explorer, who will return for ninth time to his favorite haunts of ice and snow on a ship leaving Wiscasset, Maine, about June 15.

The plan has been approved by Secretary Wilbur and endorsed by President Coolidge. The expedition will also have the backing of the National Geographic society. The navy officers who will ac company MacMillan will be granted extended leave and the entire party vill have a private status.

Two Planes Used. A polar expedition planned for the dirigible Shenandoah last year but abandoned provided the Shenandoah was to leave from Alaska and proceed over the same unknown' region and possibly to the pole. However, President Coolidge took the position that in view of the expense involved he would not authorize it without approval of congress and that body failed to take any action. For the MacMillan expedition two planes of the amphibian type will be selected from volunteers in the navy aviation service. At least three officers and two or three mechanics will be accepted. Lieutenant Commander R. E. Byrd, now with the navy bureau of aeronau tics here, will be in charge.
