

We would respectfully request our correspondents to hand in their communications on, or before, Tuesday morning. Neglect to do so may cause their postponement till the following week.

Claim Association Meeting.

At a meeting of the Bellevue and Platte Valley Claim Association, it was Resolved, That the members be requested to make a plat of their several claims, showing as near as possible, their connection with the Government Surveys, and also the streams and roads that pass through or bound them, so that a map may be made for the use of the Association, and that such plats be handed to the Secretary as soon as possible.

JOSEPH DYSON, President. W. H. COOK, Secretary.

Ho! for Glenwood.

The people of Bellevue will be pleased to learn that our enterprising citizen of Glenwood, Robert Huffnan, has established a line of stages, which will run regularly, as will be seen by his advertisement, between our city, via St. Marys to Glenwood. This line will make regular connection at Bellevue with the Omaha city and Nebraska city stage lines; at St. Marys, with the Council Bluffs and St. Joseph stages; and at Glenwood, with the Burlington line of stages from the East.

We hail this enterprise as not among the least for the great benefit it will confer upon the traveling public in general, and the facilities it will afford to citizens of the three places, Bellevue, St. Marys and Glenwood. We are not saying too much, when we remark that the interest of these three places are identical. St. Marys and Bellevue, lying due west from Glenwood, it is reasonable to believe that, inasmuch as our Glenwood neighbors have much confidence in the railroad passing through that place to its terminus on the Missouri, at or near the mouth of the Platte river, it will necessarily reach St. Marys, and finally approach the Missouri river near Bellevue. Glenwood is the county seat of a well-watered, well-timbered, and rich, fertile country. It is a business place of no small importance in the West, and has some advantages unknown to other cities not a hundred miles from this place.

It is a good market for produce, and does, by the enterprise of its merchants, furnish the surrounding country with a large supply of goods; and its unsurpassed beautiful location for healthy residences, make it very desirable, and is sought for by many who seek a home in the West, while St. Marys, in a line due west on the Missouri river, is a fast-growing and flourishing town of no small importance now, and with a future worthy of its enterprising, intelligent and fast-going residents. It has a good landing, and does a large business, and is surrounded by a country that will make it the center of much inland business. We say success to the enterprise and its enterprising projector, and may he reap that rich reward that his energy deserves.

On our late visit to St. Marys we were agreeably surprised, on entering the Iowa House, to find it in such excellent trim—the house new—furniture new—proprietors new, and in fact everything and everybody new. Messrs. RECK & SPERLING deserves great credit in establishing their new hotel, and they show by their acts, that indomitable spirit which characterizes the good people of that city, and we would advise all our friends visiting St. Marys, to call at the Iowa House and see for themselves, as these gentlemen are always ready to minister to the creature comforts of their visitors in such a way as to give entire satisfaction. Success attend you friends Reck & Sperling.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the advertisement of our particular friend, Mr. WILLIAM ALLEN, in another column, and can testify to the fact that he kills none but the best cattle, and that his customers will find him (though short), quite a tall business man, and one who supplies food for the intellect as well as for the inner man. Success attend friend BILLY.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Kuhl & Kayser, of St. Marys, and would recommend them on visiting that place to give them a call, as they have a superior stock of goods—sell cheap for cash—and are first-rate fellows generally.

Steamboat Arrival.

Just as we were going to press we have to announce the arrival of the Steamer CASTLE GARDEN, which owing to the low stage of water, proceeds but slowly up the river to Council Bluffs.

Three men were killed near Sioux city a few days since, while attempting the arrest of several deserters from Fort Pierre. We understand that the murderers are in the hands of the authorities at Council Bluffs.

READ EDITORIAL OPINIONS.

"From the New York Evening Mirror."

Throughout the country there are thousands of persons who purchase or subscribe for the leading magazines, at book stores, all of whom, by joining this Association, will not only receive their literature for the same money as before, but will be, in addition, equal and free participants in a rare art-work distribution. They also receive that beautiful quarterly, the "Art Journal," free.

Such an enterprise cannot fail to command the approval and patronage of the public. It has a basis as firm and pure as its objects are beneficial and noble. There is no reason why it should not become national, in its claims upon the people. Originated and conducted by intelligent, reliable parties, the new Association is entitled to every confidence."

"From the Louisville Courier."

There is no danger of losing by this Institution; it is no chance affair; you get the full worth of your money, and have the satisfaction of aiding the Fine Arts."

"From the Water Cure Journal."

The Cosmopolitan Art Association seems to prosper beyond all expectations, as it is beneficial. The plan on which it is founded is an excellent one.

"From the Buffalo Morning Express."

Let each individual remember three things: that by his subscription he secures a fund of pleasant and profitable reading, or a splendid Engraving, and entitles himself to a fair chance in the distribution, which disseminates and encourages good reading and a taste for the beautiful and elevating. How can $3 be more profitably expended?

"From the New York Evening Mirror."

We are not surprised to hear that hundreds of subscribers are pouring in daily. Our only surprise is, that the hundreds do not swell to thousands, since every subscriber gets his money back certain, in the best literature, or an elegant Engraving, and his art chances gratis.

"From the Louisville Courier."

The Cosmopolitan Art Association have received and are constantly receiving large numbers of subscribers from all quarters. We do not wonder at it. Almost every individual is struck by the advantages offered by this Institution. Each member receives a splendid Engraving, or becomes a subscriber to some one of our excellent Magazines, and receives it regularly for one year, paying no more than the subscription price. He also receives that beautiful publication, the "Art Journal," free of charge, and, at the same time, stands a chance of drawing some one of the numerous Works of Art to be distributed. Therefore, it simply amounts to this: if you are taking some Magazines, renew your subscriptions with the Cosmopolitan Art Association. If you do not take a Magazine, then send your money in, by all means, and supply yourself with reading matter, at the same time helping to disseminate art over our land.

CHEAPEST MAGAZINE IN THE WORLD.

BALLOU'S DOLLAR MONTHLY. Encouraged by the unprecedented success which this popular monthly has met with, and the rapidity with which it has increased its circulation, the proprietor has resolved to make it still more worthy of the patronage of the public. That this admirable work is a "Miracle of Cheapness," is admitted by every one, containing, as it does, "one hundred pages" of reading matter in each number, and forming two volumes a year of six hundred pages each, or "twelve hundred" pages of reading matter per annum, for ONE DOLLAR!

BalloU's Dollar Monthly is printed with new type, upon fine white paper, and its matter is carefully compiled and arranged by the hands of the editor and proprietor, who has been known to the public as connected with the Boston press for nearly fifteen years. Its pages contain

NEWS, TALES, POEMS, STORIES OF THE SEA, SKETCHES, MISCELLANEOUS ADVENTURES, BIOGRAPHIES, WIT AND HUMOR, from the best and most popular writers in the country. It is also spiced with a record of the noblest events of the times, of peace and war, of discoveries and improvements occurring in either hemisphere, forming an agreeable companion for a leisure moment or hour, anywhere, at home or abroad, each number being complete in itself.

This work is intended for THE MILLION, north or south, east or west, and is filled to the brim each month with chaste, popular and graphic miscellany, just such as any father, brother or friend would place in the hands of a family circle. It is in all its departments fresh and original, and what it purports to be, the cheapest magazine in the world.

AMERICAN AND ORIGINAL.

THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE.

EDITED BY LOUIS GAYLORD CLARK. THE number for January, 1856, begins the Forty-second Volume of the Knickerbocker Magazine.

Since the price of subscription has been reduced from five to three dollars a year, the circulation of the KNICKERBOCKER has been increased nearly four to one. In many places ten are taken where there was but one before, and through the year it has been steadily increasing. It is now offered as cheap as any of the Magazines, all things considered. Instead of making new and prodigious promises, we submit a few extracts from notices of late numbers, which we might extend to a number of pages.

"Those familiar with the Editor's Monthly 'Gossip with his Readers,' have doubtless, with ourselves, admired the parental source of its wit and joyousness. In this number 'The Gossip' holds on its way like some fair rivulet glancing and dancing in the sunshine of Mr. May's humor. We need not wonder how Mr. Clark could hold out, expecting he must certainly 'let down' in the coming number; but this number gives no sign of exhaustion."—[National Intelligencer, Washington.]

"Pleasant, genial, delightful 'Old Knick'! Thy name is a suggestion of things delectable; the sight of thy modest, fresh cover, a balm to spiritual sore eyes; a glance within thee, best antidote for the blues. Thou hast given us kindly humor, in significant delineation, and to side-splitting fun, a 'local habitation,' without which they might go wandering over the domain of letters, calling now and then where a friendly door opened to them but refusing to be comforted for the loss of their old dear home."—[Courier, Burlington, Vt.]

"The great care evinced in the selection of articles that adorn its pages, is a sufficient guaranty that no contribution meets the eye of the reader but those which are shown to be worthy his perusal. When storms and wild tempests are sweeping o'er our hill-side village in these chill winter hours, and is drear and desolate without, we ask for no more agreeable companion than the 'KNICKERBOCKER'; for while its contents impart valuable information, its sallies of genius give it a sovereign specific for all fits of the blues or attacks of the horrors and time wastes merrily on."—[Democrat, Doylestown, Penn.]

"The KNICKERBOCKER has been and will be a fact of its own; a genuine living thing, all the more desirable now that the new crop of magazines, filled with articles pirated from English authors, makes fresh home creations more conspicuous and welcome."—[New York Christian Inquirer.]

Rev. F. W. Shelton, Author of Letters from 'Up the River,' etc., will be a regular contributor. The best talent in the country will be enlisted, and no expense or effort spared, to make the KNICKERBOCKER more than ever deserving of the first position among our original American Magazines.

BALTIMORE WEEKLY AMERICAN.

A FAMILY NEWSPAPER—A Household Journal—A Gazette of the News of the Country, and the World—Abounding in Literary and Miscellaneous Reading—Devoted to Agriculture and Mechanics—and containing the most reliable Weekly Review of the Baltimore Markets, &c.

REDUCTION OF PRICE. The rapid and unprecedented increase of the circulation of the Baltimore Weekly American, not only in Maryland, but in the Southern and Western States, is a most gratifying evidence that our efforts to furnish a first class family and business newspaper are fully appreciated by the large number of readers to whose interests it is especially devoted. Its completeness in every department of Domestic and Foreign News, and Literary and Miscellaneous Reading, and its reliability as a compendium of the Commercial and Business Affairs of Baltimore is so universally admitted, that it has become a necessity with all persons doing business with our city, whilst to the general reader it is acknowledged to be without a superior as a family journal.

The present large circulation, with a continuation of the rapid accession to its subscription list since the 1st of January, averaging NEARLY ONE HUNDRED PER DAY, warrants us in the expectation that before the close of the year it will reach an unexampled circulation.

In order to render the Weekly American still more acceptable to its numerous readers, we propose during the present year to add largely to its attractive qualities, and in doing so shall spare neither labor nor expense to keep it in advance of all its cotemporaries, as a FIRST CLASS FAMILY NEWSPAPER, its size enabling us to give nearly double the amount of reading matter, and our Weekly paper published South of Philadelphia, and consequently rendering it the published in any of the Southern or Western States. LITERARY AND MISCELLANEOUS.

We propose to greatly improve this department of the Baltimore American, which will hereafter embrace the production of the ablest and most popular world-renowned with Literary selections that cannot fail to give universal satisfaction. It will also contain original and select articles on Science and the Arts, with Miscellaneous Reading that will be both instructive and entertaining.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE

is another great feature of the Weekly American, in which we are sure its readers for the past year will bear witness to its being without a superior among the Weekly papers of the country. Receiving regularly full files of European journals, our compendium of Foreign Intelligence is made up from the fountain head, and is furnished in interesting detail, with a care in selection that has given universal satisfaction.

THE DOMESTIC NEWS,

embracing the affairs of the whole country, as well as of our own State and the Local Matters of the City, is also a feature of the Weekly American that cannot fail to give to its subscribers, as it has to its old friends, the most universal satisfaction. The many hundred copies weekly mailed by our city readers to their friends in the country, and absent relatives, is an evidence of its great superiority in this respect.

THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT will hereafter receive special attention, and a column will always be found on our fourth page containing a variety of useful and valuable information to the Farmer. It will embrace original and selected essays from the most able and experienced writers.

THE COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT has obtained a character for completeness and accuracy not surpassed by any other paper in the Union. As a basis of this assertion, it may be stated that at many flour-mills, stores, and distilleries, so much reliance is placed on its market reports, that sales of grain and other produce are made in advance, prices being, by mutual agreement, based upon the quotations given in its commercial review of the Baltimore markets. It also contains a regular report of the markets of Philadelphia and New York, with the latest reports of the Cattle markets of Baltimore and all the Northern cities.

SUBSCRIPTION—PRICE REDUCED.

The Weekly American will hereafter be published at $1 AND A HALF PER YEAR For single copies, it being nearly double the size, and containing double the amount of reading matter of any other weekly newspaper published South of Philadelphia.

Subscribers transmitting two dollars will receive the paper sixteen months, or eight months for one dollar.

TERMS TO CLUBS.
