

THE FARMER.

Varieties of Wheat.

A correspondent of the Michigan Farmer, who inquires respecting the different varieties of wheat...

The Chinese wheat is a white, beardless variety, and is very little known; we believe it is a winter wheat...

The Australian wheat is a winter variety which has been introduced within the past year. It is a large-stemmed, heavy-strawed wheat...

There are two varieties of Tuscan wheat—the Tuscan Bald and the Tuscan Bearded. Both are winter varieties...

White Flint and Soule's Wheat are two distinct varieties. Both are winter wheats, and both are winter varieties.

The first is supposed to have been originally introduced into New Jersey in 1814, from Spain. There is also a sort of traditional claim that it was brought out from the Black Sea.

The Soule's Wheat was first introduced into notice by Jonathan Soule of Perrinton, Monroe county, New York, in 1836 or 1837.

The Nation is issued in Quarto Form, (eight pages), and each number will contain at least two Original Engravings...

DOMESTIC RECEIPTS.

The best cure for these troublesome things that we have ever tried, says the Scientific American, is to soak the feet in hot water for a quarter of an hour...

Excellent Relish for a Convalescent.

Cut some cod fish to bits the size of a pea, and boil it a minute in water to freshen it. Pour off all the water, and add some cream and a little pepper.

A PIECE OF CANDLE may be made to burn all night in a sick room, or elsewhere, where a dull light is wished, by putting finely-powdered salt on the candle until it reaches the black part of the wick.

RAISED WAFFLES.—Make a thick batter of milk and wheat flour, add four eggs, beat light; a gill of yeast, a spoonful of butter, let it rise some hours.

"It will attain to a high position in the literary world."—Philadelphia Daily News.

"It is one of the best weeklies now published, and we take pleasure in bringing it to the notice of the reading public."—Harrisburg, Pa. Herald.

"We dislike puffing city emanations, but in this case we are bound to give way to merit. Unlike many city cotemporaries, the Nation is composed of sound, substantial and useful matter, and is not filled with an overabundance of flimsy, wisley-wisly stuff from the hands of crack-brained authors."—Eric City Dispatch.

"It has the most beautiful engraved head we ever saw, and its contents are deeply interesting, truly delicious and soul-absorbing."—Williamsburg, Va. Gazette.

"There is room for just such a paper, and it has secured two as true heads and hearts to control its columns as the literary and social world holds."—Wellsborough, Pa. Agitator.

"It will soon become a leading paper at the residence."—Boonville, Mo. Observer.

"We seldom endorse northern papers, but in this instance we are forced to overcome our prejudice, and commend the Nation to our readers."—Troy, Ala. Bulletin.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NEBRASKA FARMER.

A JOURNAL OF AGRICULTURE AND RURAL AFFAIRS. EDITED AND PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY R. W. FURNAS, BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA COUNTY, NEBRASKA TERRITORY.

"To Improve the Soil and Mind." THE object of the "Farmer" is proclaimed in its motto; faithful to this end, it will take rank with the Agricultural periodicals of the day, and pursue such a course as will render it a welcome visitor to every Farmer in Nebraska.

The natural adaptation of our soil and climate to Agricultural pursuits, known to all who have examined it, is thought to be a sufficient apology for entering upon this enterprise.

Ladies' Department.—This Department will be devoted to Household affairs, and will be conducted by a lady of ability and experience, assisted by able lady correspondents.

Plan and Size.—The "Farmer" will be published on the 1st of each month, printed on new type, and good paper; each number will contain eight pages of reading matter, three columns to the page; size of page, 10 by 13 inches, illustrated with cuts of Domestic Animals, Implements, Trees, Fruits, Houses, &c.

Terms.—Single copy, $1. Seven copies, $5. Twenty copies (and one to the person getting up the club), $13. The volume will commence March 1, 1857. Every Postmaster and Farmer in Nebraska are desired to act as Agents. Additions can be made to clubs and back Nos. furnished at any time during the year. Clubs need not be confined to one Post Office, but will be sent to different offices if desired.

Persons in the States who are "looking Westward" and desire agricultural information from Nebraska, could find nothing better than the "Farmer" to "post them up." Address "Nebraska Farmer," Brownville, Nebraska County, Nebraska Territory.

Brownville, N. T., December 1st, 1856. We hope every person to whom this Prospectus is sent, will feel the importance of the establishment of an Agricultural paper in Nebraska, and make an effort to obtain as many subscribers as possible, and forward their names to the Publisher. A slight effort only, on the part of every one, will accomplish the object. If time or inclination will not permit you to act as desired, please hand this to some one who will act energetically in the matter. As fast as you procure a number of names forward to me. Let no Prospectus be later than February 1st, in reaching the Publication Office.

What we now want is names to the Prospectus—ask no Money until you receive the first No., when the money must be remitted promptly or the paper will not be continued. In giving name and residence, write the name and residence in full, and give Post-Office, County, and Territory or State.

THE GLOBE.

THE Official Paper of Congress. I intend to continue the publication of the Debates of Congress in full, including the Laws passed, during the next session, to commence on the first Monday in December next.

The coming in of a new Administration will cause the debates of the next session to be both interesting and instructive, as its policy will be foreshadowed in the speeches of its members. Those, therefore, who desire to know what will be the course of the next President, before he takes the executive chair, so as to shape their business accordingly, should subscribe to the debates of the coming session.

The DAILY GLOBE will contain the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as may be from time to time suggested by passing events of interest, and the debates as they come from the hands of the reporters, which will be laid on the desk of every member, to undergo his revision for the Congressional Globe and Appendix. Those who may desire to see the debates immediately, should take the DAILY GLOBE, as they are usually published in it two days before they are printed in book form in the CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE and APPENDIX.

The CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE and APPENDIX will be printed on a double royal sheet, in royal quarto form, each number containing sixteen pages. All the Laws passed during the session will be appended to the debates; and copious indexes to the debates and the laws will be made out, printed, and sent to subscribers soon after the close of the session.

The WEEKLY GLOBE will be printed on a double royal sheet, in the usual newspaper form, and will contain a synopsis of the proceedings of Congress and the news of the preceding week; also editorial matter, and the laws will be made out, printed, and sent to subscribers soon after the close of the session.

We think we can show how much cheaper it is to take the Lady's Book at Three Dollars than any other magazine at Two Dollars. We will take a large number of both. The Two Dollar Magazine contained 36 articles, the Lady's Book 62.

The Two Dollar Magazine contained 32 engravings, the Lady's Book 56. The Two Dollar Magazine contained 64 pages, the Lady's Book 100.

Twenty-four more engravings, twenty-six more articles, and thirty-six more pages, nearly double the quantity. The lowest club price of the Two Dollar Magazine is $1.25; lowest club price of Lady's Book $1.67, only 42 cents difference in the price, which is three and a half cents on each number, and for that sum (three and a half cents), you receive twenty-six more articles, twenty-four more engravings, and thirty-six more pages monthly—certainly a very cheap three and a half cents' worth. This view of the case has probably never before been presented, but it is a true statement, which any lady can convince herself of by comparing the two magazines.
