The Burlington and Missouri River R. R.

From reliable information which we have received, we feel perfectly assured that the Burlington and M. River R. R. will establish its western terminus directly opposite our city.

Personal.

Gen. J. B. Robertson, Indian agent, has returned from the East, and paid us a visit the other day.

De Soto Pilot.

The above is the title of a very neat sheet published at De Soto, Washington County, by John E. Parish, Editor and Proprietor, the first number of which we received last week.

High Water.

The oldest settlers in the country positively declare that they never knew the river to be as high as it is at present, as early in the spring.

Bellevue.

Cities rise up in this country as by magic. It only requires three or four years for an oak forest on our western rivers to become converted into a great commercial city.

The New French Postal Treaty.

Judge Campbell and Count Sartiges have signed the new Postal Convention. It will take effect from the first of April.

Mr. Charles Morey.—The widow of this American gentleman, who was shot by a sentinel in the debtor's prison of Clichy, in France, has been presented by the Emperor Napoleon with 500,000 francs, or $94,000.

Increase of the Navy.—One of the last acts of Congress, was the authorizing of five new steam sloops of war, and appropriating one million of dollars to pay for them.

FIFTY YEARS HENCE.—The following is an extract of a lecture recently delivered by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Clarke in Cambridge, N. C.

"Fifty years hence the newly married pair will step into an emporium for the sale of houses, look over the patterns, select one to suit their taste and means, order it, and it will be sent home in the morning, put together and occupied at night.

"In traveling, as great changes will take place. Instead of the dusty road and crowded car, there will be a splendid Locomotive Hotel, flying over a road carpeted with turf and bordered with shade trees, and heralding its approach with sweet music, instead of the demoniac shriek of the steam-whistle, and labelled, Through, from Boston to San Francisco in four days.

"Instead of the unsightly telegraph poles, there will be, fifty years hence, a net work underground, and under the bosom of the deep, and it will click off thought instead of words. Then the Electric Battery will light all the street lamps at once, enable all the clocks in the city to keep exact time, and kindle the Beacons on the dangerous rocks, where now men hazard their lives and wear out their lonely days.

"Then the author will not write by our slow process, losing his rarest fancies, but he will sit down to the newest invented Chirographical instruments, and putting his fingers on the keys write as fast as he can think."

One of the Garroting Cases

We clip the following from the New-York Picayune:

An incident which did actually happen a few nights since, gives a new and ludicrous aspect to the garroting panic. A certain doctor, a dentist, residing above Bleeker-st., became possessed like many others, with a horrid fear of garroters.

One night last week, when the sidewalks were very slippery, returning home through Twelfth street, he encountered a man in black. The doctor attempted to shy aside, so as to give the suspicious individual more than his share of the pavement, but just at the moment of passing the garroter broached to, striking the doctor with great force.

Out in a twinkling, drew the doctor his sextuple protector. The man in black was renewing his apologies with a double earnestness—"None of your nonsense!" said the doctor, "give me my watch, you scoundrel, you!"

His wife was alarmed at his appearance, and great was her consternation when informed that he had been attacked and robbed by a garroter.

There is a legend among the Iroquois Indians, which gives Washington a place in the Red Man's Heaven. According to this Indian tradition, Washington is the only white man who ever reached the happy hunting grounds.

A HEAVY CONTRACT.—William Matton, of Springfield, Mass., in connection with his brother, has contracted to construct the abutments and towers for the suspension bridge over the Ohio river at Cincinnati.

"Do you like novels?" asked Mrs. Fitzgerald of her blackwoods lover. "I can't say," he replied, "I never ate any; but I'll tell you, I'm death on possum."

CORRUPTION IN CONGRESS.—On Thursday last, the Corruption Committee made a report, through Mr. Davis, of Maryland, which implicates several members of the House in corrupt transactions.

William A. Gilbert, of New York, is charged with performing or intended to be performed, connected with their official duties. William A. Gilbert, of New York, is charged with performing or intended to be performed, connected with their official duties.

RESOLUTIONS.—The resolutions provide for his expulsion from the floor of the House as a reporter. The Committee also report a bill to punish members for corruption.

More Traces of Sir John Franklin's Party.

Capt. Sherrard Osborne has forwarded to the editor of the Times the following extract of a letter, dated Red River Settlement, Hudson Bay Territory, Dec. 6:

I received a letter from Roderick, by the last mail, and he expresses a wish that I should write to you by the first opportunity, and state more particularly about the reports we heard last summer about some traces of whiter being seen in the North.

Heavy Robbery.

One of the boldest robberies that we have ever heard of, was lately perpetrated in Chicago. A young man belonging to the Marine Bank was sent out to arrange the balances between that and other institutions, carrying with him the large packages of currency in a carpet satchel and smaller ones in a wallet.

Indian Legend.

There is a legend among the Iroquois Indians, which gives Washington a place in the Red Man's Heaven. According to this Indian tradition, Washington is the only white man who ever reached the happy hunting grounds.

Young ladies who faint on being "proposed to," can be restored to consciousness by just whispering in her ear you were only joking.
