At a meeting of the passengers of the steamer Florence, lying off Nebraska city...

WHEREAS, The safety and comfort of the traveling public depend to a great degree upon the officers upon our great thoroughfares...

Resolved, That we tender to JOSEPH THACKERSON, Master, J. E. GORMAN, Clerk, and other officers of the boat...

Resolved, That we recommend to the traveling public, the new and beautiful steamer Florence...

Resolved, That the St. Louis papers and others on the Missouri river, and the New York Tribune, be requested to publish the forgoing preamble and resolutions.

WASHINGTON, April 21th.

The charges against Gov. Izard, of Nebraska, having been withdrawn, he will be removed on the ground of inexperience.

The President was serenaded by the Marine Band last night, on the occasion of the 66th anniversary of his birth day.

We would call the attention of farmers, and those wanting good wagons, to the advertisement of Mr. R. Lovjoy...

Stage Accident.

The stage coach running between St. Joseph and Council Bluffs, turned over on Monday last near the latter place...

Our thanks are due to W. A. Biddle, clerk of the fat and commodious passenger packet "Silver Heels" for late St. Louis papers.

chines that may be entered as competitors for the awards, both as regards land for improvements, and steam power for stationary machinery.

A separate trial of Reapers and Mowers will be made at the appropriate season, special arrangements for which as to time, place, &c., will be announced at an early date.

It is intended that these exhibitions shall be on the most extensive scale, for the purpose of testing the working qualities of these important implements more thoroughly than has yet been done on any previous occasion...

All articles from foreign countries intended for exhibition may be assigned to the "Agent of United States Agricultural Society, Louisville, Ky." by whom they will be received and stored free of charge.

This brief announcement of the proposed trial is made at this early date to afford the most ample time for the preparation and transmission of machinery. A circular containing full particulars as to regulations will be issued as soon as practicable...

At a meeting of the passengers of the steamer Florence, lying off Nebraska city T. M. McCord, Esq., of Bellevue, being called to the chair, Rev. C. C. Goss, of New York, introduced the following preamble and resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The safety and comfort of the traveling public depend to a great degree upon the officers upon our great thoroughfares, and whereas, every attention that could be expected has been extended to us during our voyage up the Missouri river, therefore

Resolved, That we tender to JOSEPH THACKERSON, Master, J. E. GORMAN, Clerk, and other officers of the boat, our hearty and heartfelt acknowledgments for the courtesy and attention extended to us, thereby making the voyage so pleasant and agreeable.

Resolved, That we recommend to the traveling public, the new and beautiful steamer Florence, as a boat of speed, safety and comfort; and its officers as Gentlemen of skill, experience and urbanity.

Resolved, That the St. Louis papers and others on the Missouri river, and the New York Tribune, be requested to publish the forgoing preamble and resolutions.
