Platte River Ferry.

Persons traveling up and down the western bank of the Missouri river, will find a good and reliable crossing on the Platte river, at Carlyle's and Bennett's Ferry, at the foot of Cedar Island. By taking this route, you save crossing the Missouri river twice, and also save about fifteen miles travel, and in addition, have a better road, safer and more expeditious crossing, and no extra ferriage. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Reputation.

The influence or popularity of men always depend upon their reputation. Merchants who sell inferior articles at higher prices than they can be purchased at elsewhere, and thus take advantage of the unsuspecting, may continue their dishonorable traffic for a time, but it is eventually discovered, and they soon get a bad reputation. On the other hand, those who sell their articles at a fair profit, and never take advantage in any respect, soon gets a good reputation, like our friends, Messrs. Palmer & Averill, who have lately opened the "Bellevue Store," on the corner of Jefferson and 27th street opposite the Fontenelle Bank. Their stock is new and fresh, and we judge from having priced a number of their articles that they intend to sell cheap for cash. They deal upon the principle that a "nimble sixpence is worth more than a slow shilling." Look at their advertisement in another column, and call and try them.

Enterprise.

We are pleased to note the various improvements which are now being made in the erection of new buildings in this city. Mr. Jennings, an enterprising citizen of this place has now in course of erection, and will finish, at least twenty buildings this season. This is doing his share promptly in improving the city. If other citizens who have the means, possessed a portion of the energy and business attainments of Mr. Jennings, the beautiful plateau upon which the city is located, would present quite a different aspect in the course of another year.

☞ Samuel Pease Esq., of Massillon, Ohio, arrived at this City, on last Tuesday. We understand he is going to spend the summer in this Territory. Glad of it—he is a good fellow, and an energetic business man.

Our Market Prices.

Our readers can rely upon the correctness of the market prices, as given in this paper. They are corrected weekly, by the firm of Messrs. Clarke & Bro., Forwarding and Commission merchants of this city, who bind themselves to abide by the figures reported, in buying, as well as selling. Some articles are weekly advancing, whilst others, and especially lumber, is becoming cheaper. They have always on hand a large assortment of the articles they advertise for sale—for which look at another column.

A FINE FARM FOR SALE.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Bellevue and the public generally, that he wishes to sell his farm, which is situated on the Platte river, in Sarpy County, and consists of 320 acres. 220 acres of this land is fenced with boards, and cedar posts. 40 acres is broken, and half a mile from this is 70 acres of as good timber as can be found in the Territory. This farm is situated on the Stage Road from Omaha to Nebraska City, the Platte River Ferry being right on the place. It is altogether as desirable a location as can be foundon the Platte River, and for richness of Soil, and convenience of Wood and Water unsurpassed by any in the Territory. For further particulars apply to the owner on the premises.
