

The Surrender of Walker.
Letters from Panama, state that Gen. Walker arrived at that place, on Sunday morning, May 17. The United States ship of war, St. Marys, Capt. Davis, arrived at the anchorage in Panama Bay, from San Juan del Sur, which port she left on the 5th inst., having on board the following officers of Walker's army: Gen. Wm. Walker, Capt. Williamson, Major Hoop, Capt. McFadin, Gen. C. F. Henningsen, Capt. Fayseux (N) Col. Bruno Natzer, Capt. Hawkins, Col. John Waters, Lieut. Bacon, Lieut. Col. Henry, Lieut. McMichael, Lieut. Col. Rogers, Dr. Keilman, Lieut. Col. Tucker, Dr. McAlamy, Capt. West, Orderly F. Romer.

The particulars of this "strange eventful history" are as follows:
Capt. Davis, of the St. Marys, which for some time past, as you know, has been lying at San Juan del Sur, having visited the allied camp, and ascertained from his own observations, as well as from the accounts brought in by deserters, of the straits in which Walker and his men were reduced, addressed a letter to Walker on the 30th of April, stating that he was aware of his desperate and forlorn position, and offered, from humanity, to interfere in his behalf, and stated that he was authorized, in case of his (Walker's) capitulation, to guarantee his personal safety and the safe removal of all under his command. He also offered to take Walker to Panama in the St. Marys, and stated that Gen. Mora consented to suspend hostilities.

To this letter Walker replied that Capt. Davis' propositions were too vague, and requested a personal interview. Whereupon Capt. Davis wrote to express his surprise that his propositions should be found vague—re-stated them more plainly, asking him to abandon the enterprise and leave the country, pledging himself for the safety of all persons at Rivas, without exception, concluding by declining to go to Rivas.

The same day Walker sent a reply, stating that he agreed to suspend hostilities until notified by Capt. Davis that they are to recommence, but begged him to notify Gen. Mora that he would consider attempts to induce his men to desert as an act of hostility. He proposed to send two officers to Capt. Davis to treat, provided they could have a safe conduct.

To this Capt. Davis responded by sending a pass to two of Walker's officers to visit him, and Walker appointed Gen. Henningsen and Col. Waters as Commissioners to negotiate with Capt. Davis.

The next day, May 1, the following terms were agreed to, and Walker issued them in a general order, as follows:
Head Quarters of the Army, }
Adj't Gen's Office, Rivas, May 1, '57. }
GENERAL ORDER—No. 50.

The Commander-in-Chief, in communicating to the army the following agreement, thinks proper to state he entered into it on the solemn assurances from Capt. Davis, that Col. Lockridge, with his whole command, had left the San Juan river for the United States.

In parting for the present with the brave comrades who have adhered to our cause, through evil as well as through good report, the Commander-in-Chief desires to return his deep and heartfelt thanks to the officers and soldiers under his command.

Reduced to our present position by the cowardice of some, the incapacity of others, and the treachery of many, the army has yet written a page on American history which it is impossible to forget or erase. From the future, if not from the present, we may expect just judgment.

RIVAS, May 1, 1857.

An agreement is hereby entered into between General William Walker on the one part, and Commander Charles H. Davis, of the United States Navy, on the other part, and of which the stipulations are as follows:
Firstly—General Walker, with sixteen officers of his staff, shall march out of Rivas with their side arms, pistols, horses and personal baggage, under the guarantee of said Captain Davis, of the United States Navy; that they shall not be molested by the enemy, and shall be allowed to embark on board the United States vessel of war St. Marys, in the harbor of San Juan del Sur, the said Capt. Davis undertaking to transport them safely on the St. Marys to Panama.

Secondly—The officers of General Walker shall march out of Rivas with their side arms, under the guarantee and protection of Capt. Davis, who undertakes to see them safely transported to Panama, in charge of a United States officer.

Thirdly—The privates and non-commissioned officers, citizens and employees of departments, wounded or unwounded, shall be surrendered with their arms to Capt. Davis or one of his officers, and placed under his direction and control, he pledging himself to have them safely transported to Panama in charge of a United States officer, in separate vessels from the deserters from the ranks, and without being brought into contact with them.

Fourthly—Captain Davis undertakes to obtain guarantees, and hereby does guarantee that all natives of Nicaragua or of Central America, now in Rivas, and surrendered to the protection of Capt. Davis, shall be allowed to reside in Nicaragua, and to be protected in life and property.

Fifthly—It is agreed that such officers as have wives and families in San Juan del Sur shall be allowed to remain there under protection of the United States Consul until an opportunity offers of embarking for Panama or San Francisco.

General Walker and Captain Davis mutually pledge themselves to each other that this agreement shall be executed in good faith.

WILLIAM WALKER,
CHARLES HENRY DAVIS,
Commander U. S. Navy.

Present and acting,
C. F. HENNINGSEN,
JOHN P. WATERS,
J. WINTHROP TAYLOR.

By command of William Walker, General Commander-in-Chief.

HOG CHOLERA AND POISONED WHISKY.
The attention attracted to this subject threatens to elicit strange disclosures. The Mexico (Missouri) Ledger says:
"There was an unprincipled man who sold receipts or directions to the distillers through Madison County, Indiana, warranting that for every bushel of meal distilled they should have a yield of five gallons of proof whisky; and as no bushel contains over two-and-a-half gallons of proof whisky, some false remedy had to be resorted to, and that remedy was nuxvomica, or strychnine and tobacco-juice, and those poisonous substances being put in with the meal when slop was let to the hogs, so powerful was the poison that every hog which got to the slop died in an hour afterwards."

THE RATTLESAKE.—The rattlesake, although its poison is so fatal, is, in fact, not a very dangerous animal, and people are seldom bitten by it. This arises from two causes: first, that it invariably gives you notice of its presence by its rattle; and secondly, that it always coils itself up like a watch-spring before it strikes, and then darts forward only about its own length. Where rattlesakes are common, as in Wisconsin, persons generally carry with them a vial of ammonia, which, if instantly applied to the bite, will at least prevent death.

GOOD RULES FOR ALL.—Profane swearing is abominable. Vulgar language is disgusting. Loud laughing is impolite. Inquisitiveness is offensive. Tatling is mean. Telling lies is contemptible. Slandering is devilish. Ignorance is disgraceful, and laziness is shameful. Avoid all the above vices, and aim at usefulness. This is the road in which to become respectable. Walk in it. Never be ashamed of honest labor. Pride is a curse—a hateful vice. Never act the hypocrite. Keep good company. Speak the truth at all times. Never be discouraged, but persevere, and mountains will become as mole-hills.

A lady and gentleman disputing upon a subject, the lady testily remarked: "Sir, we cannot agree in anything."
"You are wrong, madam," said he, "if you should go into a room in which there were but two beds, a woman in one and a man in the other, with whom would you sleep?"
"With the lady of course," replied she.
"So would I," the gentleman replied.

THE BEDBUGS.—A man named Aaron Bedbug, of Montgomery County, Ky., intends petitioning the Legislature to change his name. He says that his sweetheart, whose name is Olivia, is unwilling that he should be called A. Bedbug, she O. Bedbug and the little ones little Bedbugs.

A felon generally appears on the end of the fingers and thumbs.—Buffalo Republican.

Sometimes on the end of a rope.—Boston Post.

If you want to sleep quietly, don't praise another man while your wife is undressing for bed.

The Two Dollar Magazine contained 64 pages, the Lady's Book 100.
Twenty-four more engravings, twenty six more articles, and thirty-six more pages, nearly double the quantity. The lowest club price of the Two Dollar Magazine is $1.25; lowest club price of Lady's Book $1.97, only 42 cents difference in the price, which is three and a half cents on each number, and for that sum (three and a half cents), you receive twenty-six more articles, twenty-four more engravings, and thirty-six more pages monthly—certainly a very cheap three and a half cents' worth. This view of the case has probably never before been presented, but it is a true statement, which any lady can convince herself of by comparing the two magazines.

THE MODEL FAMILY AND AGRICULTURAL PAPER.
PUBLISHED AT GERMANTOWN, PHILADELPHIA CO., PENN.
EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING.
BY PHILIP R. FREARS.

PRICE—TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

We take this occasion to announce to Farmers throughout the country, that it is the intention of the Editor and Proprietor of the "Germantown Telegraph," not only to continue as heretofore the Agricultural Department of his paper, but additionally to add to its character and value by all the means at command. All necessary space shall be provided for a full record of Agricultural Details and a full development of every branch of the Farmer's Pursuit. He will in future, as he has always heretofore, aim to be practical, and to be of real and substantial advantage to husbandry. His course, also, will continue to be thoroughly independent, and wholly unbiassed by any other motives than those he conceives to be promotive of the true interest of Agriculture in its broadest meaning. Neither individuals, cliques, societies, or any other influence shall swerve him from the path of right and duty.

Farmers, throughout the country, who desire a Newspaper, issued weekly, and equal to any other family news and literary journal published, which makes Agriculture a specialty, will find the "Germantown Telegraph" to fulfill every condition, and to render it entirely unnecessary for them to subscribe for a periodical exclusively agricultural.

Practical Horticulture, Pomology and Gardening, generally, will meet with particular attention.

As a Literary and News Journal it shall not be surpassed by any in the country. Neatly printed on good paper, of the greatest class, it shall continue to be one of the handsomest newspapers of the day.

Every Family, in town or country, whether they take other papers or not, will find the "Germantown Telegraph" to be worth, in liberal benefit, twice the amount of subscription.

No subscriptions received without the cash. Price Two Dollars in advance. Subscriptions not paid within the year, $2.50. Mail subscribers will have the cash postage deducted when not exceeding 25 cts. per annum, provided the subscription be paid strictly in advance. Postage stamps to this amount will be returned as change with the receipt.

Any person sending five new subscribers at one time, will be entitled to the paper for one year.

Specimen numbers sent on request.
