

Local & Miscellaneous.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—By an arrangement of exchange between Rev. C. C. Goss of the M. E. Church, in this city, and Rev. Mr. Gaylord of the Congregational Church in Omaha, the latter gentleman will preach in the School House, next Sabbath morning, at 10 1-2, and in the evening at 7.

IMPROVEMENTS STILL GO ON.—The brick work of the large three story brick dwelling, belonging to our worthy Post Master, L. B. KINNEY, is now nearly completed. This will be one of the finest dwellings in the Territory.

We have visited the brick dwelling of T. B. LEMON, which is now in process of completion. The walls are up and the building roofed, and the carpenters are busily engaged on the inside. The view from Mr. L's dwelling is magnificent, extending down the valley of the Missouri, a distance of twenty miles.

JOHN P. HORN & Co., grocers, have commenced the erection, on Main Street, of a two story wood building, 22 by 45 feet, for a store.

MR. FRAZIER is erecting a carpenter's shop, near the Presbyterian Church.

THE CROPS, &c.—From observation and inquiry, we learn that farm products are looking well, and promise an average yield.

The spring was unusually cold and backward with us, as it was in fact, thro' all the states; and owing to the poor seed used, and the backwardness of the season, much of the corn first planted failed to germinate; consequently nearly all the pieces were very uneven in growth, presenting an unfavorable aspect to the farmer, through the early part of the summer; but the rains of August gave an impetus to the smaller stalks, and it is now looking fine. If nothing unusual happens there will be a good crop.

Early planted potatoes will not yield largely; and as we have said, the spring was backward; then followed warm and dry weather through June and July, retarding their growth. Those planted late, have come on finely, and are now looking well, promising an abundant yield.

There has been frequent and copious showers through last month; and more rain fell in August than we had previously had, this year.

The farmers are now, and have been, for some time, engaged in cutting and putting up their winter's hay. There has been much cut, and more will be before killed by frost.

It is well known, that all tame grass in the east, ripens early, and when ripe, it is unfit for hay. Here the farmers have a decided advantage over those at the east, in this respect. Our bottom prairies afford an abundance of grass, which remains green till late in autumn, when killed by frost, which gives plenty of time to secure it. Prairie hay is very nutritious, and is much relished by all stock. It is free from all dust, common to eastern hay, and horses brought here that have heaves, are soon cured, or do not show any symptoms of having that disease.

The staple crops, as yet, are corn and potatoes. These are more readily used in all new countries, till mills for grinding the various grains, are near at hand; and for this reason, at first, there is but comparatively little demand for wheat, &c. At this time, there is but little wheat, oats, and barley, raised in this Territory, although we have noticed several fields of wheat, particularly in this County, that looked extremely fine, and would yield abundantly.

All kinds of melons are grown in abundance, and fine ones are now daily sold in our markets. This seems to be a soil particularly well suited to all kinds of vines.

We will also state, for the benefit of our friends in the east, who are unacquainted with prairie countries, that all crops grow more luxuriantly after the soil has been cultivated several years, and becomes thoroughly pulverized and mellow, than at first. Those kinds of grain that have large, fibrous stalks, are better adapted to our soil till its excessive richness is exhausted.

We call attention to the notice of Mr. Lovejoy's in another column, respecting the large assortment of winter Boots.

Having examined them for our selves, and having had a long experience in the Shoe trade, we are free to pronounce them a tip top article—well made and of the best material. Those wishing a durable article can do no better either in quality or price.

POSTAGE STAMPS.—A quantity of P. O. Stamps and Envelopes, have been received at the P. O. in this city. This will be a great convenience to our citizens.

BUFFALO HUNTERS RETURNED.—The party of gentlemen of this city, that went on a Buffalo hunt, several weeks since, returned the latter part of last week, having been 35 miles west of Fort Kearney. They report the Buffalo as being numerous, and succeeded in capturing five of them. Their horses were too much jaded on their journey out, to cope successfully with those monarchs of the Plains.

They saw "nary Injun," of the hostile tribes, but one day they discovered what was supposed to be a party of warriors advancing towards them. Getting their men together, they examined and loaded all of their arms, and set out to meet them; but fortunately, the warriors proved to be a party of returning Californians, with pack-mules.

Col. Sumner and troops, left Fort Kearney, August 17th, for the purpose of chastising a band of Cheyennes, who had lately committed depredations on a party that were driving mules and cattle across the Plains. When our hunters returned to the Fort, Col. Sumner had had an engagement with the Indians, and the wounded were being brought in. Several Indians were killed, but none of the troops.

The hunters had a fine time, and were in good health and spirits, when they arrived home.

Last Sunday evening we had the pleasure of listening to an able lecture upon Preaching, by Rev. C. C. Goss, at the School House. We have not room for a sketch of it, but will say it was a clear and truthful exposition of the different styles of preaching; and who and how they should preach. It was the most able discourse we have listened to in Nebraska.

In this connection, we will say, it would be a decided improvement if better seats were provided for those attending meetings at the School House. We do not know how others feel on this point, but must say we do not possess a sufficient amount of the spirit of martyrdom, to sit two mortal hours on a hard six-inch board, twice every Sabbath; and if our entrance into the kingdom of heaven, is to be secured by such penance, we strongly suspect we shall not be able to maintain a christian feeling long enough, to be entitled to a seat with the elect.

Will not our citizens see that comfortable seats are provided?

THERMOMETRICAL RECORD.—For the gratification of the weather prophets, we publish the following Thermometrical Record, for the month of August, kept at this office:—

Table with columns: Day, A.M. Dg., P.M. Dg., F.M. Dg., F.M. Dg. Rows 1-31.

We have but very little sultry weather. A few days in August, were somewhat muggy, but nothing like the old fashioned "dog days," we used to experience in the Eastern and Middle States. There were frequent showers during the month.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Friend WHITTINGTON was in town last week, with another load of water-melons, and it being a warm day, suspected the devil needed an internal cooling application, and presented him with several luscious melons which were dispatched from time to time, as occasion required, much to the gratification of all concerned.

Thank you, friend W., and may your like never grow less,—while melons last.

GRASSHOPPERS are very numerous, but owing to the lateness of their appearance, it is not anticipated that they will do much damage.

SOCIAL BALL.—Our friends that "trip the light fantastic toe," are to have a party at the house of G. W. Owen, in Owenton, next Tuesday evening, Sept. 3, at 7 o'clock. Those wishing to have a good time generally, will, of course, be there.

BOAT ARRIVALS.—The WATOSSA arrived at our levee, Aug. 29. She makes regular weekly trips to the GUARD.

The HARRISAL came up Aug. 30, and discharged a quantity of freight at the levee, for our merchants.

The good light draught steamer, ASA WILGUS, arrived at our lading Sept. 1 discharging a large quantity of freight. You have our thanks, gentlemen of the Wilgus, for St. Louis papers. The traveling public will do well to remember this boat. Capt. Ives is a gentleman, every inch of him. We notice that Mr. McPherson, her old Clerk, has left her office, and gone to speculating along the river. He will trade on the Wilgus. You will find Mr. Hopkins in the office, who looks like a gentleman of the first water. The Wilgus leaves for St. Louis on Sunday morning.

The steamer OMAHA, went down Monday evening, with a large lot of passengers from Sioux City. The Omaha, on her upward trip, left at the levee, a fine brass field piece,—a six pounder. Remember the Omaha; she is one of the fleetest boats on the river, and all will be at home in the hands of Capt. Holland, and J. Jewett Wilcox, Clerk.

"ANOTHER BIG FISH.—The Plattsmouth Jeffersonian says that a "catfish" weighing 165 pounds, was caught at the mouth of Pappillion Creek, one day last week." &c.—Council Bluffs Clarion.

No sir! Mr. Clarion; the Plattsmouth Jeffersonian said no such thing. Put on your "specs," Major, and you will see that that was our first fish story.

The De Soto Pilot, published by John E. Parrish, has changed hands. Mr. Z. Jackson is to be the future publisher.
