Blitz among the Lunatics.

Yesterday afternoon Signor Blitz kindly gave an exhibition of his skill in legedematism and ventriloquism at the Insane Asylum at South Boston. Between forty and fifty of the females, whose mental condition allow of their being present, witnessed the performances, and were highly delighted with the marvelous dexterity of the magician's illusions and transformations. The men, for the most part were still, and deeply interested, while the women were full of laughter and glee. One man, who graduated at Harvard with distinguished honors, and who for two years has exhibited no interest in things about him, entered heartily into the spirit of the performance, and, like Chevalier Mearat, applauded in proper time and place. Another patient was so delighted, that he proposed to give the Signor $200. The effect upon the several patients was widely different, some laughing outright, and others exhibiting a lively curiosity or staring with amazement, while the faces of a few were as blank as the wall at which they gazed. The company were highly delighted at the Signor's trained canaries, who performed excellently. But the most successful portion of the exhibition was the display of ventriloquist powers, in which the magician is without a rival. It was a gratifying sight to witness the shades of expression flit across the countenances of these unfortunates, as the different imaginary personages conversed with the Signor. The performances occupied about an hour, and was given in Blitz's best style; in fact, he seemed to take particular pleasure in thus administering to the gratification of these afflicted people.—Boston Transcript.

LOOKING DOWN A DANDY.—"I was dining at a hotel in Philadelphia," writes a gentleman of Knoxville, Tennessee, "and sitting nearly opposite Gideon Henderson, of this city, a well known merchant, who was on his semi-annual tour to the North to buy goods. He had two young ladies from this State under his charge, and one of them was sitting on each side of Mr. Henderson at table. Directly in front of him sat a dandy, who, having finished his soup, raised his eye glass and stared steadily first at one and then at the other of the ladies. Mr. H. seized a heavy glass tumbler, and I thought was about to spill the fellow's profile by hurling it at his head; but instead of that, he brought it to his own eye and looked deliberately through the bottom of it at the top of the scamp in front of him. The attention of the company was fixed upon the fellow; a general giggle began and grew, till he was compelled to quit the table and the room, in the midst of the jeers of the guests."

SURE JOKES.—The superintendent of the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad discharged the conductor belonging to that road. The conductor was asked why he was discharged.

"Well," said he, "I was discharged for giving a free pass."
"What made you such a fool as to give a free pass?"
"Well, you see!" replied the conductor, "I got tired riding alone, and gave a friend of mine a free pass to get him to come along for company."

A collision occurred on one of the roads terminating in the city some time ago. The road in question is celebrated for curvatures. The engineer was thought to be to blame, and accordingly he was taken to task by the superintendent.

"Did you not see the light?" said the superintendent.
"Yes," replied the engineer, "I saw the light, but I thought it was the other end of my train."

A MOST PALPABLE HIT.—An anecdote of the Rev. Mr. Field, who lived in Vermont several years ago, contains a good reply:

As the Rev. gentleman went, at a time, to deposit his vote, the officer who received it being a friend and parishioner, but of opposite politics, remarked:
"I am sorry, Mr. Field, to see you here."
"Why?" asked Mr. Field.
"Because," said the officer, "Christ said His kingdom was not of this world."
"Has no one a right to vote," said Mr. Field, "unless he belongs to the kingdom of Satan?"

This at once let in a ray of light to the darkened chambers of the officer's cranium, which he had never thought of before.

Fashion's votaries have two faults—they are hollow-headed and hollow-hearted.

A country dentist advertises that "he spares no pains" to render his operations satisfactory.

"Pray, Mrs. Habriski, why do you whip your children so often?" "La, Mrs. Worthing, I do it for their enlightenment. I never whipped one of them in my life that he didn't acknowledge that it made him smart."

A young Irishman who had married when he was about nineteen years of age, complaining of the difficulties to which his marriage subjected him, said, "I will never marry so young again, if I live to be as old as Methusalem."

"How many deaths," asked the hospital physician.
"Nine!"
"Nine, why I ordered medicine for ten."
"Yes, but one wouldn't take it."

A down East editor advises his readers, if they wish to get teeth inserted to go and steal fruit where his watch dog is on guard.

CIRCULAR.

TO THE LAND OFFICERS IN THE TERRITORIES OF MINNESOTA, KANSAS AND NEBRASKA.

BY joint resolution of Congress, approved March, 1857, valid pre-emption claims on the 16th and 30th sections, heretofore reserved for schools, in the Territories of Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska, will be recognized WHERE THE SETTLEMENT HAS BEEN, OR MAY BE MADE PRIOR TO THE SURVEY.

1st. In cases where the approved plat of survey has not yet been returned, the declaratory statement must be filed WITHIN THREE MONTHS AFTER THE RECEIPT OF SUCH APPROVED PLAT AT THE DISTRICT OFFICE.

2d. Where the plat is now in the Register's Office, the declaration must be filed within three months from the first publication of THIS CIRCULAR IN YOUR DISTRICT.

A failure to comply with this requirement, will work a forfeiture of the claim.
THOS. A. HENDRICKS, Commissioner.
n 30-8w

Entering Town Sites.

The following correspondence will show that the act of the last Legislature of the Territory, designating the County Commissioners as the proper persons to enter Town Sites, is not recognized by the Commissioner of the Land Office.

It is a question of doubt whether the Judges of Probate, or the United States Judges, can be regarded as "Judges of the County Court." As soon as that doubt is removed, notice will be given. In the mean time no entering of towns not incorporated can be made.

A copy of the act of the last Legislature will be placed in the hands of the Commissioner, and under the circumstances, the entries already made may be confirmed.
JOHN A. PARKER, Register.
Land Office, May 19th, 1857.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER TO THE COMMISSIONER OF THE LAND OFFICE, DATED

LAND OFFICE, OMAHA, April 15, 1857.

Under the "act of twenty-third May, 1844," the "Judges of the County Court" are given the authority to enter "Town Sites." In this Territory there are no such officers as "Judges of the County Court," but the Legislature has recognized the "County Commissioners" as the proper persons to enter "Town Sites," and we have, in view of the spirit of the law, permitted such entries, in the hope that they will meet the approbation of the Department.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
JOHN A. PARKER, Register.
Land Office, May 19th, 1857.
