POETRY.

The Merry Heart. 'Tis well to have a merry heart, However short we stay.

There's beauty in the merry heart, A moral beauty, too; It shows the heart's an honest heart.

The sun may shroud 'tself in cloud, The tempest wrath begin; It finds a spark to cheer the dark.

Then laugh away, let others say, What'er they will of mirth; Who laughs the most may truly boast.

office are in a most miserable condition, and the greater portion of them, no doubt, for the last few months have been kept in the shape of memorandums.

CAUSE OF THE OUTBREAK IN INDIA.—The English papers are just beginning to realize the fact it is not religion but a desire to restore the Mohammedan empire that has caused the outbreak in India.

AN INQUIRING MIND.—The following anecdote which a friend related to us as actual occurrence, smacks somewhat of the stories of children related by the Knickerbocker.

A STRIPPING SOME EIGHT YEARS OF AGE, was engaged in the manufacture of a stool, which on account of a disparity in the length of the legs, refused to stand up.

THE NEW PERSIAN MELON.—Mr. Carpenter of Rye, yesterday exhibited in the Tribune Office one of these new and valuable contributions to horticulture, grown by C. K. Riker of Stamford, Conn.

FRANKLIN'S TOAST.—Long after Washington's victories over the French and English had made his name familiar over all Europe, Dr. Franklin chanced to dine with the English and French Ambassadors.

CAREFULLY MARKED.—The Syracuse Standard says that one of the ladies on board the Minnehaha, at the picnic excursion on Wednesday last, exposed her under skirts during the shower.

AN IRISH POSTSCRIPT.—The Boston Museum says that the following postscript to an Irish letter can be seen at the office: "Dear Mike—If ye don't get this letter at all, write an' let us hear, an' I'll raise the devil with the postmaster."

FORMER BANK SUSPENSIONS.—The first suspension of specie payments by banks, occurred in 1814, immediately after the capture of the city of Washington by the British.

A GENERAL RESUMPTION OF SPECIE PAYMENTS was attempted in 1839, but a large proportion of the bank did not succeed in the operation, and a universal resumption was not effected until 1843 and 1844.

LUDICROUS INCIDENTS IN TIME OF DANGER.—When the steamer Isaac Newton broke her walking beam on Saturday night, the lamentable disaster to the Central America was so fresh in the minds of the passengers that it added much to the excitement and alarm.

ONE GENTLEMAN WAS SO OVERCOME WITH FEAR that he plunged headlong out of his stateroom window into the water. Another, a hypocondriac old fellow from Rochester, N. Y., awoke at the first crash, seized his carpet bag and bounced out of his room.

SOME GRACELESS WAS LAST SUGGESTED A NEW READING OF SHAKESPEARE, to cut the time.—"Help, Cook us, or I sink!"
