

Local & Miscellaneous.

HO FOR A MERRY TIME.—There will be a dance at the Benton House, this evening. Drop in, friends, and show them how its done. It will be a pleasant party.

BRICK DWELLINGS.—Messrs. Stites and Robinson, have commenced the erection, on Hancock Street, of two brick dwellings, adjoining each other, two stories high, 30 by 40 feet, on the ground.

WEDDING.—We had the pleasure of witnessing a wedding ceremony, at the Benton House, last Thursday evening. We wondered if some of the hearts of those bachelors present, were not caused to ache, for the "good time coming." After the ceremony, the company indulged in a social dance.

THE FIRST FROST.—The first frost of the season, came on the night of the 15th. Jack came down on a grand scale, to make up for his late appearance. His performance was entirely satisfactory.

THE BENTON HOUSE.—It will be seen by the notice in to-day's paper, that the above popular hotel, has in part, changed hands. J. F. Coffman, is now sole proprietor. The Benton House is one of the largest hotels in the Territory, and is well furnished. Under the management of Mr. Coffman, so well and favorably known to the public, we expect to see a continuation of that extensive patronage, this house has enjoyed, for the last year. Coffman is deservedly popular, with all who are acquainted with him. We wish him success.

HOME AGAIN.—Among the arrivals on the Steamer Emigrant, last Friday, we noticed that of Hon. C. T. Holloway, who has been on a visit to his friends east. The Hon. gentleman, is looking well, and seems to be much pleased, with the improvements, made in Bellevue, since he left. Here is our best, Charley, for ninety days. You are thrice welcomed home.

STORE AT PLATTFORD.—A store has just been opened by W. B. Mosely, at this point. A large stock of goods of all kinds, and of a good quality, will be found. This is a great convenience to the squatters in that part of the county; and we doubt not, it will be well patronized.

PROFITABLE.—The soil of this Territory, is highly productive. We have seen specimens of its products, that would set our eastern neighbors all in the shade. Robert Laing, of Fairview, Sarpy County, has just left at our office, a mammoth beet, grown by him, which weighs 19 1-2 pounds, and measures 2 feet 3 inches in circumference.

R. W. Bulkeley of this city, has raised a beet, in his garden, which measured 2 1-2 feet in length. It was a blood beet. A. D. Jones, of Omaha, showed us a squash, 7 1-2 feet in circumference, and is still growing.

ARRIVED HOME.—Stephen H. Wattles arrived home, last week, where he has been, on a short tour, to purchase the rolling stock, for his new livery stable, on Main St., which is expected every day. He has a good brick building, and is just the man to run an institution of this kind, which we glory in having in our midst, as one of the luxuries, of this country of fast horses and good roads.

The weather, most of the time, during the past week, has been wet and cold. Sunday was rainy and unpleasant; and as but few ventured out of their domicils, public preaching, "went by default." In the morning, a few stray snow flakes, were coursing their way downward,—remining us of what is yet to come.

BOATS ARRIVED.—The EMIGRANT arrived Friday evening, Oct. 16, and landed a lot of passengers, and freight.

THE OMAHA CITY, arrived Oct. 19. The LACON, a stern wheel boat, arrived the same day. This is her first trip to our port.

The well known, and popular boat, OMAHA, Capt. Wineland, and J. Jewett Wilcox, Clerk, arrived Oct. 20. She brought up a large number of passengers. We acknowledge the receipt of a package of late St. Louis papers, with the compliments of Mr. Wilcox. Much obliged. We hope to hear from you, again.

COL. R. LOVEJOY.—Notwithstanding the hard times, the Col. continues to build and improve as though all were prosperous and easy. His square, from the numerous building completed and in course of erection, presents the appearance of a young city, by itself. In fact, in a quiet way, the Col. has done as much, if not more, to advance the interests of this place, than any one of our enterprising citizens. He has built a great number of first class, substantial houses, and still continues to build. Success to you Colonel, you will have your reward.

OMAHA SCHEM.—All of our merchants and business men, refused yesterday, to take this money. We believe the reason assigned, for not taking it, is, that they cannot get other currency, even in Omaha, for it, without losing 20 per cent.

J. STERLING MONTON.—This gentleman visited us last week,—we had a good old fashioned time with Julius, as we were wont to have, when he lived in the old log house at the foot of Main Street. The boy is looking as well, and seems to have perfectly recovered from the severe attack of the Nebraska, without leaving a scar, or the trace of a scratch.

FONTELENE BANK.—We are often asked many questions concerning the affairs of this institution. We believe it has paid all its depositors, and we attach no blame to its Cashier, Mr. Town, who was the principal manager; and who has now gone east,—leaving the concern in the hands of its assignees. Of the outcome of the whole matter, we have no hesitation in saying, that we do not believe it will, or can redeem a single dollar of its issue.—People may as well be undecieved in this matter, first as last. The bills are, as a few days will show, entirely worthless.

The Illinois Central Rail Road, have made an assignment.

MASONIC.—The regular meetings of Nebraska Lodge, No. 184, of Free and Accepted Masons, will be held at Masonic Hall, on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of each month, at 8 1-2 o'clock.

L. B. KINNEY, W. M. The regular meetings of Bellevue Lodge, No. 4, will be held on Saturday evening of each week, at 7 o'clock, P. M. Brothers of the order who may be in our city on that evening, are respectfully invited to attend.

W. H. COOK, N. G. W. W. HARVEY, Sec'y.

MARRIED.—In this city, at the Benton House, on the evening of the 15th inst., by the Rev. C. Chaucer Goss, Mr. J. H. Young to Miss Orpha Henry, both of Omaha City.
