

AFTER INVENTORY SALE

It is after the year's business is finished. After the stock is taken and the whole thing is boiled down to cold facts and figures that we can see most clearly our stock's true condition and as good merchants we set ourselves about it to make needed corrections. In going over our inventory sheets we see hundreds upon hundreds of lines of goods well broken in to, but not completely disposed of. These lines we propose to SELL and SELL QUICK. We are going to place a price upon them that will make them the best value we have ever offered.

This After Inventory Sale

of men's, boys' and children's Suits, Overcoats, Furnishing Goods and Hats means much to our customers and to us. In such a sacrifice of worthy merchandise there is no profit to us outside the satisfaction we give our thousands of customers, but that is a large reward. Those best acquainted with our methods know that while the Armstrong Clothing Company occupy an important position, we will never become too big to please the people. The steady strides of increased business only lead us on to increased power to please increased numbers.
