GENERAL MENTION.

Items of Interest Gathered From All Over the Country.

Use Egg-o-see and make Mr. Post squirm.

For union made shoes go to Rogers & Perkins.

The Elgin shirt and the Elgin collars are union made.

The government is advertising for 5,000 contract laborers to work on the Panama canal.

Get behind the union label and push it for all it is worth—and it is worth millions to the union men and women of America.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Sigourney, on July 21, a son. "Jack" says the boy carries a card and is already howling for copy.

The Kansas City Labor Day committee had a nice bunch of money on deposit with the City National bank when it went broke.

The Painters and Paperhangers have a neat label. Did you have it put on your summer job of painting and paperhanging? And if not, why not?

The American Flint Glass Workers' Union will engage in business on its own account, and is erecting three factories in which to make lamp chimneys.

Merchants who patronize "rat" printeries do not want the patronage of union men and women. If they did, they would not patronize "rat" printeries. See?

Union painters on a church at Wilkesbarre struck because the scaffolding was erected by non-union carpenters. They won, because the old scaffolding was torn down and a new one erected by union men.

The distributors of the Henry George and George W. Childs cigars are having trouble. As fast as Lincoln cigar dealers run out of these brands they discontinue them, despite the tears and protests of the wholesalers.

The "Omaha Plan" of making it easy to buy union made goods is the best one ever devised. The local Woman's Union Label League is following the plan, and inside of a month will have it in practical operation.

Henry Bruening, foreman of the stereotyping department of the Free Press, has returned to work after an extended vacation which he spent in the country. He is almost entirely recovered and is feeling better than for a year or two.

The Commercial Printing Co., of San Francisco put in beds and dining-room for the non-union printers it was going to get when the union men walked out. The beds have not yet been occupied, the food has rotted on the shelves and the company is without printers.

A. G. Chapman, mail carrier in district No. 6, was called to Chicago last week by the death of his mother. Mrs. Chapman was one of Lincoln's early settlers and was well known and beloved. She was visiting a son in Chicago when the summons came. Mr. Chapman will have the sympathy of his fellow employees and hosts of others in his bereavement.

SUPPRESS THIS EVIL.

Too Many Small Boys Allowed to Loiter Around Pool Halls.

It is time that the city authorities took summary action against these pool room managers who allow boys to loaf around and play pool and billiards. It is not exaggeration to say that one-half the receipts of the pool halls come from boys under 18 years of age, and every evening these halls are crowded with youths who should be at home in bed. It is contrary to law to allow a minor to loiter in a pool hall or play the game, and the law should be enforced.

These pool halls are training and recruiting grounds for tramping and the criminal courts, and the evil is growing to alarming proportions in this city. The Wageworker is going to begin a crusade on its own account pretty soon, and when it begins there is going to be a long census not only of proprietors who allow minors to play, but of minors whose parents evidently are unaware of the "sporty" inclinations of their adolescent offspring. The police authorities should give the pool halls their immediate attention.

AND IN LINCOLN.

There is one thing about this label business, and that is every son-of-a-gun, in the reform movement, red buttons, black republican, gray democrat, blue populist, dreamy single taxer, crazy referendum cranks, pure and simple bugs and all will feel better if they assist in creating a demand for union labeled goods on the market. If the Union Label League will make it easy to get union labeled goods, there might come a change in public sentiment of Omaha toward unions.—Western Laborer.

OF COURSE NOT.

The "unprejudiced" daily press had a good deal of sport over the scandalous labor graft of Sam Parks, but it is not even charged that labor agitators were carried on the pay roll thirteen months after they were dead and buried, as was the case with the Equitable grafters in Chamcey. Depew's swell set.—Western Laborer.

CLOTHING BARGAINS

Our second annual July Clearing Sale was a success beyond our fondest anticipations. Its success convinces us that we have made friends who rely on what we say, and patronize us because we give extra value for the money. It has been our constant effort to convince you that our situation and our opportunities spell economy to you. Our buyer is constantly in the clothing and furniture centers looking for bargains. We are out of the high rent, retail district and our expenses are therefore greatly reduced. These are factors that enable us to offer the public unusual bargains the year 'round.
