

Clothes Quality

IN EXCHANGE FOR YOUR PROMISE TO PAY

Quality counts in your purchases of most of your necessities. Let it count strong in the purchase of your Clothing. Style and appearance come next. This makes a strong combination, Style, quality, and appearance.

We still retain this distinct advantage over our competitors in the furnishing of Good, Warm, Stylish, Well Made Garments for Men, Women and Children. This advantage should appeal more strongly to the wage-earner than to others who do not take into consideration the quality but merely the appearance. Ours combine both, and therefore for every dollar spent with us by our customers, we give one in value in the article purchased, as a thousand well satisfied customers will testify. Ridgley still retains the confidence of all who have dealt with him and he means to continue to have the confidence of all who have or contemplate dealing with him. What we tell you about our Clothing is proven while wearing it.

NO MONEY DOWN YOUR CREDIT IS ALWAYS GOOD

Our Rain Coats for men and women continue to protect the wearers from the damp, cold fall air and the penetrating rains that can be expected at this season of the year.

We are still rushed selling those neat, nobby, stylish well made suits and overcoats for men. Hats and shoes complete the outfit.

Our Ladies' Wearing Apparel in Skirts, Coats, Hats and Shoes command the admiration of all who see them. A glance through these departments convinces you of their superior quality and exclusiveness in style and make.

THE PRESSMEN.

Making Little Noise, But Doing a Lot of Good Work.
The Lincoln Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union is not making a great deal of fuss these days, but it is quietly doing a lot of good union work. As a result the union is being materially strengthened both in numbers and in finance.
Work has been up to the top notch for some time and it has been difficult for the boys to get an occasional lay-off for duck hunting purposes.

THE CITY OF UPSIDE DOWN

Into the City of Upside Down
Two little children fare—
Tottie so pink and Teddie so brown.
All aglow are this mischievous pair
With a mad desire to tumble and tear Everything upright and nothing to spare,
In the City of Upside Down.
How we loved the City of Upside
Down,
Free city of mirth and hurrah,
Where mother was queen of a tumbling
town,
As pleasant as any you ever saw Ruled by Sultan or Padishah—
For love stood guard, as the only law
In the City of Upside Down.

Rich were the cars of Upside Down,
The chargers many and bold,
And every nook had its doll or clown,
Every house was a palace of purest
gold;
And our ruler never would frown
or scold
When we drove like wild through those darling, old Ruins of Upside Down.

But years have passed over Upside
Down,
And only its glory gleams,
For she who was queen in a simple gown
Has gone to the beautiful City of Dreams—
Yet oft like a vision at night it seems
The tender smile of my mother
beams
O'er her children in Upside Down.

But never again in Upside Down
Will Tottie and Teddie stray
It's a sad, sad place is that lonely
town
Since its queen and its magic vanished away—
And tears come unbidden to blind us by day
As we dream of the angel of light at play
In the City of Upside Down.

ka Independent.

ORIGIN OF THE "FRANKFURTER"
The little sausage known as "Frankfurter" and "Wiener" was offered for sale for the first time in 1895, and the centennial was observed in Vienna by the Butchers' Guild. The inventor of the sausage was Johann Lahner, who named it for his birthplace, Frankfurt. The business founded 100 years ago by a poor man has yielded a fortune to its various heads.
It has always remained in the same family, and is now conducted in Vienna by Franz Lahner, a grandnephew of the original Frankfurter sausage man.—Wiener Neue Freie Presse.

Of course you see to it that the union label is on your shoes.
The average man is more willing to lend his ear than to lend a hand.
A man seldom has cause to reproach himself for being too honest.
The heaviest collection plate doesn't always indicate the most religion.
What has become of the good woman who always took prizes for making salt risin' bread?
Some people who cast bread on the water yesterday waste all of today waiting for a bakery to float back to them.
When you go visiting do you enjoy your dinner if the children have to wait in order to make room for the company?

Miss Anna Virginia Miller...

The services of Miss Miller have been secured by us for an indefinite period. She is admittedly one of the leaders in Domestic Science, and her lectures and demonstrations are of immense value to those who desire to know how to secure the best culinary results at the least expenditure of labor and money.

Free Demonstrations

Miss Miller's demonstrations are free and all housewives are invited to attend. They are given on Wednesday afternoons at 2:30 and Friday evenings at 8. The following is the program for

Wednesday, Oct., 25, 2:30 p. m.

SUBJECT:—"A Group of German Dishes."
Dishes prepared—Rye Bread, Ragout of Lamb
Sweet Omelet Souffle.

Friday, Oct., 27, 8:00 p. m.

SUBJECT:—"Hallowe'en Suggestions."
Dishes prepared—Cabbage Salad in the shell Heart Sandwiches, Lucky Ginger Cakes.

BURN GAS COKE

Contains more heat units than the best coal. It is cheaper, too. Do not wait until the weather is cold the roads full of snow and the ice thick before laying in a supply. Do it now. See us for particulars.
Use a gas heater until "furnace time." We sell them.
