The Dr. Benj. F. Bailey Sanatorium. Located at Normal.

If there is one institution in Lincoln of which Lincoln should be more proud than of another, it is Green Gables, the Dr. Benj. F. Bailey Sanatorium which is located at Normal, three miles east of the center of the city.

Though only established four years ago, this institution already has a national reputation for the treatment of all non-contagious chronic diseases.

Dr. Bailey has practiced his profession in Lincoln for twenty years and is prominent in medical circles throughout the state and nation.

In the management and charge of the Sanatorium he is ably assisted by Dr. May L. Flanagan, who is assistant physician.

This institution is the most modern and best equipped one of its kind in the west and no expense has been spared to make it complete in all of its appointments and details.

It is supplied with every sanitary convenience, baths of all kinds, the various electric currents useful in the treatment of the sick, the X-ray and hot air treatment and contains large amusement rooms, and throughout is commodious and comfortable. A de-
