Other Friends in Lincoln

L. H. Sutter and W. Z. Henry, Managers.

One of the most complete stocks of shoes carried by any store in Lincoln, can be found at the shoe department paper-hanging. of the Suter-Henry Dry Goods com-Branch & Miller company, Tenth and petent workmen.

They handle a full and complete line shoes, and there are no better shoes made for men, women or children.

They make a specialty of the shoes bearing the union label, and those who patronize them may rest assured that the goods sold at this shoe department are the work of well paid, honest labor working under right conditions.

The management of this company are progressive and energetic and are ested in all that is for the building up

They are men who by their attitude are entitled to the support and co-operation of all who have the best interests of labor at heart.

CAPITOL BEACH CO.

Lincoln's New Amusement Resort and Its Splendid Prospects.

has been incorporated and is being with organized labor and is one of la promoted by some of our foremost business men, will operate at old Bur- Workingmen will make no mistake ia lington Beach an amusement park that will be modern and up-to-date.

They are beautifying the grounds with flowers, shrubs and trees and ing patronage and this is a fitting tribfrom this standpoint alone it will be ute to his uniform courtesy and honoran attractive place to visit, but coupled able treatment given to all patrons. with this they will have all kinds of amusements and sports.

A. H. Buckstaff, A. H. Armstrong, J. C. Harpham, Thomas Cochran, L. E. Wettling, and J. A. Buckstaff, the incorporators, are among the foremost of Lincoln's business men, and have over been interested and influential in every movement for the advancement of the city's interests, but in this last move time will undoubtedly show that this is their greatest work and they "have builded better than they knew."

They now have the bonds of the Capitol Beach Company on the market and an investment in these bonds is "tread cast upon the waters."

LINCOLN WALL PAPER & PAINT COMPANY.

A Concern That Has Always Been Manned by Unionists.

The man who gets the most out of life is the man who takes an interest not only of the wage earner, but the in the beautifying of his home. The public at large. proper care in the selecting the wa!l paper and the decorations for your home and in getting the best people to do the work does not add to the cost but does in a large measure increas? the pleasure of living and makes the home more comfortable and inviting.

This firm started in lusiness in Lincoln seven years ago, and have built up a successful and prosperous business. The partners in the Lincoln Wall Paper & Paint Co, are Mr. Stephenson, who attends to the painting and decorating, and Mr. Dowdiffe, who has charge of the wall paper department.

CAPITAL CARPET CLEANING AND RUG COMPANY.

In this, our Friendly List Edition for 1906, it is our purpose to call the attention of our readers to those cou- his honorable and public-spirited methcerns whose attitude towards labor is fair and just. Such a concern is the constantly increasing patronage and is Capital Carpet Cleaning & Rug company, located at Sixteenth and Court street, near fair grounds.

most approved and satisfactory man have the best interests of labor at ner, and manufacture and deal in rugs | heart. Mr. T. H. McGahey is the genial and capable manager. He is a gentleman of ability and integrity and is weil known in commercial circles. By his henorable and public-spirited methods of dealing he has built up a large and constantly increasing business and is exceedingly popular.

A. CORNELL.

Decorator and Paperhanger and Dealer in Kindred Supplies.

There is nothing that adds more to the beauty and comfort of the home than to have it prettily and tastefully decorated. The opportunities for doing this at moderate cost are great, owing to the attractive designs and combinatained for little money.

Mr. A. Cornell, located at 1338 O

prices to meet any income.

In addition to his wall paper business be deals in mouldings, paints, varnishes and painter's supplies and takes

Work intrusted to Mr. Cornell will pany, the Dry Goods department of be well and satisfactorily done by com-

> Mr. Cornell has always manifested ness and is exceedingly popular. a friendly interest in the cause of lainterests of labor at heart.

CHRIS' BATH HOUSE.

Splendid Patronage.

Mr. J. Chris Hansen is the genial and capable proprietor of Chris' Bath House, located at the northwest corner men who are public-spirited and inter- of Eleventh and P streets. Here he maintains a strictly modern and up-todate establishment, thoroughly equipped and complete in all its appoitments.

This is the place where you get any and all kinds of baths-saline, sait glow, shampoo, shower, hot and cold tub, and Turkish baths. The service is excellent and Mr. Hansen is always on hand himself to see that his patrons have all that they require.

Mr. Hansen is a gentleman who has The Capitol Beach company, which ever been in close touch and accord Mr. Klamm. bor's staunchest friends in Lincoln. supporting and co-operating with him to the highest degree.

He has built up a large and increas-

EMMA J. HEDGES.

A Business Woman Who Has Earned Her Great Success.

The attention of our many readers is called to the high class stenographic work of Miss Emma J. Hedges, whose office is located in the Burr block, room 53. This lady is prepared to do court reporting, take depositions, and all kinds of legal and commercial work, and report conventions. She is also a Notary Public, which is a great convenience, in many instances, to her many patrons. Promptness and the greatest accuracy are the distinguishing features of Miss Hedges' work, and her clients are many. In her chosen avocation Miss Hedges has successfully demonstrated what a woman may accomplish if she has the requisite intellect and tenacity. Such women as she command the respect.

PORTER HEDGE ABSTRACT CO.

County of Lancaster.

The Oldest Abstracting Firm in the

There is scarcely any business transaction in the world about which more care is necessary than in the buying of real estate, and anyone buying a piece of property wants to be perfectly certain that their title is good. In order to do that you will have to have an abstract made by parties whom you know to be accurate in their work an1 reliable and responsible.

The Porter Hedge Abstract company, with offices at 318 Richards block, is one of the best firms of abstractors in the state of Nebraska. Mr. Verne Hedge conducts this business under the above name. Mr. Hedge, by ods of dealing, has built up a large and exceedingly popular. He has always manifested a friendly interest in the cause of labor, and is entitled to the They clean carpets and rugs in the support and co-operation of all who

MRS. MINNIE DAVIS.

Hair Dressing and Toilet Preparations and Hair Goods. Mrs. Minnie Davis, located at 1232 O street, is a hair dresser and dealer in hair goods for ladies and gentlemen. She makes a specialty of scalp and complexion treatments and manicuring, and also manufactures a skin for this store. food for wrinkles and a general line of toilet preparations. Mrs. Davis manufactures and deals in hair goods, toupee goods and wigs for ladies and gentlemen.

SAMUEL S. WHITING.

tions in wall paper which can be ob- He is One of Lincoln's Most Popular Business Men.

Mr. Samuel S. Whiting is a gentle- the new Funke building. street, is a retail and wholesale dealer man of ability and integrity and is It is patronized largely by people most successful medical college in this in wall paper, and carries a most com- well known in commercial circles. He who appreciate immaculate napery, western country. The graduates of ian who has made a reputation in his

BRANCH & MILLER COMPANY. | plete stock in all varieties and at is a general insurance agent and his offices are at 37 Brownell block. Mr. Whiting represents some of the best insurance companies in the country in all lines of insurance-fire, life, contracts for painting, decorating and accident, tornado, employers and public liability, lightning, etc.

By his honorable and public-spirited methods of dealing he has built up a large and constantly increasing busi-

Mr. Whiting is thoroughly posted in of Hamilton Brown Since company's bor, and is entitled to the support and the insurance business and is a good co-operation of all who have the best man to do your insurance business with.

J. KLAMM.

A Popular Resort That Deserves Its Popular Saloon Man Who Is Well Known in Lincoln.

Mr. Jacob Klamm is a gentleman of ability and integrity and is well known by all union men. He owns and operates a saloon located at 1036 P street, which is conducted on right lines, and where you will find the best that can be obtained in the line of wines, liquors and cigars.

Mr. Klamm keeps a fine line of imported and domestic wines, particularly adapted to the family trade, which is a specialty with him.

Whenever you are down town and would like to get a good cigar or a glass of good beer, drop in and see

THE ROYAL HOTEL.

A Popular Hostelry That Has Achieved a Great Success.

The Royal Hotel, located at Fifteenth and O streets, is the only hotel in Lincoln located on O street. It is centrally located and is conducted in a manner which is highly creditable to the management and is a comforta ble and convenient place at which to stop. L. D. Munson the manager and proprietor, is a hotel man of experience and always makes it his business to see that his guests are well taken care of. He is always at the helm, and is prepared to welcome and take care of any and all conventions or other large bodies at short notice.

If you want a convenient and comfortable place to stop in Lincoln, at a moderate price, tell the cabman to take you to the Royal, or any O street car passes the door.

UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITER CO.

A Popular Machine That Always Gives Great Satisfaction.

There is no typewriting machine or he market today which is giving more universal satisfaction than the Underwood Typewriter. This is owing in a is so much improved that they may a visible machine, and that the operator is able at all times to see his work and know that it is correct. This machine is particularly adapted for operators who are writing direct without taking dictation. The machine is well made and is complete and service able. Use the Underwood and you will get satisfactory results,

C. J. Gibboney, the Lincoln manager with office at 136 North Eleventh street, is a gentleman who has done much for the furtherance of the busi ness of his company in this territory.

H. A. KENT.

A Leading Manufacturers of Good Union Made Cigars.

Mr. H. A. Kent is a manufacturer of high grade union made cigars. The cigars manufactured by him, the "Rock Island System," "Lincoln," "Dependable," and "Dan Dee," are cigars good enough for the most fastidious smoker -cigars made by union cigar makers working for union wages and unde living and satisfactory conditions.

All smokers among the union men should unite and give their combined patronage and co-operation to such manufacturers as Mr. Kent.

In addition to the manufacture of cigars Mr. Kent conducts a retail cigar store located in the Oliver Theatre building, on North Thirteenth street and also keeps a supply of cider, soda water and refreshing arinks.

We bespeak a portion of your trad-

CAMERON'S RESTAURANT.

One of the Oldest Caterers Doing Busi

"Good things to eat" are the magi words that appeal to all of humankind and in Lincoln they ate synonymous with Bon Cameron's restaurant, located at 119 South Twelfth street, in meals at a moderate price.

Short orders are served at all times up to eight at night, and regular meals during dinner and supper hours.

During his many years experience as a caterer and restaurateur in Lincoln Mr. Cameron has gained a most enviable reputation as a business man and citizen and commands a liberal share of the patronage in his line.

CITY GARBAGE COMPANY.

An Important Industry That Employs

an Army of Men. One of the most important things in a city the size of Lincoln is the disposition of the garbage. This question North Twelfth street.

thoroughly modern and up-to-date methods and accomplishes the required results with very little bother to the

They have done good work and are city at heart. This concern is always prompt in for a moderate compensation. Their attitude towards labor has always been fair and just.

ROSCOE POUND.

A Lincoln Man Who Is a Credit to His City.

Lincoln is justly proud of her sons in the various walks of business and professional life, but of none more so than of Roscoe Pound, Dean of the University Law School.

Mr. Pound is a young man who has won his way to the front ranks of his profession, and his selection as the head of the law school connected with the State University was a deserved tribute to his ability and fitness for the position.

He is undoubtedly one of the leading lawyers of this western country, and is a man who is making his influence for good felt in many ways.

It is a pleasure for labor to number such men as Roscoe Pound among les friends.

THE NEBRASKA STATE HOSPITAL For The CRIPPLED, RUPTURED AND DE-FORMED, LINCOLN, NEB.

Dr. John P. Lord, Omaha, Orthopedic Surgeon and Superintendent-Dr. H.

Winnett Orr, Lincoln, Assistant. A most interesting branch of work being done by the state is that at the Hospital for the Crippled, Ruptured and Deformed. Crippled children from the county poor farms or from homes where the parents or guardians are unable to provide for their proper medical care are admitted to this institution and given surgical treatment and medical care until their condition Dan'h Tracy, acting lieutenant.

arge measure to the fact that it is be returned as practically healthy children. Dr. John P. Lord of Omaha and Dr. H. Winnett Orr of Lincoln One of the Leading Oculists of the City are in charge of the hospital as super intendent and assistant, respectively The institution is under the supervi sion of the State Board of Lands and Buildings and at the present time is caring for about twenty children of all ages who are being relieved of various crippled conditions.

NEBRASKA PAINT & LEAD CO.

One of the Larger Manufacturing Con cerns of the West.

One of the manufacturing concerns of which Lincoln is justly proud is the Nebraska Paint & Lead Co., with factory and offices at 305 O street, and of which C. H. Bauer is the proprietor.

This concern manufactures a fine line of paints and white lead, and there is no doubt that its paints are among the most lasting and serviceable on the market

It is such concerns as the above which have made the business growth of Lincoln a possibility,

LINCOLN MEDICAL COLLEGE.

An Institution Which Is a Source of Great Pride.

An institution which has a high standing and which is a credit to our city and state is the Lincoln Medical College. This institution, managed as it is by some of the best members of our medical profession, has taken its place among the leading and recognized Eclectic Medical Colleges in the country, and is a member of the Con federation of Eclectic Medical Colleges of the United States.

The Lincoln Medical College will chased a fine new building, which is well adapted for its purpose, and is now fitting it up with all modern equipment and appointments.

Its growth has been rapid and substantial and today it is the largest and courteous attention and tempting this college are accorded recognition especial branch of the medical proall over the world. The faculty is fession. composed of physicians and surgeons of high standing, all of whom are leaders in their several specialties.

The work of this instituion is for good and it has done much to spread the good name of Lincoln as an educational center.

A. R. TALBOT, HEAD CONSUL OF his practice through the method of MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA.

Mr. Talbot was born in Alexis. Illinois, April 11, 1859. He received his preliminary education in the public interest in the cause of labor and is schools, graduating from the high entitled to the support and co-operschool at Alexis in 1881. He complete ation of all who have the best intered his college course in Hedding Col- ests of labor at heart. is well solved in our city by the City lege, at Abbingdon, Ills. Ten years Garbage Company with offices at 123 later this college conferred the degree R. S. YOUNG BUILDING SUPPLY of LL. D. upon him. He entered the This concern, of which E. C. Rewick Union Law School, of Chicago, gradus president and treasurer, employs ating in 1883, and immediately after- One of the Largest Concerns of the wards located at Lincoln, Neb., and commenced the practice of law. In 1887 he formed a partnership with Hon. W. J. Bryan under the firm name of Talbot & Bryan, which continued deserving of the co-operation of all until 1896. He was elected to the who have the future welfare of the state senate in 1896 and re-elected in street. 1898; was president pro tem of the state senate during the session of the performance of their duties and 1899, and by virtue of his office, acting perform the highest degree of service governor for several weeks during the absence of the governor and lieutenant governor.

In 1890, at the Head Camp of the Modern Woodmen of America, he was elected a director, and was re-elected at each succeeding Head Camp, serving for some time as chairman of the board. At the Head Camp in Indianapolfs in June, 1903, he was elected by unanimous vote to the position of Head Consul of that society and was re-elected at Milwaukee in June 1905 for a term of three years. This places nal beneficiary order in the United States, with a membership of over 750,000, and insurance in force of over $1,200,000,000. He is a prominent fraternalist, and a member of the follow-America, Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Royal Highlanders, Independent Order of Foresters. Ancient Order of United Workmen, Order of Elks, Maccabees, Sons and Daughters of Protection, American Order of Protection, Royal Neighbors of America and Knights and Ladies of Security. He is identified with the

LINCOLN FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Methodist Episcopal church.

And Lincoln Is Justly Proud of Its

Splendid Record. Lincoln is justly proud of its fire have been obtained under the leadership of the present chief, the department is made up as follows:

HORACE CLEMENT, CHIEF No. 1-W. W. Eddy, captain; W. A.

Knowlton, lieutenant. No. 2-Dan'l Stover, captain; H. Pratt, lieutenant.

No. 3-Richard Bjorkman, eaptain;

G. E. THOMPSON.

and State.

The most important organ and the the most neglected one in human anatomy, is the eye, and this is largely due to the fact that we do not realize it until we are afflicted seriously.

Many serious occular complications might be avoided if a reputable optician was consulted when the first symptoms of trouble manifested themselves.

Mr. Thompson is an expert in refracting or testing the eyes, and in fitting glasses exercises that judgment and care which comes only through

His attitude towards the laboring mcney well spent. neonle has ever been sympathetic and he is entitled to their fullest confidence and friendship.

DR. JOSEPH A. HODAM.

the Leading Members of the Medical Profession. Doctor Joseph A. Hodam is a physician and surgeon with offices at 1219 O

His standing is high in the profess-ion and he is a gentleman who has the confidence and respect of the entire community, not only as a physician but as a man. He is a broad minded and publicspirited gentleman and is interested in all that is for the advancement of the city's interests.

His attitude towards the cause of labor has always been friendly, and as long as his affairs are conducted in their present commendable manner we soon be in a new home, having pur- wish for him an era of ever increasing success and prosperity.

DR. EDWARD J. ANGLE.

One of the Best Known Physicians in Central Nebraska.

Doctor Edward J. Angle is a physic-

His offices are at room 1, 1215 O street. He makes a specialty of the reatment of skin, blood and genitourinary diseases and in this has been eminently successful. He uses the X-ray and has a complete equipment for its administration.

He is a gentleman who has built up treating everybody fairly and justly, and his former patients cannot say enough for him

He has always manifested a friendly

COMPANY.

Kind in the West.

Prominent among the business enerprises of Lincoln is the R. S. Young Building Supply Co., with offices at 1342 O street and yards at 1900 Q

They are dealers in coal, lime, cement, sand, stone and all kinds of building materials, making a specialty of the artificial building stone which is being used so much. The officers of this concern are T. A. Young, president; H. F. Rose, vicepresident; Mrs. E. J. Young, secretary and treasurer, and R. S. Young, general manager. By their honorable and public-spirited methods of dealing they have built up a large and constantly increasing business.

CLARENCE A. GREEN.

him at the head of the largest frater. Operates Three Barber Shops and All Are Union.

Every man who does not shave himself is a seeker after cleanliness and efficiency of service in the barber shop he patronizes. This he can find in the ing orders: Modern Woodmen of highest degree in the barber shops conducted by Mr. C. A. Green, the Mogul, located at Twelfth and O streets, the Palace, located at 109 North Eleventh street, and the Richards, 120 North

Eleventh street. At either of these shops you will find the highest perfection in service and equipment and the barbers in attendance are skilled and capable tonsorial artists. Mr. Green is a gentleman who is thoroughly posted on all the modern improvements for his business and keeps abreast of the times. His business has been built up from a three-chair shop manned by himself department, and of the results which and is still increasing. This is a fitting tribute to his uniform courtesy and the fact that he has given the highest degree of efficiency in his service. Mr. Green is a good friend of organized labor, and you should support and co-operate with him.

NEW LYRIC THEATRE.

A Deservedly Popular and Attractive

Amusement Resort. The new Lyric theatre under its present new management has put before the public high class vaudeville for ladies and children. They are giving at the house four shows daily and the crowded houses which they draw at each performance is an evidence of the way they are suiting the public. They are members of the largest vaudeville circuit in the world, and in that way have the leading performers on the stage to present to their Lincoln audiences. They pay particular attention to the selection of the acts presented and everything bresented on the stage of the New Lyric Theatre is done with the idea of catering to the taste of the technical knowledge and wide experi- ladies and children. An hour spent at the New Lyric Theatre is time and

ELECTRIC AND

GAS FIXTURES

Electric Supplies, electric wiring, electric motors. Contracts for electric repairing. Contracts for all kinds of interior electric repairing done by

ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT CO.

H. C. MARRINER, Mgr., 127 No. 12th Street

W. A. DOGGETT

114 So. 12th Street

Dealer in Sewing Machines, Supplies and Attachments, Oil and Needles.' - Sewing Machines Sold and Rented - -