Electrical Workers are still fighting the Bell Telephone company in the east. Six hundred men, including 75 non-unionists, walked out at Philadelphia, Camden, Trenton and Wilmington.

The Pile Drivers' union of Pittsburg bids fair to rival the famous local in Chicago in point of numbers. There is more pile driving done in the Pittsburg district than in any other in the United States.

William Haywood, in jail at Boise, Idaho, charged with murder, has accepted the socialistic nomination as candidate for governor. It is evident that Mr. Haywood will be compelled to conduct his campaign through the bars, as the powers that be will not admit him to ball nor allow him an early trial.

State Labor Commissioner Sherman of New York, in his report against unrestricted immigration, says: "Recent revelations of the conditions in meat packing industry have served to emphasize the fact that cheap labor and brutalized conditions are found side by side, and the further fact that a fair wage, as understood in this country, will bring into any occupation otherwise unattractive a class of intelligent, clean and efficient workmen, who will not tolerate unsanitary conditions."

A non-union band from Detroit was the cause of the defeat of Supreme Secretary Kane, of the Knights of St. John, for re-election. When the line of parade was formed at Buffalo, where a convention was being held the union bands refused to move until the non-union band was cut out of the line.

Mr. Kane was compelled to inform the Detroit band of the dilemma and it is said the Detroiters took revenge by plugging for his opponent.

Provisions were made at the convention of the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers' Association in Cleveland last week looking toward consolidation with the Cutters and Flatteners' Association, which is strong in the Pittsburg district. A RANK FRAUD.
The billboards of Lincoln are plastered with huge posters advertising a brand of chewing tobacco known as "Union Leader." The name is calculated to deceive, for the tobacco is "scab" of the worst description. The name is a lie, and the men who manufacture the tobacco know it to be a lie. If union labor had representation in the legislatures of the various states this sort of thing would be made a crime.
