CENTRAL LABOR UNION.

Will Meet Tuesday Night and Inaugurate Labor Fair Plans.

The Central Labor Union will meet Tuesday evening, and it is almost imperative that every accredited delegate be present to take part in the proceedings. A matter of great importance to the trades and labor unions of Lincoln will come up for consideration. It is the question of committing the Central Labor Union to the proposition to hold a great "Labor Fair" in Lincoln some time between now and Christmas. This is not a matter to be lightly considered. It deserves the best attention and thought of every delegate to the body.

Other matters of importance will also come up for discussion. Among them will be the matter of electing a delegate to the national convention at Minneapolis. A delegate should by all means be sent, with instructions to devote his time to securing the 1907 convention for Lincoln. An honorary delegate will be prepared to show the central body how it can be done. A few days ago the editor of The Wage-worker wrote Secretary Whitten of the Commercial Club, asking him if his organization would co-operate with the Central Labor Union in trying to secure the 1907 convention of the American Federation of Labor. The reply received was more than encouraging, the secretary pledging himself to take an active personal interest in the work. In addition to this Secretary Whitten made a personal call at The Wage-worker office and assured the editor that the Commercial Club was willing to back the central body to the limit.

This is a matter that should receive close attention. The national convention meets at Minneapolis on November 12.

WOMAN'S LABEL LEAGUE.

Engaged in Active Missionary Work for the Label Now.

The Woman's Union Label League is not making a great deal of noise these cool October days and nights, but the membership is doing some almighty effective work for the label. During the past two or three weeks a committee from the League has been visiting the various unions and urging a more insistent demand for labeled goods. They have been received gladly everywhere and given a close hearing. That their visits are productive of good results is beyond question.

It is a deplorable fact that the union men of the city have not taken a more active interest in the work of the Label League. Its membership is distressingly small in comparison with the number of wives of union men in the city. Instead of a membership of twenty or thirty it should have a membership of a thousand. The League will meet Monday evening, and an unusually large attendance should be recorded.

few evenings ago, and the affair was a great success from every point of view. Mr. Rudge, in the course of his remarks, urged the buyers to give the preference to Lincoln made goods whenever possible, even if the price should happen to be a little higher. This is sound business sense, and should be the policy of every Lincolnite. Mr. Rudge declared that he was becoming a crank on the subject of patronizing home industry, and as an example of his determination to follow the policy said he always demanded a Lincoln made cigar, and would inquire until he got one.

Now let every Lincoln man, whether merchant, professional man or workingman adopt the same policy. Lincoln made goods for Lincoln made wages—if the wages are fair—ought to be a civic battlecry. But no sweat shop or "scab" goods go in this crusade.

THE LYRIC.

The "theatre beautiful" is putting on some excellent bills these days, and the attractions, coupled with the elegance and coziness of the theatre, result in crowded houses at every performance. The Lyric is "making good" with the people and as a result the box office is a busy scene three times a day.
