

OUR GREATEST Jan'y Clearing Sale!

We've had some big ones, but the one now under way is a Record Breaker. There are many reasons for this. The people know that our promises are always worth par. They know the Armstrong quality and the Armstrong price.

HOUSE - CLEANING - TIME!

The good housewife cleans house---has "housecleaning"---every year. So do we. We are now cleaning house---getting rid of things to make room for the new goods we ordered for Spring and Summer. You get the benefit. During the present sale everything in the way of clothing that we handle---and we handle more than any other store between the Mississippi river and the Rocky Mountains---is included in this sale, dress suits and uniforms excepted. Ponder over these items, and let the prices do our arguing for us.

WANT CIGARMAKERS.

Lincoln Manufacturers Woefully Short On Men at This Time.

The Workworker's labor exchanges are requested to make note of the fact that twenty-five union cigarmakers are needed in Lincoln right now. Seelenfreund sent a man to Denver to secure additional men, but failed. He is going to make a big increase in his output of high grade goods, and wants men—wants 'em badly, too. Other manufacturers are equally short of help, and they are looking for men. Good jobs for good cigarmakers are plentiful in Lincoln now.

The local union has elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

President—E. W. Brooks.

Vice-president—R. R. Speechley.

Financial and corresponding secretary—T. W. Evans.

Treasurer—Ed. Kohout.

Recording secretary—A. Herminghaus.

Trustees—Ed. Kokesch, C. Klusman, Ed. Kinsman.

Delegates C. L. U.—T. W. Evans, S. J. Ross and E. W. Brooks.

The local is in a flourishing condition and the boys are all feeling good over the outlook.

TREASURER COX DENIES.

It was reported to the allied trades council that City Treasurer Cox had ordered a lot of tax receipts from the only "rat" printery in the city in violation of a resolution adopted by the city council. Treasurer Cox denies the statement emphatically. He says the receipts bearing the "rat" imprint were printed considerably more than a year ago, and that he has not given any work to a "rat" shop since then. "I got my last tax receipts at North's," said Mr. Cox, "and it was the best work of the kind I ever had. I'm sending all my work to union shops, and you forget it."

CAPITAL AUXILIARY.

Preparing to Celebrate Fourth Anniversary in Proper Style.

Capital Auxiliary No. 11 to Typographical Union No. 209, will celebrate its fourth anniversary on January 23d. For four years this splendid organization of faithful union women has been doing a good work in the cause of unionism, and the printer who does not recognize the value of the Auxiliary's services needs something for his head.

The Auxiliary will celebrate the anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bustard, and all union printers and union printers' wives are cordially invited to be present. There will be a royal good time. That is assured, for Capital Auxiliary has made a record as a host. The printers should seize upon this occasion to show their appreciation of the good work the members of Capital Auxiliary are doing.

Capital Auxiliary No. 11 to Lincoln Typographical Union No. 209 will meet with Mrs. Fred Irlinger, 1539 D street, Friday, January 18, at 2:30 p. m. A good attendance is desired.

"OF SUCH IS THE KINGDOM."

Every father and every mother, and every child able to read, should read Richard L. Metcalfe's new book, "Of Such Is the Kingdom, and Other Stories from Life." It is full of those little heart interest stories that entertain while appealing to the best there is in the human heart. Mr. Metcalfe, who is recognized as one of the leading newspaper men of the country, has written these stories without any attempt at "fine writin'," but set them down just as they came from his own big heart, and the plain morals of the stories are not made obtrusive. Rather is the reader left to draw them for himself. But the busy man, the workman or the housewife—the father and the mother—can take this volume, and for an hour or two revel in memories of the old, old days, and lay the book aside with a clearer idea of duty. Our word for it, if you read this book you will thank us for calling your attention to it.

SMASHED A FINGER.

C. B. Righter has worked around a "Merg" so long that he thought he had 'em tamed so they would eat right out of his hand. This was a mistake. He merely had 'em so they would eat his hand. At any rate one of his "Mergs" balked the other day and then bit a chunk out of the second finger on his right hand. It was a bad bite, too, and Charley has been wearing the digit in antiseptic cotton ever since.

UNFAIR.

The Ladies' Home Journal and the Saturday Evening Post are now making appeals for renewal of subscriptions. The Journal and the Post are both printed in the unfair shop of the Curtis Publishing Co., Philadelphia. The circular appeal is also the result of "rat" labor. The union man who subscribes for either of these publications is doing himself and the whole body of organized labor an injury. It is illegal to boycott, but there is no law compelling you to patronize your industrial enemies.

Count Andrásy, minister of the Interior, declared recently in the diet that he had resolved to close all the Cunaard steamship agencies in Hungary because they were encouraging immigration to America.
