A GREAT EXPOSITION.

Lincoln People Afforded Privilege of Seeing Great Inventions.

The Gas and Electric Exposition which is to be held at the Auditorium April 22-27 is going to be a great educational institution as well as a show of curious things. In the field of gas and electric lighting about everything that is in practical use will be shown not only in the general lighting of the building but in the demonstration booths of the makers who will have expert representatives here to show the merits of their goods. Illustrated signs are being largely installed in this city, and the exhibition by the sign makers will be one of the best ever made anywhere. The latest thing in tungsten and tantalum lamps will be exhibited, as well as flaming arcs.

In the industrial and household lines of electric appliances there will be a display to interest every merchant manufacturer, mechanic and house keeper in the city. A list of these would read like a dealer's catalogue.

In the gas exhibit there will be a equally wide range of appliances, but the one of greatest interest to the ladies will be the exhibition of ranges and brightened.—Iowa Unionist. and kitchen conveniences. Mrs. E. O Hiller, who is one of the most noted lecturers and demonstrators in the United States, has been engaged and List of Those Who Employ Union Carher lectures will be a feature of the exposition. No charge will be made to anybody for admission to the exposition or Mrs. Hiller's lectures. The Lincoln Gas and Electric Co. has made arrangements for the free entertain ment and instruction of all who attend and the business men of Lincoln have given their hearty aid to the enterprise so that its success is assured. The date is less than a month away. Let us all boost for the only exposition where gas and electricity are to be shown at work side by side.

QUIETLY KILLED.

Proposed Garnishee Law Quietly Laid Away in The Tombs.

Every time the legislature meets an effort is made to amend the garnishee laws in the interests of men who would make the state a collection agency for bad debts. Up to date every attempt has been a failure. I'wo years ago the advocates of a garnishee law managed to push such a bill through the legislature, but Governor Mickey killed it with his little veto.

This year the advocates of a gar nishee law took a new tack. Instead of asking the privilege of garnisheeing a man's wages they merely asked the privilege of garnisheeing 10 per cent Organized labor is not a field, but a this looked to be all right, but when force.
