LABOR DECALOGUE.

I.
Thou shalt join a union of thy craft, and have no other unions before it.

II.
The meetings thereof shalt thou attend and pay thy tithes with regularity. Thou shalt not attribute unholy purposes to thy brother in union. Beware of the fact that, though thou be honest, "there are others."

III.
"Thou shalt not take thy neighbor's job."

IV.
Thou shalt not labor more than eight hours for one day's work, nor on the Sabbath nor on any of the holy days (holidays).

V.
Thou shalt not hire out thy offspring of tender years. "Poverty and instruction to his children."

VI.
Clothe not the wife of thy bosom in mean apparel, lest it be a testimony against thee.

VII.
Thou shalt not live in a hovel, nor feed on the husk that the swine doth eat. Take thou not alms from the unrighteous, lest it bemean thee.

VIII.
Honor the female sex, for on this rock rests the welfare of man.

IX.
Waste not thy life in the chase after the ethereal, lest the substance be filched from thee. The Lord helps those who help themselves. Thou helpest thyself best by helping thy brother workers in the union of labor.

X.
Thy brother's welfare is thy concern; therefore shalt thou have a care for him and his. Associate thyself with thy brother worker, that thy pay may be heightened, thy hours of labor shortened and the days of thy life and the lives of all may be lengthened and brightened.—Iowa Unionist.

WAR ON THE INDEPENDENTS

Iowa Grain Dealers' Association intends to Fight.

The Iowa Grain Dealers' association in convention at Des Moines, Iowa, gave notice of a war to a finish on farmers' co-operative elevator concerns throughout Iowa. There has been had feeling between what is known as the "regular" elevator men and those who have maintained independent elevators, but now the contest has reached a crucial point. It is probable that the first step to be taken against co-operatives is to secure their prosecution for alleged violations of the new Stillman law, an Iowa statute which prohibits combinations and working agreements among elevator men for the control of prices and other features of the grain business.

Wife-Slayer Sentenced.

Charles Murray, who shot and killed his wife, Nellie Murray, October 3, 1906, because she refused to return home with him, was sentenced to twenty-five years in the penitentiary.
