

GENERAL MENTION.

Bits of Labor News Gathered Chiefly With the Scissors.

Telegraph operators on Kansas City Southern railway have been granted an increase of $5 a month. This makes the second increase since January 1.

Cornelius P. Shea, of Boston, former international president of the Teamsters' International Union, denies that he is heading a movement to organize a new organization.

During the past year the Photo-Engravers' Union has gained 600 members, and the total membership is now 3,900, while the financial strength has increased proportionately.

There are about 6,000 men in the Illinois Steel Company's plant in Chicago, who depend upon 300 skilled men in the rail, plate and converting departments. Their wages range from $6 to $30 a day, the latter figure being for the men who tell when the blast of the furnaces is ready for pouring. There are at least 1,000 helpers in these departments, who work for less than $2 a day.

There are but 200 men now employed in the yards of the Chicago Shipbuilding Co. The officials refuse to either affirm or deny the report that the yard is to be entirely abandoned.

Seventy-five moulders and core-makers employed at the Hill Clutch Co., Cleveland, O., went on strike because that concern had been doing work for a non-union Dayton firm.

THE WORLD'S WORKERS.

News of The Tollers in Many Lands and Climes.

Victoria, Australia, has 4,766 factories, employing 67,545 persons.

Two thousand unemployed have petitioned the Transvaal Government to send them back to England.

Adelaide, Australia, flour-mill employes have formed a strong union and requested Premier Price to establish a wages board for the trade.

In Germany there are 33 Government labor colonies, and one in the United Kingdom, for the reception and employment of workless tollers.

In the Australian cities of Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide and Perth, there is a marked activity in union circles. New unions are rapidly springing up, and the ranks of the older ones are increasing in number.

The negotiations between the jewelry manufacturers and the skilled workmen at Paris, France, have failed. It is announced that 110 employes have decided to dismiss their employes and will declare a lockout.

University extension lectures are now delivered at meetings of the Trades and Labor Council of Sydney, Australia, by professors of the university, who at the same time receive instructions as to objects of the labor movement.

A general strike to compel the enactment of Universal Suffrage laws began in Hungary on October 10. In 164 towns no work is going on and no food can be bought anywhere, every hotel, coffee house and restaurant being closed by the police.

A correspondent of a Charter Towers (Queensland) newspaper states that in the Ingham district sugar farmers employ aboriginals at from 1s to 10s per week, and in one mill in the district Japs and other colored aliens are working at almost every trade, from fitters and carpenters to blacksmiths.

The passive resistance strike at Vienna, Austria, is extending to the freight traffic divisions in Moravia. The municipal authorities are concerned regarding the provisioning of the city, and shipments of meat, fruit and vegetables have already fallen out. Thousands of workers are now earning only 40 cents a day.

Keir Hardie's bill to provide work for the unemployed, recently introduced in the House of Commons by Ramsay MacDonald, proposes that local authorities must devise schemes for providing work, the necessary funds to come out of local rates, and, where extreme distress arises, Parliament to vote money to meet the difficulty.

In consequence of 1,500 British seabs being imported by the Antwerp Shipowners' Association to take the place of the local wharf laborers striking for better conditions, Labor Member Crooks has introduced a new bill in the British House of Commons to apply the penalties of the Foreign Epistment Act to British workmen who take the places of workmen on strike abroad.

In the Victorian Assembly recently a motion of adjournment was moved in order to bring before Parliament the brutal treatment meted out to coal miners at Oultrim and Jumbunna. M. L. A. Lemmon, who moved the motion, urged that the public should boycott every ounce of coal supplied by the companies at the places, in consequence of the unfair treatment of the men.

THE BOOKBINDERS.

Five Per Cent Assessment Not Needed and Was Called Off.

The proposition to assess the membership of the Bookbinders' Union 5 per cent a week has been found unnecessary. When the international officials were preparing for the eight-hour campaign they imagined they would need a bundle of money as big as a piano leg, so they asked for a 5 per cent assessment. Then came the strike, but so many of the employers yielded gracefully that the rest of the campaign can be waged on the money on hand and coming in as regular dues. President Glocking reported on October 12 that there were 15,000 members working eight hours and 1,600 on strike. Since then a number of big shops have come in line, and the strike roll is now well under the 750 mark. The bookbinders have made a winning.

The Omaha strikers had a picnic one day last week, and took to the woods. They had a bully time, fishing, nutting and framing up schemes to make the unfair employers walk the floor o' nights.

The blindery girls in Omaha struck, and Tommy Klopp and Frank Johnson haven't been talking about anything but "ingratitude" since.

The international now includes 176 locals, two having been organized since the strike for the eight-hour day.

GOOD BUSINESS SENSE.

It Should Appeal to Lincoln Manufacturers of Shirts and Overalls.

Here is a plain statement of fact that should appeal to the manager of the Lincoln Overall and Shirt Co., and the manager of the Inter-Ocean Shirt Co.

The man who is not interested in organized labor and who knows nothing about union labels, will buy a union labeled shirt or overall just as quickly as he will the unlabeled garment. The loyal union man, or the opponent of sweat shop labor will not buy the garment unless it has the label.

The unlabeled garment therefore appeals to only a part of the buying public. The labeled garment appeals to both union and non-unionists.

Now why not make garments that you can sell to all classes of men instead of to only part of them?

Just think this over a little while. Perhaps the truth will percolate if you give it a good fair chance. If Mr. Jones will put the label on his goods, and if the manager of the Inter-Ocean factory will do the same, The Wageworker and 3,000 union men will proceed to boost for them.

Now if that sort of boosting is worth having, you gentlemen know how you may secure it.

GIVEN A WATCH.

Fireman H. Lux of the Burlington is proudly wearing a handsome gold watch given him last week by his fellow employes on the Burlington.

It was in recognition of his heroism in risking his life to save that of a toddling little girl who got in the road of the engine on which Lux was firing.

The incident happened this side of Seward a few weeks ago. The little girl got on the track and Lux saw that the train could not be stopped in time. He crawled out along the running board, and down upon the pilot.

At just the right instant he threw himself forward and to one side, grabbed the little one and both rolled off together and into safety. A single slip and Lux and the little girl would both have been ground beneath the wheels. Here's hoping that Lux will live a thousand years, and keep the watch every day of the time.

CARPENTERS' REFERENDUM.

The vote of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners for the national presidency, which is by referendum, will be taken all over the country during the third week in November, the returns to be in the national headquarters in Indianapolis on the third week in December.

Men's Fall and Winter Styles That Excel and Why

THE DESIGNERS who plan Armstrong Clothes are the highest priced men in the trade. They earn their salaries because they excel in artistic skill and have the genius to originate; and because they possess these talents they are chosen to design our Men's Clothing. Every Suit coming here must have smartness, originality and that indefinable something which gives our Clothing an air so much different from the great mass of men's attire to be found elsewhere.
