FRED SCHMIDT and BRO.

917-921 O ST. OPPOSITE CITY HALL

charge of the largest printing establishment in the world—the "G. P. O." Public Printer Leech is a legal resident of Bloomington, Ill., and from 1889 to 1901 worked in the government printing office at Washington, serving successively as proofreader, compositor and foreman of a division. He is a member of the International Typographical Union and even more is a thorough unionist. There is no doubt of his ability to manage the big shop with credit to himself and the great organization of which he is a member, and to the satisfaction of those who pay the bills.

SYMPATHETIC STRIKE ILLEGAL.

In a decision handed down April 7 the Massachusetts supreme court declares that sympathetic strikes for the purpose of preventing an employer from conducting an "open shop" are illegal.

THREE GOOD COLD PUDDINGS

Pineapple, Amber and Potato, Cooked in Paste-Lined Plates.

One pineapple grated, its weight in granulated sugar, half its weight in butter, five eggs, the whites beaten to a stiff froth, one cup of cream. Cream the butter and beat it with the sugar and yolks until very light. Add the cream, the pineapple and the whites of the eggs. Bake in pie plates lined with pastry. To be eaten cold.

Amber Pudding.—One pound of sugar, three ounces of butter, creamed; two lemons, juice and grated rind; six eggs. Stir part of the sugar in the butter, add the yolks, slightly beaten, the remainder of the sugar and the lemon; beat until light. Whisk the whites to a stiff froth and stir in lightly. Pour in pastry-lined pie plates and bake half an hour. To be eaten cold.

Potato Pudding.—Six eggs, the whites beaten to a stiff froth; one pound of potato, rubbed through a colander; one pound of sugar, one-quarter of a pound of butter, the grated rind and juice of one lemon. Let the hot potato fall from the colander on the butter and mix well; add the yolks and sugar, well beaten together, the lemon, and lastly stir in lightly the well-whipped whites. Put in paste-lined pie plates and bake. To be eaten cold.

RECIPE FOR COFFEE CAKE.

A Little Different from the Ordinary Breakfast Confection.

A delicious coffee cake is the following: Scald a pint of milk, then cool to luke-warm. Dissolve in it 1 1/2 yeast cakes, broken in small pieces. Add about 3/4 cups white flour and beat until thoroughly blended. Cover; let rise an hour and a half, then add one-half cupful each softened butter, lard and sugar. Unbeaten egg, a half teaspoonful salt and half a teaspoonful cinnamon. Add flour to enable you to knead well, then cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Set in ice box or cold place over night. In the morning turn out on to a well-floured board, roll into a long, rectangular piece, brush with melted butter and fold from the ends toward the center, making three layers. Slice off pieces about three-fourths of an inch wide; cover, and let rise until light. Take each piece, twist the ends in opposite directions, then bring them together at the top of the cake. Place in well-buttered pans; cover; let rise until light, then bake in a moderate oven about 20 minutes. When slightly cooled, glaze with confectioner's sugar moistened with hot milk or water.

Coffee Mousse.

Grind one-quarter of a pound of coffee, and drip enough boiling water through to make one teaspoonful of coffee. Let it run through the coffee slowly so as to become as strong as possible.

Add to the coffee the beaten yolks of two eggs and three ounces of sugar, put the mixture in a double boiler and stir with a wooden spoon until it thickens. This will require about five minutes.

Add one tablespoonful of gelatin, which has been previously dissolved in a wineglass of cold water. Strain the mixture and set aside to cool, but not to harden.

Beat one pint of whipped cream until stiff, add the coffee to it, whipping until it is thick and firm. As soon as thick put in a mold and pack in ice and rock salt.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION.

Getting Ready for Election and for Memorial Sunday Services.

Lincoln Typographical Union No. 299 met in regular session last Sunday afternoon, and considerable business was transacted in a very reasonable length of time. The silver service presented to the union by the Nebraska Press association was on exhibition, and was greatly admired. The hall committee reported all bills paid and a surplus of $38 to turn over to the union. In appreciation of the splendid services of Capital Auxiliary in making the ball a success and in other ways aiding the union, it was decided to turn this money over to the Auxiliary, less an amount sufficient to provide a chest for the silver service.

A committee composed of Mickel, Ingraham and Maupin was appointed to arrange for the proper observance of Memorial Sunday and report same at the May meeting.

"Ted" Righter, son of Charles B. Righter, was admitted to full membership, having completed his apprenticeship. He came into the hall accompanied by his father, who has been a member for almost as many years as the son is old.

The question of delegate was brought up and a resolution introduced to the effect that one delegate be elected and an assessment levied to pay expenses. The assessment will be voted on at the May meeting.

Ona Clarkin, well remembered by the old-timers of Lincoln, came in on the cushions last Monday and has been subbing on the night side of the Free Press. He has been south and west, and this is his first visit to Lincoln in several years. He worked on the Journal eighteen years ago.

Henry Bingaman has been wearing his throat in a sling for a week. He had to use an artificial voice for several days.

A bunch of the boys, captained by John Marshall, are figuring on going west, taking up some irrigated land and growing up with the country. Already some discussion concerning agricultural methods have been held. Marshall insists that corn should be hand-set and thin spaced between the kernels, while Bert Pentzer, who owns a Kinkead homestead, avers that he has had best results with machine-set crops.

Frank Smith, who went to Oklahoma City for his health, has established a list of suburban papers with Oklahoma City as headquarters, and seems to have struck it rich. He has four papers going and has three or four more about ready to launch.

Bert Pentzer spent a week or ten days on the homestead recently.

George Locker has been working on the night shift of the North machine for several nights.

SAME OLD NATURE.

Recently the pastor of an Indiana church joined the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. This so shocked his congregation that it immediately demanded his resignation. The members of that congregation seem to be made up of lineal descendants of a lot of people who lived in Palestine some 1900 year ago. They abused the Master because He ate with publicans and sinners, and some even called Him a glutton and a wine bibber. We opine that the Master and the Indiana minister have the best of it.

APPOINTS A UNION PRINTER.

John S. Leech Will Manage Uncle Sam's Big Print Shop.

On April 5 President Roosevelt appointed John S. Leech to the office of public printer, vice Stillings, who was allowed to resign after two years of flagrant mismanagement of the government printing office. Mr. Leech is now serving as public printer in the Philippine Islands, but will immediately go to Washington and assume
