

HOW MUCH FOR QUALITY?

When buying clothing in which you wish to look well dressed in, month after month, is it not quality the main feature to be considered?

"Common" clothing is expensive at any price. It lacks character. This is only obtained in makes known not only to the merchant but his customer as well. This clothing is not simply made—it is built for service—and when it bears the union label you have the further assurance that it is made by union tailors, under union conditions and for union men.

At moderate prices we have a line of clothing that will fill every requirement of the union man.

THE CARPENTERS.

Listen to Able Address on "Law Enforcement" by Mr. Williams.

T. F. A. Williams, assistant city attorney, addressed the union carpenters of Lincoln last Tuesday evening. Mr. Williams took for his subject "Law Enforcement," and made an address that was listened to with deep interest. It is to be regretted that the members did not turn out in greater force.

The carpenters turned out the largest number to hear Miss Haley's address last week. There were five carpenters present, and that is just about 2 per cent of the total membership of the local. And that is 1 per cent more than the printers turned out and 2 per cent more than about half the unions.

Carpenters in New South Wales, Australia, are paid 30 cents an hour. The desire of the 5,000 house carpenters and joiners affiliated with the Carpenters' District Council of Greater Boston, for an increase in wages to fifty cents an hour will not be realized this year.

Some of the branches of the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners in England are advocating an amalgamation with the Associated Shipwrights, chiefly those in the ship building centers.

In the past 25 years $2,000,000 was spent by the local unions of carpenters for benefits, and the sum of $747,973.19 was appropriated by the general office for strike and lockout purposes. This is fully $1,681,469.55 expended for benevolent and charitable purposes.

OBERLIES.

Oberlies. Of course you know him. He's the man who sells good lumber goods—the not a knot kind. He's asking union men for their trade, and asking it through the columns of The Wagerworker. This is one of the reasons why he ought to get it. Other reasons are, good lumber goods—the not a knot kind—at prices that will tickle your mind and satisfy your purse. "Think of lumber, think of Oberlies." Read his ad, and buy his lumber.
