LARKIN SOAP—NIT!

Unionists Should Pass Up "Clubs" and Patronize Local Merchants.

The attention of local merchants is called to the fact that organized labor is doing its part in the "home patronage" game. Just now the Typographical Union is trying to block the game of the unfair Larkin Soap Co. of Buffalo, N. Y. This company, to induce women and children to become agents for its products, is offering a premium for every $10 worth of goods sold. This is working to the detriment of local merchants who are fair to organized labor, and who do not employ children in the sale of their goods.

If local merchants will deal fairly with organized labor they will receive the hearty support of organized labor.

STELZLE A SQUARE MAN.

Refuses to Contribute Articles to An Unfair Magazine.

Because the Delineator is printed by non-union printers, Rev. Charles Stelzle, superintendent of the Presbyterian Department of Church and Labor, has refused to write a series of five articles for that paper. This action was taken by him on Monday when he learned that the Butterick Company was being fought by organized labor.

The following is a copy of the letter sent to the company, which is self-explanatory:

"I regret very much that I must decline to write the articles for the Delineator, the Designer and the New Idea, for which you asked me. As you no doubt know, organized labor has, for a long time, been trying to secure fair conditions in the Butterick plant, but without success. As a member of a labor union and believing very thoroughly in the basic principles upon which the trades union is organized, I cannot consistently aid the Butterick Company by becoming a contributor to its magazines, small as that help might be. It was not until a day or so ago that I was reminded of the position of the Butterick Company in the controversy which is on between the Typographical Union and some employers.

"Let me say, in justice to myself, that I have not talked this over with my friends, the trades unionists. They are not aware that you have asked me write these articles.

"I want to thank you for the very courteous treatment which you have accorded me in talking over the writing of the stories, and I want to assure you that there is not the slightest of personal feeling toward you in this matter. It is purely a matter of principle with reference to my attitude towards the trades union and the things for which it stands.

"Will you kindly return the two articles which I sent you?

"Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) "CHARLES STELZLE."

EGG-O-SEE

Toasted Wheat Flakes

The Ideal Summer Food

Don't worry about the high price of meat. It's merely common sense not to eat heavy, greasy meats on these hot summer days. Eat EGG-O-SEE, toasted whole wheat flakes. EGG-O-SEE is better than the best meat—better to the taste and more nourishing. It's easy to digest, sustaining and cooling. Much cheaper.
