HANNAHAN IS DEPOSED.

Veteran Grand Chief of Firemen and Enginemen Steps Down.

John J. Hannahan is no longer grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

For twenty-three years he has been an official of the Brotherhood, and for the six years last past has been grand chief. The Columbus convention last week refused to elect him and selected W. S. Carter to succeed him.
In view of Hannahan's long service to the Brotherhood it is believed that the organization will provide him with a position

A silly story has been started purporting to give the reason for Hannahan's retirement. The story is a slander on the Brotherhood. It is to the effect that Hannahan reached San Francisco on his wedding tour immediately after the earthquake and fire.
At Oakland he was visited by a committee of employes of the Southern Pacific railroad, which requested him to order a strike, as they had been unable to secure an advance in wages as asked for. Hannahan refused the request, giving as his reason that the road had abandoned the carrying of freight and was then engaged in taking refugees out of the state. The committee insisted on a strike, but Hannahan was obdurate and clung to his decision. This started the feeling against him, which, however, was not strong enough to oust him at the last convention in Milwaukee. At the present convention charges of general unfitness for the position of grand master were made against him, resulting in his retirement. To charge the big-hearted fireman and engine-man with being willing to strike at such a time is a cruel slander. The logical reason for Hannahan's retirement would seem to be that his long official service served to put him out of touch with the men engaged in active work.

IS PICKETING JUSTIFIED?

Judge Sanborn's Decision So Construed by Chicago Unionists

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The United States circuit court of appeals' decision today modifying Judge Sanborn's injunction against the striking molders of the Allis-Chalmers plant at Milwaukee is construed by the unions tonight to mean that peaceful picketing may be lawfully used. The sustaining of the ruling of the lower court in every particular except in the clause, "cannot use means other than peaceable and without intimidation," is regarded by lawyers as strengthening the general rule of injunctions, but labor leaders think the upper court has given approval to peaceable boycotts and picketing. The decision will not change the effect of any strike, since the labor trouble at that plant had ended long before the case had reached the court.

BROTHER BEALL'S SYMPOSIUM.

Will Preach on "Qualifications of Him Who Would Be President."

Rev. Byron Beall has prepared a symposium on the subject, "Qualifications Demanded by the Times of Him Who Would Be President of This Republic," and will deliver it from the pulpit of the Second Presbyterian church, Twenty-sixth and P streets, tomorrow (Sunday) evening. Laboring men of all crafts are especially invited to attend as the symposium is made up in part of suggestions from workingmen. The sermon will give special consideration to the workers.

This is sure to be interesting and helpful, and it is to be hoped that Rev. Mr. Beall will find many union men in his congregation.
