

NOW FOR A JOLLY CHRISTMAS!

We've done our part to help you; we've filled our store with good things, both useful and pretty. And above all things else the gifts you make should be useful. The gifts you receive---wouldn't you prefer that they be useful instead of merely ornamental? Your friends will prefer to receive the same kind. Look over our suggestions for the week. You'll find what you want.

CLOAKROOM

The shopping time before Xmas is getting short. You will have to hurry if you want to have good selection. This department has an array of fashionable apparel which will make worthy gifts. The special cut prices will be helpful in securing better values.

UNFAIR PUBLICATIONS.

A Handy List That Good Unionists Should Carry About.

Trade unionists and their friends should remember that they are not obliged to purchase the publications contained in the following list. They are produced under non-union conditions, the shorter workday being refused their union printers:

The Reliable Poultry Journal, Quincy, Illinois.

All works of the Werner Company, of Akron, Ohio.

The Saturday Evening Post and Ladies' Home Journal, the product of the Curtis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia.

All of the Butterick patterns and publications are produced by non-union labor.

Century Magazine, Bookman, Smart Set, St. Nicholas, World's Work, Black Cat, Monthly Magazine, Men and Women, the Housekeeper, and Lippincott's Magazine.

Good Housekeeping, Farm and Home, Orange Judd Farmer, New England Homestead, American Agriculturist and Current Events, printed by the Phelps Publishing Company, of Springfield, Mass.

A RAY OF SUNSHINE.

Ohio Court Gives One Decision in Favor of the Employee.

A decision of the supreme court of the District of Columbia that an employe may repudiate a contract which assumes to barter away his right to recovery under the employers' liability acts has an important bearing on the proposed compensation acts which seek to establish a fixed rate of responsibility on the part of employers. "Contracts of indemnity insurance and of relief associations," says the court, "are an attempt on the part of employers to restrict their common law liability." The supposition is that the employe assents to the contract under the stress of the situation by reason of his necessity to secure employment. Under this decision compensation acts would not restrict the freedom of the employe to recover through the process of the courts if he was not satisfied with the award made to him under the rate established by law.—Duluth Labor World.

SAMUELS IS ALL RIGHT.

Among the many staunch friends of union labor in Lincoln is Mr. Henry Samuels, the well known clothier doing business on P street. Mr. Samuels is no stranger to Lincoln wage-earners as he has lived here the past twenty years and has pinned his faith to the future of the town. He has made quite a little money and placed it wisely in Lincoln real estate and does a thriving business in which his motto is "small profits"—ever with the interests of the workingman at heart. Mr. Samuels tells a Wage-worker man that he proposes to handle every "home product" he can possibly procure for his trade and is especially partial to union made goods. All his printing and dealings are with union men and his ad in this issue of The Wage-worker appeals especially to the wage-earners who desire to save money. Read it.

By Insisting Upon Purchasing Union Stamp Shoes

You help better shoemaking conditions. You get better shoes for the money. You help your own Labor Proposition. You abolish Child Labor.

DO NOT BE MISLED

By Retailers who say: "This shoe does not bear the stamp, but it is made under Union Conditions." THIS IS FALSE. No shoe is union made unless it bears the Union Stamp.
