TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION.

All Arrangements Made for the Twenty-Sixth Annual Ball.

The special meeting of Lincoln Typographical Union last Sunday afternoon was largely attended, and the work performed was to the entire satisfaction of the union. The matter in hand was discussed in committee of the whole, after which the union formerly ratified the decision of the committee. Several special committees were appointed to take charge of the various subjects in hand.

The ball committee made partial report. The ball will be held on February 17, at Fraternity hall, and Quick's orchestra will furnish the music.
The union's anniversary is February 25, but the date of celebration was moved forward on account of inability to secure a hall on the anniversary date. The Auxiliary will have charge of the refreshments and the reception, and will lend every assistance in making the ball a greater success than ever. The state officials and members of the legislature will be the especially invited guests of the union on the occasion of the annual ball.
It will be the effort of the joint committee to make the twenty-sixth annual ball the greatest social event in the union's history, and if it succeeds —as it surely will—it will be "going some."

The Auxiliary is preparing to celebrate its anniversary in fitting style, and it deserves the hearty co-operation of the union men.

CAPITAL AUXILIARY.

Printers' Helpmates Preparing to Celebrate Anniversary.

Thursday, January 21, is the anniversary of the organization of Capital Auxiliary No. 11, to Typographical Union No. 209, but owing to circumstances the celebration of the anniversary will be held on January 22.
Thursday night is a bad night for a lot of the printermen to get off, so the women will celebrate on Friday. The celebration will take the form of a picnic supper and will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hebbard, Fifteenth and Washington.

The Auxiliary met for the first time in 1909 last Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. E. A. King. The meeting was well attended and a pleasant afternoon enjoyed. The newly elected officers were installed.

Mrs. Hoffmeister has been on the sick list for some time. Mrs. Iringer, who has been quite sick, is reported to be improving at a gratifying rate.

The committee appointed to act with the Typographical Union's ball committee reported progress. It was expected that tickets would be ready for distribution at the last meeting, but the women were disappointed.
The tickets will be ready by the first of the week.

Mrs. Bustard was warmly welcomed back to her old place in the organization. Mr. and Mrs. Bustard expect to go housekeeping soon at Twenty-ninth and N streets. Mr. Bustard has been on the sick list for several days.

THE CIGARMAKERS.

Eiect Officers to Manage Affairs for the Ensuing Term.

The Cigarmakers' Union has elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

President, J. Herminghaus.
Vice-President, S. J. Ross.
Treasurer, W. T. Linden.
Recording Secretary, E. W. Brooks.
Sargent-at-Arms, C. Smith.
Financial and Corresponding Secretary, T. W. Evans.
Trustees, Messrs. Leizer, McMahon, and Parker.
Auditors, Messrs. Jensen, Kupler, and Erhart.

Business has been pretty slack of late, but work is improving. Several shops have put on men who were laid off some time ago, but there are plenty of men to handle all the work in sight.

THE MUSICIANS.

Will Make Their Annual Ball the Great Event of the Season.

Lincoln Musicians' Protective Union No. 463 expects to give all the union pointers on annual balls when it pulls off its second annual ball on February 2. Every union musician in the city has been notified not to make engagements for February 2, and to be on hand when the grand march is announced. The second annual ball of the union will be held at the Auditorium, which will be handsomely decorated for the occasion. Carl Steckelberg will be conductor of the concert band of twenty-five or more pieces which will entertain the guests until the time arrives for calling the grand march. The dance music will be furnished by an orchestra of 25 pieces. Two orchestras of this size will be used, the first playing until 11 o'clock and the other one until the completion of the program. This plain. Ever notice what an optimistic bunch we are? You never hear of us putting up a 'holler.' When something goes wrong we just correct it, and we don't stub our toes twice on the same nail. Just tell our fellow unionists that we are doing our little best to hold up our end of the union game. Next!

By the way, do you always make sure that the union shop card is in plain sight when you enter a strange barber shop to get a shave or a haircut? If it is a union shop you will not have to look long to see the proper credentials.

The International Union has a right to feel proud of its financial condition. It has over $150,000 in the strongbox, and knows it can get plenty more if the need arises.

One might naturally conclude from all the safety razor advertising one sees in the magazines that the barber would soon be out of business so far as shaving is concerned. But it only seems to make more barbers, just like the linotype machine made more printers. Funny, but it always works that way.

SACRIFICING THE GIRLS.

How Modern Industrialism Destroys Them Mentally and Physically.

In a Pittsburg foundry girls are employed to make simple cores for castings. A quick girl can make 10,000 a day, for which she receives $1. According to the investigator who reported to Charities on "Pittsburg Women in the Metal Trades," this work is carried on in clouds of drifting dust. As the cores are finished they are set on trays, which the women carry across the room to the ovens. A loaded tray weighs from ten to twenty-five pounds. In an electrical factory in East Pittsburg 650 women are employed on piecework in winding coils for armatures. The fastest make $1.47 a day. The work is so taxing that the employees give out readily. Only twenty-five have been in the factory four years. Three screw and bolt works in the same city employ 543 women. A bolt trimmer—to use one class of labor as an illustration—stands for ten hours before a machine. She feeds bolts to the mechanism at two second intervals—10,000 a day—for a wage of 96 cents.

Bad conditions for these women to work under, and likely to have an indirect effect in weakened and stunned children.

Doubtless the employers feel that they are not to blame, that they are forced by competition for cheap goods to hire cheap labor. If any one of them should hold out and refuse to use the methods of his competitors he would be forced to the wall. So it is up to organized society to take a hand and fix the rules of the game.
Conditions for the employment of women and children must be determined and enforced by the state.
Otherwise society is at the mercy of a demand for cheapness that sacrifices the future of the race.—Kansas City Star.

PROMINENT UNIONIST DEAD.

Former President of Stage Employees' Union Passes Over.

James Russell, for fifty-one years connected with the Boston theaters as stage mechanic, and formerly international president of both the Theatrical Mechanics' association and the Theatrical Stage Employees union, died of heart disease this week at the Boston City hospital after a brief illness. For forty-four years Mr. Russell was employed at the Boston theater, and since its establishment in 1901 he has been with the Majestic theater. He with three others formed the Theatrical Mechanics' association in Boston in 1882. He had been president of the Boston local of the Theatrical Stage Employees union the past seven years and represented the local at many of the international conventions. As a delegate to the national gatherings and once international president, his was a prominent part
