GOOD FOR DESSERT

DAINTY DISHES MADE FROM THE PINEAPPLE.

Pancakes from the Batter and the Fruit Are Something New—Splendid Sauce to Serve with Ice Cream.

Pineapple Pancakes.—Make a good batter, using a half pound sifted flour, three large eggs and a cupful of milk. Have ready a well-buttered sheet-iron frying-pan, and pour in about three tablespoonfuls of the batter. As soon as brown on one side reverse and brown. Take up carefully, put on a hot service plate and cover with pineapple preserves. Over this put a second cake, then more pineapples, and so on until all the batter has been used. When ready to put on the table cut in segments like a pie.

Pineapple Sherbet.—This is made from the grated canned pineapple. Add a pint of water to a pint of the pineapple and cook 15 minutes. Strain through cheesecloth, add a teaspoonful of gelatin that has been soaked in a quarter of a cupful of cold water, the juice of a large lemon and a cupful of sugar. Strain and free. Serve in glasses after the roast or before the game course at a heavy dinner as an aid to digestion. A bit of sliced pine can be put on top of each glass.

Pineapple Sauce to Serve with Ice Cream.—Put a cupful of pineapple juice in a cupful of granulated sugar and cook ten minutes. Add the well-beaten yolks of two eggs and whip over boiling water with an eggbeater until foamy. Take from the fire and whip again with the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs.

Pineapple Pie.—Line a pie plate with a good crust and fill with a can of crushed or grated pineapple mingled with one cupful of sugar, a tablespoonful of softened butter, the well-beaten yolks of two eggs beaten stiff and folded in.

If preferred, a teaspoonful of cornstarch dissolved in a little water may be added to the pineapple with the yolks of the eggs, and the whites of the eggs reserved for meringue. After the pie is baked whip the whites of the eggs stiff with two tablespoonfuls of sugar, pile lightly on top the pie and set in a coolish oven to puff and color a golden brown.—Delineator.

Jugged Rabbit. One good-sized rabbit, one ounce of dripping, two large onions, three cloves, a bunch of sweet herbs, some parsley, ten peppercorns, salt to taste, some good stock, one tablespoonful of ketchup.

First skin, wash, and draw the rabbit and cut into neat joints. Fry these a light brown in dripping and place in a stewpan. Then fry two large onions, and add to the rabbit with three cloves the sweet herbs, parsley, peppercorns and salt to taste. Pour over enough good thick stock to cover well, and add a tablespoonful of ketchup. Simmer very gently for two hours, and serve in a deep dish, with a garnish of fried seasoning balls and rolled rashers of bacon. Hand red currant jelly with this dish.

Rhubarb Fool. One pound of pink rhubarb, two ounces of sugar, one strip of lemon rind, one gill of cream. Stew the rhubarb in the usual way with the sugar and lemon rind, and when done pass it through a sieve. Whip and stir it into the rhubarb. Let it stand for an hour, then serve it. Ice wafers or strips of spongecake can be handed with this dish.

Italian Ponto. Line the buttered pan with boiled macaroni, over this pour a mixture of finely cut veal, chicken or tongue, one ounce of Parmesan or grated cheese, a cupful of rich cream, two eggs, a little lemon rind, nutmeg, pepper and salt and a bit of cayenne. Boil for half an hour, glaze and serve with a rich brown sauce or gravy.

Almond Cheese. Moisten a square of cream cheese, add a little rich cream and beat with a fork until smooth. Mix with it one-half cupful of chopped blanched almonds and add lightly one cupful whipped cream. Serve cold with a scant teaspoon currant jam on each portion, with salad course.

Towel Rack a Convenience. The three or five arm towel rack will be found a great convenience in the kitchen for drying the dish towels on a damp day. It is not so unsightly as a line stretched across the kitchen to be used for drying purposes.

Cream of Beef Soup. Chop two small, cooked beets, simmer in one pint of milk until pulpy. Thicken with a tablespoon of flour and season with butter, pepper, salt and sugar. This makes enough for two people.

Spanish Cream. One package of cream cheese, 1 ten-cent bottle of stuffed olives, 1 hard-boiled egg, 1/2 of small onion. Grind all through food chopper, moisten with cream and spread between crackers.

Mother Ann's Sandwich. A fresh slice of bread; second, a thin slice of boiled ham; third, a hot fried egg; fourth, a hot fried banana, and this sandwich is then covered with potato salad. This dish is not recommended for invalids.

NEW LIFE AND STRENGTH

Obtained Through Proper Action of the Kidneys.

Mrs. Josiah Straw, 526 N. Broadway, Canton, So. Dak., says: "I suffered for some time with rheumatic pains in my limbs and was weak and languid. The irregularity of the kidney secretions also caused much annoyance. After using Doan's Kidney Pills I did not have these troubles. They seemed to put new life and strength into my system and helped me in every way. My husband had an experience almost the same, and it is with pleasure that we both recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

Two Little Girls Had Eczema Very Badly—In One Case Child's Hair Came Out and Left Bare Patches.

Cuticura Met with Great Success.

"I have two little girls who have been troubled very badly with eczema. One of them had it on her lower limbs. I did everything that I could hear of for her, but it did not give in until warm weather, when it seemingly subsided. The next winter when it became cold the eczema started again and also in her head where it would take the hair out and leave bare patches. At the same time her arms were sore the whole length of them. I took her to a physician, but the child grew worse all the time. Her sister's arms were also affected. I began using Cuticura Remedies, and by the time the second lot was used their skin was soft and smooth. Mrs. Charles Baker, Albion, Me., Sept. 21, '08." *Potter Drug & Chem. Does the World Think?

Man is evidently made for thought; this is his whole dignity and his whole merit; his whole duty is to think as he ought. Now the order of thought is to begin with self, and with its author and its end. Now of what thinks the world? Never of these things, but of dancing, playing the lute, singing, making verses, tilting at the ring, etc., of fighting, making ourselves kings, without thinking what it is to be a king or what to be a man.—Pascal.

Answer This Question

When thousands of women say that they have been cured of their ailments by a certain remedy, does this not prove the merit of that remedy?

Thousands of women have written the story of their suffering, and have told how they were freed from it by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—for thirty years these reports have been published all over America.

Without great merit this medicine could never have gained the largest sale of any remedy for woman's ills—never could have become known and prized in nearly every country in the world.

Can any woman let prejudice stand between her and that which will restore her health? If you believe those who have tried it you know this medicine does cure.

Read this letter from a grateful woman, then make up your mind to give Mrs. Pinkham's medicine a chance to cure you.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I am a firm believer in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was a great sufferer from organic female troubles for years, and almost despaired of ever being well again. I had bearing-down pains, backache, headache and pains in my abdomen, and tried Mrs. Pinkham's Compound as a last resort. The result was astonishing, and I have used it and advocated it ever since. It is a great boon to expectant mothers. I have often said that I should like to have its merits thrown on the sky with a search-light so that women would read and be convinced that there is a remedy for their sufferings. "My husband joins me in its praise. He has used it for kidney trouble and been entirely cured."—Mrs. E. A. Bishop, 1915 Atlantic Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit. Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
