STRUCTURAL IRONWORKERS.

Branch of Omaha Local Will Be Formed in This City.

Owing to peculiar circumstances surrounding the trade in this vicinity the Structural Ironworkers have decided to form a branch of the Omaha local here instead of instituting a separate local. The reasons for this action are so plain to the men themselves that no difference of opinion exists. A number of members of the craft who have not heretofore been members of the organization have been taken in.

There are two big structural iron jobs now under way in Lincoln, the new viaduct and the shops at Havenlock. The new stock pavilion at the fair grounds may be counted another big contract. These jobs will afford employment to structural ironworkers for the next eight or ten months.

F. K. Fisher, president of the Omaha local, was in Lincoln last week conferring with members of the union now employed on Lincoln and Havenlock jobs. He visited the Labor Temple and found it difficult to frame words to express his delight. "You Lincoln unionists have got us fellows in Omaha skinned a mile on the temple business," he said. "It is a big thing, and it will be a great help in the work of organization. I wish Omaha had one as good."

"I'M NOT A FARLEY."

President Alpine of the Plumbers Makes a Sharp Reply.

John R. Alpine, president of the Plumbers, Gas Fitters and Steam Fitters International Union, doesn't waste words when he talks. Recently he was approached by a representative of a union busting bunch and overtures made to pay him for organizing a dual union of steam fitters.

"I'm not a Farley!" exclaimed Alpine. Then Alpine proceeded to make a few remarks, brief and to the point, and the representative of the union busters took a sneak.

This has considerable significance, showing that the trouble between the plumbers and the steamfitters is lessening. The two organizations have had many differences in the past, but no longer will one branch of the business "scab" on the other. In many cities the craftsmen belong to the same local organization. This is the case in Lincoln.

GENERAL MENTION.

Items of Interest to Union Men Picked and Pilfered Carefully.

Salt Lake City is overrun with carpenters. Electrical workers in St. Paul, Minn., are having a revival.

The Big Four depot in Springfield, Ohio, will be erected by union labor. Hat and cap makers are on strike in the shop of Shapiro & Levy, Indianapolis.

Union labor owns a lot in Utica, N. Y., on which they propose to erect a labor temple.

Twelve hundred enginemen on the Philadelphia & Reading Railway have been granted a 13 per cent increase in wages.

The Lackawanna Railroad company has granted an increase from 5 to 10 cents an hour to all shopmen on the system.

The Traction Co. is doing big things, and planning bigger. For all of which let us be properly thankful and appreciative.

Employees of the Springfield, Ill., Hat and Cap company have affiliated with the Cloth Hat and Cap Makers' Union of America.

There were 34 international unions that grew last year in the face of the depression that prevailed. The total increase in the membership of these organizations was 83,601.

Liverymen in 15 Staten Island towns will fight what they call "the undertakers' trust." They offer to supply coaches for funerals at half the price charged by the undertakers.

Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union, with a membership of 1,500,000, scattered through 38 states, urges congress to suppress all exchanges which permit dealing in agricultural products.

The possibility of a strike of the conductors and trainmen of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad system in connection with their fight for increased wages is so remote that it is not to be considered at all.

The Sailors' Union of the Pacific will celebrate its 25th anniversary on March 6. The quarter-century mark in the life of the union will be honored by appropriate ceremonies in San Francisco and along the coast.

The American Federation of Labor has restored the charter of the Davenport, Ia., Trades and Labor Assembly, which was revoked some time ago because of the refusal of the local body to put out the Electrical Workers.

The Elgin, Ill., National Watch company says trade conditions necessitate a reduction of 10 per cent in the output of its factory and that approximately 200 of the 3,000 operatives will be permanently laid off Feb. 5.

Evidently preferring death by starvation to returning to their native country, twenty-two Bulgarians held in Galveston, Texas, for deportation, refusing food, are beginning to carry out the threat that they would die rather than return home.

Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' Union in Indianapolis reports trade good and all members at work. The new working rules have gone into effect which grant an increase of ten cents per hour, making the wage scale sixty cents per hour.

It is said that in Alabama there are 60,000 slaves kept by a few thousand whites in three counties and but few have ever left the plantations on which they were born. They are sold, battered, whipped, and if they run away are killed if caught.

After twenty years in the show business the Ringling brothers have bought up practically every circus, gradually absorbing Hagenbach's, Barnum and Bailey's and others, till at last, for the season of 1909, the Ringlings divided $1,000,000 in profits.

The wage agreement entered into between the Pacific Coast Council of Electrical Workers and the Pacific Telegraph and Telephone company, which provides for an increase of from $3.50 to $3.75 per day in California, Oregon and Nevada, became operative Tuesday.

The metal trade polishers of South Bend, Ind., are asking the labor press to warn members of their craft to give the Studobaker company of that city a wide berth. This concern is issuing frantic calls for men, who, when they arrive, are told they will be paid just half the union scale.

Boston Bartenders' Union reports that in the entire jurisdiction of the union all but 19 places observe the union's new wage rate and hour scale, which establishes $18 as the minimum wage rate, involves a slight increase in wages for some of the men, and slightly reduces the hours of some.

A Workingmen's Store Company is Now Being Formed

To the Wage Earners of Lincoln :

PROFIT sharing proposition, whereby the working men can buy their merchandise at their own store. The way prices are advancing on all lines of merchandise it is about time for the working men to have a store of their own where they can buy their goods and thereby share in the benefits of the profits. Why not become a stockholder of this company? The Samuels Clothing Co. is incorporated under the State laws of Nebraska, with an authorized Capital of Ten Thousand dollars, of which one half is fully paid up.

Here is our proposition. We will place on the market Five Thousand dollars of our Capital Stock to working men only, in shares of One dollar each non-assessable, and will be sold in lots of ten shares to one hundred shares to any one individual.

This will give every stockholder an opportunity to buy goods at their own store, also an opportunity to advertise their own business among their fellow-workmen, which is bound largely to increase the business.

The business will be conducted on the Co-operative plan, and merchandise will be sold to the stockholders and not charge them over and above expenses 10 per cent profit. This alone will save the working men of Lincoln and vicinity on some goods that they buy from 25 to 35 per cent.

I, HENRY SAMUELS, President of this Co. will personally guarantee to every Stockholder, every dollar invested, together with an annual dividend of ten per cent, payable semi-annually.

I need no introduction to the working men of Lincoln, as I am no stranger, having lived here for the last 18 years, and most of my time has been spent in the mercantile business.

This is a proposition which ought to appeal to the intelligence of every working man. Books are now open for subscription for stock in this Company at our store, 926 P St. Subscription by mail will receive prompt attention.

Yours truly,

HENRY SAMUELS

President of Samuels Clothing Co.
