

THANKSGIVING

Plenty of reason for feeling thankful this season: Crops good, industries prospering, at peace with all the world and the future bright. In addition there is the thankfulness you should feel because of the splendid opportunity of up-to-date, right-style clothing at the prices we are making. We are thankful that we are able to offer you these splendid opportunities. You can come here and buy with the assurance that what you get is correct in style and no matter where you go you will not suffer by comparison. You get all the good qualities you have a right to expect, get them months ahead of what others offer, and at prices that will appeal to your financial judgement, and that feeling of comfort and satisfaction that is yours by right. Right now is the time to make your selections for the winter. Stocks were never larger nor finer.

We are thankful for our ability to show you such elegant lines at such excellent figures. We are thankful for your patronage in the past, which made the year a profitable one—to both of us, we hope. Thanksgiving Day, 1910, should be observed by all of us, for all of us have much to be thankful for. Our Thanksgiving Proclamation is, but to the point; "Be a wise buyer, and therefore a satisfied buyer." Wisdom dictates that you examine the bargains we are offering.
