THE WAGWORKER.

THE PICTURE SHOW.

The moving picture show put on at the Oliver on January 13, under the auspices of the Central Labor union, was well attended. The committee having the matter in charge performed good work in advertising the attraction, and as a result of its efforts the audience comfortably filled the theater despite the frigidty of the weather. In all essentials the exhibition was the same as the one put on at the Auditorium three years ago, and was just as entertaining and instructive.

Regret was expressed that Collis Lovely could not be present and give the lecture accompanying the show of labels, but J. C. McMorrow filled his place more than acceptably. Mr. Lovely is watching the Missouri legislature and endeavoring to prevent the renewal of the shoe making contract at the Missouri penitentiary at Jefferson City. The Missouri prison turns out more shoes than any other penal institution in the United States. Mr. McMorrow paid a handsome tribute to the energy and loyalty of the Lincoln unionists who have got behind the Labor Temple movement, and said it was one of the greatest things in the community. He also paid a high compliment to The Wageworker and asserted that it was the duty of every union man in the community to give it support and encouragement to the end that it become a great force in the labor movement. As the different labels were shown upon the screen Mr. McMorrow explained them, and in running comment told why every man and woman interested in the uplift of humanity should always demand the label. His argument was strong and left a deep impress upon the minds of his hearers. The speaker also called attention to the anti-union organization existing in Lincoln and urged the unionists to get together in solid phalanx to oppose the efforts now being made to crush unionism in this vicinity.

Mr. George Halley sang several songs, accompanying himself upon the piano, and Mr. Berry, operating the picture machine, projected handsome colored illustrations.

A SQUARE DEAL FOR MEN.
In Cincinnati there is in operation a plan called the "Dow" plan for the relief of dumb animals. On the hundred million pages of paper for universal distribution is printed the following: "A Square Deal for the Horse.—We believe every horse deserves three ample meals daily, water frequently, proper shoes, a blanket in cold weather and two weeks' vacation annually. Throw away the whip." Good, very good, as far as it goes.

But another hundred million copies with "horse" changed to "man" would greatly improve it.—Chicago Public.

GOMPERS' TRADUCER.

During the campaign of 1908 an effort was made to embroil Samuel Gompers in a political scandal to offset his activity against the organized cohorts of greed. Greed found a ready tool in one Broughten Brandenburg, who tried to earn his dirty money by smirching Uncle Sammy. Brandenburg tried to make people believe that Gompers solicited a bribe from him, offering to sell out the laboring men of the country if given his price. He thought he had inveigled Gompers into a compromising situation, but he didn't know the wily old fox who has headed the American Federation of Labor for thirty years. Instead of catching Gompers, the tool of organized greed was caught and exposed. The other day Brandenburg got all that was coming to him. After his failure to "land" Gompers, Brandenburg forged a check on a publishing house and skipped the country. He was arrested and released on bail. When the trial came up he did not appear. He was apprehended later and is now in jail awaiting trial in default of bail in the sum of $2,000. The men who used him as a despicable tool have deserted him. The man he tried to ruin is still doing business at the old stand, bigger and better and more highly thought of than ever before.

DEATH OF MRS. RUDY.

The sympathy of every member of organized labor in this community will go out to O. M. Rudy, whose wife departed this life last Sunday night after a lingering illness. It has been known for a long time that Mrs. Rudy could not recover, and everything that loving hands and hearts could do to make her last days pleasant and comfortable was done. When at last she answered the call of the grim reaper a devoted wife and a loving mother passed to her eternal reward. Mrs. Rudy is survived by her husband and a son and daughter. The funeral services were held Wednesday.

The Electrical Workers were present in numbers, and the floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. Mr. Rudy has been manager of the Labor Temple since it was opened, and many of its frequenters were aware of the terrific strain he has been laboring under since his wife's illness began. In his deep affliction he knows that he has the heartfelt sympathy of every unionist of his wide acquaintance.

The courts have administered another staggering blow to organized labor, the last one being administered by Justice Blacmar of the supreme court of the state of New York. Carpenters and joiners struck against a sash and door manufacturing company of Brooklyn, and proceeded to put the ban upon buildings using the product of the company. Justice Blacmar declared this to be "a combination to perform a legal act illegally," and issued an injunction against the carpenters and joiners and threatened them with fine and imprisonment if they did not cease their "secondary boycott."
