News of the Week

The attempt to arrest thirty-two miners in West Virginia for a violation of the blanket injunction issued by Judge Keller last August, resulted in a battle between the federal marshals and a sheriff's posse in which three men were killed, three mortally wounded and a large number slightly wounded. Seventy-three arrests were made, ten by the marshals and the remainder by the sheriff. A somewhat extended account was given in the dailies concerning the battle, but after that they shut up like clams. What has happened since nobody knows. Perhaps the dailies have come to the conclusion that the Keller blanket injunction was such an outrageous violation of the natural rights of man as well as of the constitution, that the best thing to do was to say nothing.

In response to a resolution of the senate, the interstate commerce commission reports that for the United States the total par value of railway securities is $11,724,035,829, and their market value $8,351,103,523. The capital stock is stated to be, par value, $6,021,364,502, and the market value $3,250,144,596. The par value of the funded debt is stated to be $5,702,671,327 and the market value $5,100,958,927.

The defeat in the house of Senator Patterson's bill to appoint a commission to arrange for international bimetalism has resulted in tacking the same thing on to the sundry civil appropriation bill in the senate and appropriating $100,000 to pay the expenses of the commission. It is said that the senate committee on appropriations will insist on retaining it in

Doctor

Pronounced My Case Incurable, Said I Would Die Of Heart Disease.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Brought Good Health.

"I have every reason to recommend the Dr. Miles Remedies as the Heart Cure saved my life. I am a large man, considerably over six feet in height, weigh nearly three hundred pounds. Some years ago my heart was so seriously affected that I never expected to get well. Doctors pronounced my case incurable. I noticed your advertisement in some paper, and bought six bottles of the Heart Cure. It did great relief and improved so I continued until I had taken twelve bottles. My trouble was organic and I never expected to be permanently cured, but thanks to Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, I have kept in good health and have been able to follow my profession continually since first taking the remedies eight years ago. I am a musician, teacher of instrumental and vocal music, musical conductor, etc. I have taught all over the state of Michigan and have recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to thousands of persons in all parts of the state and have heard nothing but good reports of it. I have induced dozens of persons in my own county to take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure as my word is never doubted by those who know me."—C. H. Smith, Flint, Mich.

"I am a druggist and have sold and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, for I know what it has done for me, and I wish I could state more clearly the splendid good health I am enjoying now. Your Restorative Nervine gives excellent satisfaction."—Dr. T. H. Watts, Druggist, Hot Springs, S. D.

the bill and make a persistent fight to that end.

Senator Beveridge undertook to tack another British idea on to this government the other day. He introduced a bill to appoint a commissioner to represent Alaska instead of a delegate elected by the people. That's "English, you know."

United States Consul McWade, located at Canton, China, reports that an American physician there has discovered a cure for leprosy and has actually cured several patients who have been discharged and declared to be in perfect health. His method is the use of sanitation and anti-septics. The highest Chinese officials are lending their aid to the general introduction of the treatment.

It is said that the new legislation against rebates and discriminations applies to the granting of passes and that the roads will hereafter grant none. The pass business has been a great drain on the roads and several times "gentlemen's agreements" have been made to abolish it which were never observed longer than about 24 hours. The law will give an excuse to the roads to cut off a good deal of it, but as far as the abolishment of all passes are concerned, that will be got around by the time the next republican campaign begins.

Speaker Henderson, like all the great pets of the republican party and the corporations, goes to Wall street at the close of his term.

Mabina, the Filipino patriot, has at last taken the oath of allegiance and gone back to Manila. One or two others who were imprisoned with him on the island of Guam refused and were deported to Hong Kong.

When the Venezuelan ship, the Restaurador, was turned over by the Germans, the Venezuelans claimed that she had been sacked of everything valuable that could be carried away. The Germans deny the story and say that while the ship was in their possession $12,000 worth of repairing was done and that they left 150 tons of coal in the ship for which they made no charge. The truth about these South American affairs is very hard to find out.

The Aldrich bill authorizes the secretary of the treasury to receive as security for government deposits (1) United States bonds, as at present; (2) bonds of any state; (3) bonds of cities at least twenty-five years old, with at least 50,000 population, with a debt not more than 10 per cent of their assessed valuation, and which have not defaulted in interest or principal of their debt for ten years; (4) bonds of railroads that have for at least ten years paid dividends on their entire capital stock of at least 4 per cent annually. A provision of the bill also permits the acceptance of the new Panama canal 2 per cent bonds as "security for circulation" when issued.

The republicans were likely in a tight box when they unseated a duly elected democrat just before the close of the session. As there was no political necessity, the republicans already having a good working majority, the only conclusion that can be reached is that the man whom they seated was in a position to ruin the party if he was not seated. Perhaps he had information and could give evidence that would have made it very unpleasant for some of the leaders. The fight that the democrats have since kept up is justifiable.

It is said that W. R. Merriam, director of the census bureau, will shortly resign and go to Wall street. There is where all the real pets of the republican party finally land.

Besides giving the attorney general $500,000 to prosecute the trusts, congress has also provided two assistant attorney generals and a lot of clerks. Knox now has all the appliances furnished him for "trust busting" and if he don't bust them what excuse will he make? No doubt he will conjure up some sort of a one that will be satisfactory to the partisan idiots who always "vote 'er straight."

Government by injunction grows. Judge Adams of the United States district court has enjoined 1,100 firemen and trainmen of the Wabash from striking for higher wages. They have been voting 'er straight right along—let them take their medicine.

"Gas" Addicks couldn't reach the senatorial persimmon himself, but he did like D. E. Thompson of Nebraska—picked a substitute. J. Frank Allee, his right-hand man, and partner in crime, gets the long term and a regular republican, L. Heisler Ball, the short one.

President Roosevelt has called an extra session of the senate to ratify some treaties which have been blocked by Quay's tactics on the statehood bill.

Ball and Allee, the new senators from Delaware, were sworn in on Wednesday in time to draw their salaries at least for the session just closed, if not further back.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS WEDNESDAY

THIS VERY BUSY AND IMPORTANT SESSION OF THE AMERICAN CONGRESS ADJOURNS WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK.

THE BANKERS RESERVE LIFE

Keeps Close Tab on Congress and Ventures the Prediction That the Department of Commerce Is One of the Best Creations of the Session.

George B. Cortelyou, secretary of commerce, has large ideas of the importance of the new department. He wants over $600,000 for expenses and a $7,000,000 building for an office. The new head of the new department appreciates the importance of the office for which he has been selected and appreciates the opportunities it affords for usefulness.

A $7,000,000 BUILDING would be none too good for the department of commerce. It should be an architectural gem and should be distinctly appropriate to the idea of commerce. Old Corinth was a commercial center. The noble Corinthian architecture of the ancient Greeks was developed out of the enlightened selfishness known as commerce. We want in this new building the American ideal—original, significant and ornate. THE BANKERS RESERVE LIFE will watch the development of this department with great interest, for under its roof will one day be housed a bureau of life insurance. By that time the young Nebraska company will be one of the greatest western life companies. Already taking rank among the best, its report to the auditor for 1903 shows a phenomenal growth, and a promise for the future which makes alien competitors green with envy.

B. H. ROBISON, PRESIDENT, will shortly apply for admission to several new states. First-class underwriters can get in on the ground floor by making early applications for contracts. He wants a thoroughly competent man for a general agency now. See him or communicate with him at the home office, McCague Building, Omaha, Neb.
