

THE LEGISLATURE

Final Adjournment April 8—New Laws Enacted.

Final adjournment of the legislature was fixed for 1 o'clock a. m., Wednesday, April 8, 1903. Of course, the clocks will be turned back from time to time and it is probable that Saturday will see the finish of John N. Baldwin's pets.

Up to Wednesday the following bills had been passed and approved, including S. F. 31, which was passed over the governor's veto. A number of others are in the governor's hands for approval. There will be noticed later.

NEW LAWS.

H. R. 22, by Wilson, appropriating $85,000 for the payment of members, officers and employees.

H. R. 87, by Gilbert, changing date of city elections of Omaha from April to May.

H. R. 67, by Gilbert, providing method for city of Omaha to purchase city water works plant.

H. R. 60, by Wilson, appropriating $28,000 for the incidental expenses of the legislature.

Handy Economical Paint.

The rich Tuscan Red Mineral Paint, mixed in Colorado and shipped with all charges paid and safe delivery guaranteed by the B. M. & Paint Co., Railroad Bldg., Denver, Colo., is handy, in that it requires no oil, only water, to prepare it for use; is economical because of its little price and great spreading quality, and is also one of the best preservative paints for indoor or outside work that can be had at any price. The advertisement of this paint appears elsewhere in this issue, and will repay perusal by all of our readers.

You will find an advertisement headed "Seed Corn in the Ear" and below this a big fine picture of an ear of corn. At the bottom you will find the names of the men who raise this fine corn on their 300 acres of the finest land in Iowa, W. W. Van Sant &

Sons, Farragut, Ia. There are no frills on Van, but you can bet your last dollar that his seed corn will grow where any seed corn will grow. He has spent 35 years studying the art of growing and breeding the very best corn and anything you find in his catalogue will do just what he claims for it. Ask him about Cattle King.
